PRESS RELEASE BY SEN. STROM THURMOND (D-SC), SEPT. 17, 1955

Senator Thurmond has received a letter from Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas in which Senator Johnson said, "I want to extend my deep personal thanks to you for your cooperation and for the part you played in making the year a success."

With the letter came a summary of the legislative record of the 1st Session of the 84th Congress. Commenting on the accomplishments of the Session, Senator Johnson said, "This was a session that was profitable to the American people in the terms of reasonable legislation passed by reasonable men."
