My dear uncle,

Your letter arrived in due time - The answer was just as I expected - I wrote to you a few days since enclosing amount of notes & I have written to day to Roe offering him $300 - for the horses - I am draft of 30. days date - which I suppose he will accept - I told him to conduct with you as to a man to bring the horses over - Please give him one - a trusty man - I want something to drive about with while I am here - so that I want the horses very soon - Please arrange about the man's wages & I write to Best to give him money enough in return to bring him here - and I am would add it in the draft I am to send - all better - though anna - still suffers from the singular spasms in the stomach.

Yours affectionately
Wm. F. Newman

E. Baker

Ab. Couldn't you send the same man who rode the mule over here winter before last - He knows the way and could come without trouble
