Be Happy—Go Lucky!

EILEEN WILSON, Lucky Star of TV and Radio, says:

At football games I love to cheer
"Go team!" and "Hip Hooray!"
But for a better taste I shout,
"Go Lucky Strike today!"
(Luckies taste better than any other cigarette!)

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!

In South Carolina . . .
The ANDERSON Newspapers are

STATE CHAMPIONS

In Growth, Public Service and Prestige!

South Carolina’s Fastest Growing Newspapers
now have over

40,000

CIRCULATION

Leading all newspapers of the Palmetto State in circulation gains, they have passed SPARTAN-BURG and moved up next to CHARLESTON IN total circulation!

In 1950, The National Editorial Association awarded
The Independent its Distinguished Service Bronze Plaque for outstanding Farm Pages. (In top three of U. S. A.)

The Daily Mail was awarded the N.E.A. Bronze Plaque for having produced, during the previous year, the largest newspaper ever printed in South Carolina (304 pages). Its edition was acclaimed in the group of the three best issues in the United States.

Awarded Editor & Publisher Blue Ribbon for writing and publishing the best advertisement in the United States in 1941.

First newspapers in state to be restyled for easy reading by America’s foremost typographer, Gilbert Farrar, who designed Look Magazine, Los Angeles Times, Chicago Sun and many other leading publications.

Received NEA top honors in 1943 for circulation promotion and carrier-salesmen welfare program.

In a typical year the Northwestern University survey revealed the Anderson newspapers contributed $66,091.-
20 in space to help build this community and section.
(Over and above normal news coverage.)

Only newspapers in the United States to twice receive the University of Missouri silver plaque for rendering the greatest community service in the nation. (1941 and 1944).

THIRD DOWN!
ONE YARD TO GO!

It's gaining that yard more often than not that makes for a winning football team.

In business too there is frequently "one yard to go." It may be a delivery deadline, a more reasonable price, or a product improvement.

The business house which realizes it always has at least a yard to go is bound to do a better job for its customers than one which is smugly complacent and content to ride along on its reputation.

The Irving L. Wilson Company, manufacturers of Clemson uniforms, will continue to seek every opportunity for improvement in its product and service.

Here's wishing Clemson Tigers a victorious season — and another Orange Bowl!

The Clemson House was an especially satisfying project for all of us at Daniel Construction Company for we were building far more than just an outstanding apartment hotel.

Taking full advantage of the opportunities offered by our economic freedom, the far sighted leaders of Clemson have filled a public need and thru this service have created a self-building endowment for Clemson College.

Yet the full significance of this endowment extends far beyond the Clemson Campus. By helping build an institution that "builds" free men, the Clemson House is truly an endowment for our way of life. No where else in the world and under no other economic-political system is such a service, that benefits so many, possible.

FRED L. ZINK, Manager
Dealing With The Deacs

By TOM BOST
Sports Publicity Director, Wake Forest College

* *

One of the most colorful and spirited football rivalries in Dixie is that between Wake Forest and Clemson, who are meeting today for the 18th time in a series dating back to 1933.

The records show these games to be among the closest of any rivals in the South. Of the 17 contests to date, 13 of them have been decided by margins of two touchdowns or less, 3 of them by one touchdown or less. Twice in the past four years the margin has been one and two points. Last year in Winston-Salem the Tigers squeezed by the Deacons 13 to 12 to hand them their only defeat of the season. Four years ago Wake Forest won a scant 16 to 14 decision with the margin of victory coming on a safety.

Twice during the series each institution has had a string of victories. For instance, Clemson won five consecutive games starting in 1937 and going through 1941. Wake Forest turned an about face in 1942 and racked up six straight decisions before Clemson ended the string with a thrilling 21 to 14 victory at Winston-Salem in 1948.

Last year the two teams brought undefeated records into the game which was billed as one of the top four attractions in the nation for that Saturday. Clemson dominated the first three quarters and went into the final period with an apparent safe 13-0 lead. However, Wake Forest stormed right back in the final seven minutes of play to score two touchdowns but failed to make either extra point and was defeated 13-12.

