Washington D.C. April 3^d/60

Dear Sir

I have just received another application from Belgium for the balance of the funds owed on this purchase. Surely every one will admit that indulgence has been given to an extent more than could have been expected. I have advanced all that he has received & I am desirous of entering on my funds - I wish you I went to N York to sell the purchase & would have realized upon it had Mr. Lupp lived -

I can only add now that if you do not settle for it I shall be compelled to close the affair by selling for what it will bring and at your expense -

Very truly yours
Thos. Clemen

Elias Baker Esq
