MARYVILLE ELEVEN GOES DOWN IN DEFEAT BEFORE CLEMSON TEAM

Clemson got back to her usual style Wednesday afternoon on Bowman Field, when she piled up the score of 35 to 0 against Maryville College, of Tennessee. The Tigers were in good condition, and exhilarated by the bracing weather, went tearing through their opponents line where ever they chose.

As the clock in the College tower struck four, McFadden, for Clemson, began operations by booting the ball to the enemy's ten yard line, where it was caught by Barre and returned ten yards. On the first play, the ball was fumbled—Gaston securing it. Maryville here secured the ball on downs and punted 30 yards to McFadden who returned 15. Caughman was next called on and made two rushes of 5 yards each over center, Warren got loose and ran 30 yards for a touch down, four minutes after play began. McFadden kicked goal. Score:-Clemson 6, Maryville 0. Barre kicked 35 yards to Caughman who returned 20. Allen made 5 yards, and Lee added one. On a short kick Coles got the ball on the 20 yard line and ran for the second touch down of the game. McFadden kicked goal. Score:-Clemson 12, Maryville 0.

Caughman received the kick off on his 15 yard line, and advanced 10. Warren attempted a short (Continued on page 7.)

OLD STONE CHURCH TO BE REPAIRED

On October 26th, The annual meeting of the Old Stone Church and Cemetery Association will be held at the Old Stone Church. At this time it is purposed to have a brief religious service in which the old church will be rededicated to the worship of God.

A movement has been on foot for some time in charge of Dr. R. N. Brackett of this place for the purpose of reestablishing this historic old place. During the next two weeks, repairs will be made and it is hoped that by November regular services will be held once or twice a month and Sunday School every Sunday.

The repairs will necessarily be extensive, for the old building has received severe treatment at the hands of those who have visited it as well as at the hands of time. The old entrance will be made again the main entrance, the gallery will be renewed, and the walls plastered and calcimined.

The aim of the Old Stone Church and Cemetery Association in connection with the Andrew Pickens and Catteechee Chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution is to permanently establish this hallowed spot by converting it into a Mortuary Chapel where tablets to the illustrious dead, buried there, will be placed. Wills Comedy Co. Made a Hit '08 Annual has a neat little Sum left as Result.

The Wills Musical Comedy Company, gave three performances here Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4th and 5th under the auspices of the '08 Annual management. The student body turned out en masse and from the audible indications enjoyed the plays highly. "Sweet Sixteen" was played Friday evening, in this Mrs. Swift as Diana, won the applause of all, while the imitation of intoxication by Mr. Brewer was superb, keeping the audience convulsed with laughter.

"Muldroon's Picnic" was presented at the Matinee, Saturday afternoon and "Two Old Cronies" Saturday evening.

The specialties were particularly good in all the plays. The costumes were also very elaborate for a troop of this kind.

The most popular feature of the performances, to the boys at least, were the choruses. They were unusually fine. "I'll let you Chew my Chewing Gum," "Iola," "No Wedding Bells For Me," "Love Me and the World is Mine," are all one can hear in barracks these days.

Miss May Holby, the leading soubrette, was easily the star of the entire troupe. Everything she did won applause, and in fact so popular was she, that she was applauded every time she came on the stage. She has winning ways, graceful manners, and an excep-
At the meeting of the Senior Dancing Club, Mr. G. Warren was elected President, Mr. C. W. Rice, Vice President, and Mr. F. G. Caughman, Secretary and Treasurer. The president then appointed several standing Committees and the dates for formal dances were arranged. After some discussion, it was decided to have the first dance on December 6th, and that it would be a masquerade ball, the color of the dominoes to be maroon and black.

Messrs. Alverson, McCaslan, Brunson, Lee, Warren, Rivers, Trott, Kennedy, and Kirven were recently elected as members of the German Club.

Some time ago, the Senior Class petitioned the Board of Trustees to let the Corps go to the Fair at Columbia this year, and a few days ago a letter was received from Hon. Alan Johnstone, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, acknowledging the petition and stating that the Board considered that it would not be to best interest of the College to give this permission.

