CUTLINE

THURMOND AIDS CHARLESTON VETERANS: Senator Strom Thurmond (D-SC) is pictured above discussing plans with officials of the Calhoun Housing Association for purchase by the veterans' group of the 350-unit John C. Calhoun Homes at Charleston. Thurmond helped the group of 300 Charleston veterans in their negotiations with the Public Housing Authority. Final action on the sale, which will cost $756,000, is expected late this month. Standing left to right are M. J. Blalock, Senator Thurmond, Association President A. M. Heisig, and Leo Zack.
