Our Invitation

Oh come and join this festal gathering
That our hopes and joys may be in twain,
That all our faces may proclaim the day
And tell the world our work was not in vain.
We'll dream and wander in the land of list
And let our hearts their carefree courses take,
And let each heart their fond outpouring give—
To many an old and new acquaintance make—
The dream of tomorrow is yet still far away
And while our joys are light and future mist,
We'll wander and recount old times again
And dream oblivion in this land of list.
So let our friendship ripen and we'll play
And greet the '19 Class this glorious day.

A. C. Corcoran, '19.