The three shows presented by the Wills Comedy Company, Friday and Saturday Oct. 4th and 5th, were well attended by the Corps and quite a neat little sum for the Annual was realized.

A Musical and Dramatic Club has been organized, with Mr. C.W. Marston, President, Mr. E. B. Brown, Business Manager, and Mr. William Houston as Director. The Club expects to make trips to several of the near-by cities, if satisfactory arrangements can be made.

At a recent Mass Meeting, Messrs. Fike and Sherard were elected Chief Rooters. They promise to give a good account of themselves at all the games, and say that if Clemson loses it will not be on account of lack of support from the side lines.
SOCIETIES

The Calhoun

At the second meeting of the Calhoun Society, five more new members were initiated. The Society has quite a number of new members, and hope they will fall in line and get a great deal from their work in the Society.

The feature of the exercises was the debate. The subject was well chosen—"Resolved, That the Yellow Race will be the Dominant Race," and was debated with a great deal of enthusiasm. Mr. Clarkson, on the negative, seemed to have mastered the subject and aided his side a great deal in winning.

The extemporaneous speeches were very good. Mr. Wilburn pointed out the great advantages to be derived from joining the different organizations of the College, especially the Y. M. C. A.

The Critic was very impartial in his criticisms, and made us all feel we could improve by trying harder next time.

There was no meeting on the fourth account of the play in Chapel.

The Palmetto

The Palmetto Literary Society held its weekly meeting in the Society hall on Friday night. The exercises were exceptionally good. The speakers showed careful preparation, and their deliveries indicated earnest efforts. The debate for the night was—"Resolved, that Society work is more beneficial to the College student than its pangs." On the Affirmative were Messrs Jeter, Friday, and Hutchins, on the Negative, Messrs Sanders, Gee and Pog.

The question was ably discussed, and it was a very difficult task for the judges to reach a decision. They finally decided in favor of the Negative. Mr. Gee delivered a splendid oration, and Mr. Weatherbee entertained the society with an amusing declamation. The society then adjourned.

Good order was maintained throughout the meeting, in fact each man seemed to realize the importance of Society rank, and appeared to listen attentively to every word delivered by the speakers. If this meeting is a fair sample of all the meetings for the ensuing year, then we feel safe in saying that this will be the banner year for the Palmetto Literary Society.

The Columbian

On account of the entertainment in Chapel Friday evening the regular exercises were postponed. However, the Society was entertained for a short while by Mr. Luchenco, a native of Russia, who has been in America during the past year studying the Agricultural Colleges of this country. He is a very distinguished and highly educated gentleman, and made a very interesting talk. His remarks were largely along the lines of student life in Russia, and the general conditions that prevail in that country. As he told of the deplorable state of affairs that exists among the people of every class—how the capacities of the greatest men of the land are held in check—how many of the noble ambitious lives of many young students are blighted—how almost every farthing is wrung from the peasant, all by the mighty unremitting hand of oppression; one could not but feel the impulses of a liberty-loving heart being stirred within him. Yea, such tidings of misgovernment, coming direct from the lips of one who has felt its pangs, causes a feeling of gratefulness to permeate our very innermost nature that we are in the land of the free—the sons of Liberty.

We were glad to have in our midst an old society member and worker, Mr. E. P. Alford, a graduate of the class of '06.

A NICE ATTRACTION

The troupe was composed of the following—
Mr. and Mrs. Wills, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Swift, Miss Holby, Miss Yoeeman, Miss North, Bruce sisters, Mr. Hilston and Mr. Barnhart.

The Manager of the Annual is to be congratulated in securing such popular attractions. He is at present negotiating with the Empire Stock Company, which we remember well from last year.

Of course no one claims any educational advantages from these attractions, but they help to make life more bearable to us who are here away from a town where we could see these things galore. They break the monotony and help to make the "variety" that is the "spice of life." When they are brought here it is at great expense, so when they come, let's patronize them, thereby helping the Annual, and also making it possible to keep up this plan of amusement.

