Statement for Editor and Publisher by Senator Strom Thurmond
1-4-55

The newspapers of South Carolina, with few exceptions, played an important part in my election by helping to inform the people of the state correctly as to the issues and method of voting in the election. Not only did the newspapers perform an invaluable public service in presenting the issues properly, they also interpreted accurately and in detail.

I know that the editorial comments of the newspapers contributed to the final result of my election.
