My dear Sir

I received yours of the 14th yesterday & thro' wrote you a few days since I hasten to inform you that I have no objection of leaving home at present & therefore shall be happy to welcome you here at any time that it may suit your convenience to come. If I knew by what train you would come I would send you a horse & carriage to meet you & arrive at the depot.

Very truly yours
Thos J. Clemson

Eliay Baker Esq
