Class Reunions
from 1949 to 2010

As of August 1, 2010
Class of 1939 Reunions

Their Reunions have been of great importance to '39ers down through the years, as witness the relatively high attendance and the ever reducing time interval between reunions.

The first '39 class reunion would normally have been held in 1944, but in that year most '39ers were off fighting the 2nd World War. Thus the first reunion was in June of 1949, when 46 classmates gathered in Clemson to renew acquaintances with each other and with the campus. Successive reunions were in 1954 and 1959, but thereafter the interval between reunions became 2 or 3 years until about 1975 when they started taking place every other year. Ever since 1994 the class has been gathering at Clemson every June. Through 2009, there have been 35 reunions, with an average attendance of 14.4% of living members as of the date of the reunions. The Golden Anniversary reunion in 1989 was attended by 40.2% of living members.

One very attractive and appreciated feature of the last twenty-five or more reunions has been a Memorial Service, held on Friday afternoons of the reunion weekend, to celebrate the lives of those classmates whose passing has become known since the prior reunion. A Scroll of Honor, stored in the Caboose between reunions, bears the names and dates of death of each classmate, and the updating of this scroll is a prominent part of the Memorial Service.

Another feature has been the reunion brochures prepared by Jim Sweeny every year since 1996. Seen here is classmate R. W. Boys studying the brochure at the 2008 Memorial Service.

In 2009 the honorary members of the class of 1939 assumed responsibility for planning and conducting future class reunions, thus assuring that this important class tradition will continue after the last '39er has passed into that great campus in the sky.

The reunion of 2010, conducted by the honorary members, featured the opening of that symbolic bottle of vintage 1939 Chateauneuf-du-Pape, and a ritual toasting of departed members by all those living members of the class who could make it back to Clemson on June 11.
