Senator Strom Thurmond has announced the addition of C. Marshall Cain of Aiken to his office staff.

A January graduate from the University of South Carolina School of Law, Cain is the son of Mrs. Helen H. Cain and the late Dr. C. Howard Cain of Aiken.

The vacancy filled by Cain was created by the resignation of David Crum of Denmark, who has returned to practice law.

The young Aiken lawyer received his B. S. degree from the University of South Carolina in 1957. While at the University, he was associate and assistant editor of South Carolina Law Quarterly; performed in the National Moot Court Competition in 1957 and 1958, serving as captain in the latter year; was vice president of the Law School student body; president of both his social fraternity, Phi Kappa Sigma, and the University's Interfraternity Council; and was elected to both the Blue Key honorary service fraternity and the Kappa Sigma Kappa honorary leadership fraternity.