Tom Rogers, Wake Forest's new head coach, is no stranger to Clemson's athletic personnel for back in 1941 and 1942 he served as end coach under Frank Howard, the genial head coach of the Tigers. This will mark the first meeting of teams under these coaches.

Today's contest finds the two clubs pretty evenly matched again. Both teams will be missing several stars from last season but most of the players who participated in the 1950 game will be on hand again. Billy Hair, the brilliant triple-threat tailback, is expected to carry the brunt of the Tigers' strong single-wing attack and he has a strong supporting cast. Fullback Bill Miller and Halfback Guido Scarton will likely play big roles in the Deacons' potent T formation. Two big and powerful lines will square off in what looms an interesting battle up front. Both clubs have virtually the same lines they had in 1950.

This contest marks the first of two appearances for Wake Forest's football team in South Carolina this season. Three weeks hence the Deacons will bring their season to a close by meeting the strong University of South Carolina Gamecocks at Columbia.

A Clemson Man At Home
By SMITH BARRIER
Sports Editor, Greensboro Daily News, N. C.

Sometimes you get around to these assignments at the doggonedest hours of the day, or night as happens to be the case of this particular one.

It was 2 o’clock in the morning, no fittin’ hour for man or beast, unless he happen to be a Clemson Tiger man as in this instance. It was a forlorn morning of Sunday, October 14, and I’m talking about this football season, this one we’re in right now. The news and features in this football program don’t give you any canned stuff, I want to say.

When you get Clemson men together at 2 o’clock in the morning, they’re bound to be talking football, among other things of world-shaking importance, naturally.

This time they weren’t replaying the Orange Bowl, that last trip to Miami where they charge you extra to breathe but provide safety in numbers, as long as the safety is a tackled Miamian in the end zone, clutched safely and securely in the chubby meatballs of one Sterling Smith. They’ll replay that one for daze to come, no doubt, but this 2 a.m. wake wasn’t for the O.B.

This time, too, they weren’t rehistoricalizing Mr. Frank Howard, the man who does things with Clemson football, and who, and this my opinion and not necessarily those of the sponsors of this printed program, puts more stuff into the single wing than any other man — living or dead. That takes in a mess of territory, but I mean that, and Miami learned it, too, after those newspaper diehards had laughed at picking a single wing team. But this 2 a.m. bull session, or maybe we’ll just call it Tiger session, wasn’t about Colonel Howard.

Think back . . . October 14 . . . why, that’s Sunday, Mac . . . yeah, but what Sunday . . . night before was what . . . out there in California . . . say, that’s right . . . but who brought up that deal?

I brought it up, suh, and I’m glad. It’s not that somebody wants to rub in a defeat, and that’s what College of Pacific turned out to be, and nobody is wont to be remindful of the game which closed out a wonderful winning streak.

But here’s what I’m getting at, and you can look around you in the ball park today, or do they call it a stadium nowadays, and see just what I mean. That’s a Clemson guy next to you, isn’t it? And that’s a Clemson girl next to him. How do they get Clemson girls, you want to know. You ought to be ashamed of yourself. They come with Clemson men, Mac. That was the occasion this particular 2 o’clock in the morning, and I want to type a few more words to bring out my point.

This event wasn’t taking place down here in South Carolina, not the one I attended. It was way up there in the North, or North Carolina if you will pardon me. It was in Greensboro, but it was taking place in other communities of the Piedmont, and I mean North Carolina by that, too. These fellows, and their Clemson gals, too, were right there by their radios through midnight and Pacific, and down to 21-0, too. Some of them had figured their Clemson team would win, but that night, nigh on to 1 a.m., they discovered Pacific, just like Magellan did, or was it Ponce De Leon, or was it Truman? My history’s bad.

This was Clemson spirit, not intangible matter of life, I want to tell you folks right here and now. These were Clemson men at home. True, they had left the Clemson state, but they hadn’t gone far for their life. But if they had gone to Siberia, they’d be the same, I know.

That’s why I say that a Clemson man anywhere is a Clemson man at home. That’s what I remember from that 2 o’clock in the morning.