OLD STONE CHURCH

Dr. R. N. Brackett has recently published a volume entitled "The Old Stone Church, Oconee County, South Carolina," the proceeds of which go to the Old Stone Church fund. To one historically inclined this book will be of great value; for much history centers around this old spot. Cloth bound copies may be had from Dr. R. N. Brackett, Clemson College, S. C. for $1.50 per copy, postage prepaid; paper bound copies at $1.25 per copy, postage prepaid. The supply is limited.

Mr. E. P. Alford, of the class of '06, who is now employed as draughtsman for the Fort Pitt Bridge Company, of Couvensburg Pa., spent a day on the campus while on his way to his home in Florence, where he will spend his vacation. "E. P.'s" many friends here will be glad to know that he is doing well in his chosen profession.

Mr. H. W. Moore, of the class of '06, was on the campus several days ago on business connected with the dairying branch of the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. F. S. Crawford is making an extensive addition to his store. He is building a second story to it and broadening it by about six feet. The increase in Mr. Crawford's business made this addition necessary.

Mr. James Henry Rice, Jr., who was for many years on the staff of the Columbia State, and is editor of the Spartanburg Journal, was on the campus several days ago. Mr. Rice is also president of the Audobon Society, which has for its object the enforcement of the State's game laws.

Prof. C. E. Chambliss, State Entomologist, was on the campus a few days ago.

Hon. Alan Johnstone, president of the Board of Trustees, was here on business several days ago.

A number of people from Pendleton, Central, and other nearby towns attended the John B. Wills Musical Comedy Co., shows here some time ago.

Prof. H. W. Barre has been called to his home on account of the death of his brother. Prof. Barre's many friends extend to him their heartfelt sympathy in his bereavement.

Prof. Styles Howard's untiring efforts have at last seemingly been crowned with success. His invention for the utilization of the hot air of a cooking stove, and the transformation of its energy into power for pumping water is now almost complete. His brother is helping him in filling in some of the details.

The new barracks, which was to have been completed by the fifteenth of August, is still under way of construction. When it is finished it will, no doubt, be one of the most imposing and modern buildings of its kind in the entire South.

Hon. R. W. Simpson, ex-president of the Board of Trustees, was on the campus recently.

The "Reuben Annex" at the store has gone into the hands of a Receiver. Its life short but sweet to Rube; for he sings: "I got all that was coming to me, and a little bit more."

Clemson Dramatic Musical Club.

The Clemson Dramatic Musical Club was organized Monday, October 1st, with Mr. C. W. Marston as president, Mr. E. B. Brown as business manager, and Prof. W. W. Houston as musical director. The proceeds of its entertainments are for the benefit of the '08 Annual. Its initial performance will be given here about the first of November, and afterward the Club will make a tour of the cities and female colleges in the upper part of the State. The performance will consist of songs by chorus, songs by quartette, solos, orchestra and band quartette. About thirty-five of the best voices in college are daily practicing, and Professor Houston has expressed himself as highly pleased with the beginning. This is quite a new undertaking at Clemson, but a highly commendable one: and we wish it every success possible.

The College Exhibit.

Plans have been laid and preparations are being made for the Clemson College exhibit at the State Fair. The exhibit is expected to be much larger this year than it was last year. Each of the departments of the college will be represented: the Agricultural, Mechanical, and Textile. A committee will meet here in a few days to advise with the authorities as to just what the exhibit will comprise.

Prominent Russian Agronomist

An Interesting Address to Seniors

Prof. Alexis E. Lulchenco, one of Russia's prominent Agronomists, has been at Clemson for some time studying the Agricultural conditions in this section. He expressed himself as being very favorably impressed with the College. Professor Lulchenco has been making a tour of the different Agricultural Colleges of the South, for the purpose of acquainting himself with the American system. He intends to get new ideas from the American Agricultural Institutions and apply them to schools of the same class in Russia.

Professor Lulchenco made a very interesting talk to the Agricultural Seniors last week. He compared the school systems of the United States and Russia and told something of Russian student life. There are three classes of Agricultural schools in Russia—the preparatory Agricultural School, where the elements of the science are taught, the Agricultural College, a little lower than our own College, and the Agricultural Institute, corresponding to our University. Professor Lulchenco said that students in America are much freer than those in Russia. In America...

Editorial

The men are turning out fairly well for football practice, and there is some good crude material among the candidates. We see a number of men among the spectators, however, who would look well in football uniform. Go out, men! Although you may not make the team, you can be some help by making Varsity work hard.

Can anyone give good reasons why we should not go to the State Fair? The regulations state that the Corps must be taken on a week's encampment, and we know of no better place than Columbia during Fair week. Fair week is the best opportunity afforded the Corps to make a good impression upon the people of the State. That Clemson cadets can make a good impression in Columbia, no one will dispute. During the encampment there in 1905, the people of the State received a new conception of Clemson. Many wild rumors had gone out concerning the life here, and some people expected to see a crowd of reckless rowdies when the Clemson train arrived in Columbia. Did the Corps' actions in Columbia bear out any such expectations? We think that the people in Columbia; and, in fact everyone who attended the Fair that year will concur with us in the statement that Clemson men conducted themselves as befitted gentlemen and South Carolinians.

The expense to the college is a minor consideration. Quarters are furnished by the State, and Clemson has to bear only the expenses of the mess. In fact, a week's encampment in Columbia would cost the College very little, and would be a source of great benefit and enjoyment to the Corps. The Corps would rather have the encampment at the Fair than anywhere else.

We also believe that the people of Columbia would welcome us there, and would show us the same courtesy that was shown us in 1905.

FOUNDED—A reason why we should not go to the Fair. We are not going. Nuff said.

Every student should feel it his duty to uphold the standard and honor of his college. No individual or class has the right to do anything that will bring reproach upon Clemson. We are the largest and most representative body of students in the state; and, if we fail to measure up to the standard, not only ourselves but the entire State will be affected. We are peculiarly situated here. Clemson College was founded amidst a storm of opposition, and still exists despite the disapproval of some of the strongest interests in South Carolina. We cannot understand this opposition, because we are sure Clemson is more than doing the work for which the college was first intended. But, still, this opposition exists, and it is up to the students to do nothing that will intensify this feeling against us.

During the past summer, some of the newspapers of the State found a good deal to say to the detriment of Clemson. These newspapers may have been conscientious in these criticisms, but we know that the reports were greatly exaggerated. There are some newspapers in the State that are always eager to make the proverbial mountains out of mole-hill happenings at Clemson. We do not mind these criticisms, however—no one would kick a dead dog.

We are annoyed each day by some one coming to us and saying that they don't want "The Tiger" after having signed up for it. A great many said this before they saw even the first issue. We don't know what to say about a man who hasn't College spirit enough to subscribe to his College publications. He's the fellow you'll find trying to see a foot ball game on a last season's ticket, and we wouldn't be surprised to hear of his dropping a bad quarter into the collection plate on Sunday. It ought to be compulsory for every boy to subscribe to these publications, just like paying breakage fees or other fees. This would work no hardship on the big broad minded fellow, who has this spirit in him, and it would compel these little narrow minded ones to broaden out. The Business Manager wishes to announce that he will gladly refund any money paid in by one who regrets it. Hand your name to him: we want it for publication; so the students may know who you are.

A RAT'S LETTER FROM HOME SWEET HOME,

"Dear John:—

We have 2000 bundles of fodder in the loft, and about 700 more on the stalk. We have all pulled that is ripe enough, it will be Monday or Tuesday before we will have any more. The cotton is opened, and the peas are getting ripe. With love from,

Earnest."

ident; Mr. W. H. Hanckel, Vice President, Mr. B. T. Rice, Secretary and Treasurer; Mr. J. F. Boyd, Poet; Mr. C. B. Farmer, Historian; and Mr. S. G. Venning, was chosen to represent us on “The Tiger” staff. All of these are strong men, and will do the best that is in them for their class.

Mr. McFadden, in his inaugural address, spoke of the great honor, and trust that the class had bestowed upon him, in electing him President, and advised us all to work together for the benefit and uplifting of our class.

Our class, at the opening of the session, numbered about 250 men; but some of them became home sick, and made their departure. More are coming, however, and almost every day one more is added to our number.

We are well represented on the football team. Four of our classmates, Messrs., McFadden, Hanckel, Wyndham, and Wickman are playing star ball, and bid fair to make a name for themselves on the gridiron. In the game with Gordon Institute, on Sept 28th, Wickman played an excellent game at center, and was frequently applauded. Messrs., “Doc” McFadden and Wyndham, also, played great ball. This is “Doc’s” second year on Varsity, he having played at quarter on last year’s undefeated team.

Mr. J. C. Ellerbe, a member of our class, won a scholarship to West Point and left about two weeks ago for his home, to spend a week or two before going to take up his studies at that institution. Ellerbe is a bright fellow, and we hope he will do well at West Point.

Now fellows, it is up to us to make an everlasting name for the class of ’11, and make it the best that was ever graduated, or will be graduated from Clemson. Let every man feel that it is his personal duty to do everything he can to help the class along, and let us leave behind an example for the coming classes to follow, and a record of which we may well be proud. If we succeed in doing this, we can feel that we have really accomplished something. Let us try.

MARYVILLE DEFEATED BY CLEMSON TEAM

kick and ball was secured by Maryville. Godby made ten yards over center. Barre kicked 12 yards to McFadden. Warren punted to Hunt, who was thrown for a loss. Maryville was penalized for being off side, and then punted 35 yards to Lee who advanced 20. Lee made 12 yards around end, and Caughman made 5 more over the line. McLaurin went over tackle for 12 yards, and Caughman, by steady line plunges, took the ball over for the third touchdown.

McFadden kicked goal. Clemson 18, Maryville 0.

Barre kicked off 40 yards. McFadden returned 25, and then punted 30 yards. Maryville was unable to get through Clemson’s line, so Godby kicked 25 yards. After several gains by McFadden, Lee, and Allen, Coles went over for the fourth touchdown. McFadden kicked goal. Score 24 to 0.

Barre kicked off 35 yards and for the remainder of the half, the ball see-sawed back and forth in the middle of the field, both teams resorting to frequent punts, and ended in Clemson’s possession in the center of the field when time was called.

SECOND HALF.

Barre kicked off 35 yards and McFadden advanced the ball 20 yards. On the first play, Allen ran 80 yards for the fifth touchdown. McFadden failed at goal. Score 29 to 0.

Barre kicked off 45 yards to McFadden, and the ball was then carried steadily up the field by Allen, Warren, Lee, Coles and Caughman. Gaston attempted a forward pass but the ball was caught by Barre. Being unable to advance it, he punted 5 yards out of bounds. After another exchange of punts, Gaston bucked across the goal line. McFadden kicked goal. Score 35 to 0.

McFadden kicked off 50 yards and for the rest of the half, little gaining was done by either team—punting being the order of the day. The half ended with the ball in Clemson’s possession. Final score Clemson 35, Maryville 0.

McFadden, Coles, Lee and Caughman starred for Clemson while Barre and Godby showed up well for the visitors.

A.
The organization of Bible classes has been considerably delayed, for various reasons; but on the evening of Oct. 6, about 25 classes began their year's work. By the 13th, we expect to have at least 50 classes, with an enrollment of 400 members.

The Student Volunteer Band conducted the services in the Presbyterian church, on Oct. 6. The first part of the meeting was given to the discussion of conditions in the foreign field from a medical standpoint, the need along evangelistic lines, and home relations to the foreign field. The volunteers then in turn gave the reasons which led them to the decision of entering this work. The Band which was a year ago composed of two members has now grown to six.

Arrangements are being completed as rapidly as possible for the Intercollegiate Bible Study Institute, to be held here on Oct. 19, 20 and 21. Several strong Association and Bible study leaders have been secured for the occasion. We are very glad to announce that Mr. William D. Murray, of New York City will be among them. Delegations from most of the colleges of the state will be here, and while at Clemson will be entertained among the members of the faculty, and also by the students in the barracks. The institute is to begin Friday night and extend over to Sunday night during which time the various phases of Bible study work will be taken up. Some of the time will also be devoted to evangelistic addresses; and Saturday night, the visiting delegates are to be entertained at a banquet given by the Clemson Association.

Mr. Legate our general secretary has spent several days among Colleges of the state, in the interest of this conference; and we expect to have a much larger number of visiting delegates than last year. Dr. Moffett, president of Erskine College, and Mr. T. B. Ray, education-secretary of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, addressed the Association at the Missionary rally, held on the evening of Sept. 29.

V. P. I. Football Schedule

The following schedule of games of Virginia Polytechnic Institute will be of interest to football enthusiasts at Clemson. Mr. C. R. Williams who coached the '06 Clemson team, is V. P. I.'s coach this season, and his many friends here hope him as great success in his new field as he attained here last year.

A PROMINENT RUSSIAN AGRONOMIST

(Continued from page 5) students are not considered as factors in politics; but in Russia, because of their intellectual superiority over the masses, they are looked upon with suspicion by the Government. Prof. Luichenco is a very intelligent man, and the Seniors were fortunate in having him to address them.

The Lyceum Course for the season 1907-8 has been arranged for with the exception of two numbers to be added later, making a total of ten. The course is up to its usual standard, and it is thought, will be much better than last year. The first entertainment, October 16th, is Panama, a drama in four acts, by Dr. R. S. McArthur, who has a reputation like that of Dr. Conwell, of “Acres of Diamonds” fame. Probably the best of the season will be “The Ladies Commonwealth Orchestra,” of Boston, November 16th, unless Victor and his Band are secured. The Whitney Brothers Male Quartet who have been booked for the past two years and each time being prevented from coming is again on the schedule, and it is hoped they will get here, for they are considered unusually good. The Humorist, John Thomas, will also be with us in the course of the season.

The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 16th.—Dr. McArthur,—Panama, a drama, in four acts.

Nov. 16th.—The Ladies Commonwealth Orchestra, Boston.

Jan. 4th.—The Lyceum Grand Concert Company.

Jan. 18th—Whitney Brothers Male Quartet.

Feb. 11th—Prof. S. H. Clark of the University of Chicago.

Feb. late—Edward Baxter Perry (The Blind Musician.)

Mar. 14th—Broomel Reed Concert Company.

Apr. 4th—John Thomas Concert Company.

Caughman, reciting Veterinary Science—"Young animals are more respectable (susceptible) to period-ic ophthalmia than old ones"

Rat Davis, after being reported by the O. D., was asked who reported him.

Reply: "I don't know his name—some fellow with plow gears on."

Captain Minus notified the Chapel that Faculty would be five minutes earlier.

Ask "Major" Wessinger for the symptoms of indigestion in calves.

Prof. Calhoun, making announcement in Chapel—"All those who wish to engage in gymnastic work provide themselves with a pair of rubber shoes—nothing else required."

"Pook"—"I think I shall take a two-year's course at the Baltimore Dramatic school."

"Judge"—"What are you going to take, Pharmacy?"

Funchess, looking at electric light globe, "Is this a thirty-two horse power light?"

"Horsepistols," rest, thy warfare o'er,
Sleep the sleep that knows not breaking.

"Horsepistols," rest, thy warfare o'er,
Dream of Hospital Drills no more,
Days of study, nights of barking
On our sporty Buzzard Roost Hall
Hands unseen thy couch are strewing
Many revoking orders fall,
Every heart with trouble bedewing

Prof. C. L. Newman, lecturing to class, "I have some cotton on the Experiment farm as tall as a man's head on a horse."

Wilburn, "Prof., is cotton-seed meal a grain?"

Richardson, diagnosing a case at the Veterinary Hospital, "That horse has an osteomur in the nasal (nasal) cavity."

Tindal, looking at a guinea-pig, "That certainly is a pretty prairie dog."

"The Political Economies are now in the Exchange."
