Clemson University Alma Mater
Lyrics by A. C. Corcoran, ’19  Music by Dr. Hugh McGarity, ’60

Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness
Where the mountains stand in grandeur
Where the Tigers play.
O’er the hill and dale;
Here the sons of dear old Clemson
Here the Tiger’s lair is nestling,
Reign supreme always.
Swept by storm and gale.

We will dream of great conquests
We are brothers, strong in manhood,
For our past is grand;
For we work and strive;
And her sons have fought and conquered
And our Alma Mater reigneth
Every foreign land.
Forever in our lives.

Chorus
Dear Old Clemson, we will triumph,
We are brothers, strong in manhood,
And with all our might;
For we work and strive;
That the Tiger’s roar may echo
And our Alma Mater reigneth
O’er the mountain height.

Roll of Remembrance

I'll want to know each step you take that I may walk the same for some day down that lonely road you'll hear me call your name.

The Meditation of Departure

From Tennyson’s “Crossing the Bar”

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.

A Prayer for the Departed

By William Penn (1644 - 1718)

We give back to You, O God, those whom You gave to us.
You did not lose them when You gave them to us, and we do not lose them by returning them to You.
Your dear Son has taught us that life is eternal and love cannot die. So death is only a horizon, and a horizon is only the limit of our sight.
Open our eyes to see more clearly, and draw us closer to You that we may know that we are nearer to our loved ones, who are with You.
You have told us that You are preparing a place for us;
prepare us also for that happy place,
that where You are, we may always be,
O dear Lord of life and death.

Jacob Roland Harrison
Died November 20, 2008

Jake Harrison was born in Parris Island on October 24, 1918, a son of James W. and Sue Harrison. He completed High School in Greenwood and entered Clemson in 1935. In Clemson, he was prominent in campus activities, having been a member of the Junior and Senior Platoons, the Greenwood-Clemson Club, and the ASCE Society, and having served on the Junior TAPS Staff and as Co-Editor of TAPS his senior year. He graduated in June, 1940 with a BS degree in Civil Engineering.

Jake married Mary Lib Williams in 1942. Following his service in WWII, he and Mary Lib moved to Carrollton, GA where he was employed by Carroll County as County Surveyor. After few years, he resigned and set himself up in the private surveying business, at which he worked successfully for many years under the business name of Harrison Engineering.

Jake was a Shriner and a former member of the Lions Club of Carrollton. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Carrollton, and was a loyal member of the Class of 1939, attending with Mary Lib many reunions.

Jacob Harrison died on Thursday, November 20, 2008. A memorial service was held on Monday, the 24th, at the First United Methodist Church. He was cremated.

Jake was survived by his wife; a son, Jacob Harrison, Jr. of Dalton, GA; five grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.
John Herbert Tibbs
Died May 5, 2011

Herb was born in Rossville in 1914, a son of Harry A. and Mattie H. Tibbs. He completed the local public schools and entered Clemson in 1932. At Clemson, Herb majored in Mechanical Engineering, but left Clemson in 1936 at the end of his Senior year without having completed all requirements for a degree. He then went to work for Duke Power Company. In 1939 he married Frances Bartley, by which time he had taken enough college courses to qualify for his degree. It was not until 2005 that friends initiated action to obtain his degree. At a ceremony in 2006, he finally received his diploma from Clemson as a member of the class of 1939.

Herb worked for Duke Power Co. his entire career, first in Charlotte, NC testing generators, transformers and switchgear. He progressed through supervision of equipment testing, service in General Engineering in the corporate office in Charlotte, Superintendent of the Maintenance and Testing Department of all steam and hydroelectric rotating equipment, and finally Hydro-Mechanical Maintenance Superintendent in Great Falls, SC in 1946. Along the way, he had served as Duke's representative to the ASME standards committee for design of hydro-electric turbines and ancillaries, and Duke's liaison to the Federal Power Commission. He retired in 1978 as a Supervisor of Maintenance at Duke's Catawba River Power Plant.

Herb was very active in the First Baptist Church in Great Falls, serving as Deacon, finance committee chairman, and general factotum. His main leisure activity was boating. He enjoyed being a member of the class of 1939, but was always loyal to the Class of 1936.

Herb lived in his home in Great Falls until the time of his death on Thursday, May 5, 2011.
John Emack Duvall
Died November 17, 2011

John Duvall was born on August 4, 1918 in Cheraw, a son of Gideon W. and Mary E. Duvall. He graduated from Cheraw High School at age 15, and entered Clemson College in 1935. At Clemson John was a member of the Palmetto Literary Society, the Marlboro County Club, and the Senior Platoon. He majored in Mechanical Engineering, completing his college education in 1939. In the fall of 1939, John went to work for Eastern Airlines in Miami at their main overhaul and maintenance base. After hours he took flying lessons and obtained a private pilots license, planning to try to get into the Army Air Force. It was not to be.

Working in an essential industry, John spent the war years making sure EAL planes, flying a military route through South America to Africa, were kept operative with all necessary parts and equipment available wherever needed. These planes delivered supplies and personnel required for the war, and often returned with injured soldiers.

On November 24, 1942 John married Charlotte Freels. Toward the end of the war, EAL assigned him to Canada Air in Montreal, Canada to oversee reconversion of military planes to peacetime passenger use. Returning to Miami at war’s end, he declined being transferred to California and resigned from EAL. He then went into business for himself, opening Duvall Hardware in Miami. This grew to include a locksmith and maintenance business with customers on both Florida coasts. Forty-two years later he sold the business but retained the accumulated real estate, which he continued to manage.

In his spare time, John was active in his community, working with the Southwest Boys Club, the Sons of the American Revolution, and as a charter member of Southwest Kiwanis Club with 42 years of perfect attendance. He enjoyed golf, tennis, boating, fishing, scuba diving, and hunting deer with bow and arrow. He held the #1 membership in the Miami Beach Rod & Reel Club and was a long-time member of Coral Reef Yacht Club. In retirement, he and Charlotte continued to live in the home they built in 1950.

John Duvall died on Thursday, November 17, 2011. He was interred in St. David’s Cemetery, Cheraw, SC. He was survived by his wife Charlotte; two daughters, Mary D. (Mrs. Harold) Smith, Denise D. (Mrs. Macdonald) West; son M. Walker Duvall; and three grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the St. David’s Cemetery Association, PO Box 1196, Cheraw, SC 29520.
Ernest "Footsie" Young was born in Fairfax on October 30, 1918, a son of Ernest L. and Eulis P. Young. He attended the Fairfax County schools and entered Clemson in 1935. At Clemson, Ernest was a manager of the baseball team all four years, a member of the Block C club and was active in AIEE. He graduated in 1939 with a BS degree in Electrical Engineering. After graduation he went to work in the Charleston shipyard, updating modifications of the destroyer Grayson. In 1940 he was hired by the Army Ordnance Corps, and went to work as an inspector of ordnance material in Philadelphia until the end of the war. In this same capacity, he entered into active duty in the Army on July 11, 1942 and was honorably discharged on June 16, 1946. Ernie married Dimny Foreman of Allendale June 25, 1941. He continued in the Army reserves until retiring as a Lieutenant Colonel in 1978.

With war's end, he accepted a position in Charlotte, NC with the Bouligny Company, a division of R. H. Bouligny, Inc. He worked with synthetic fibre machinery as a mechanical engineer. He was promoted to Manager of Process Engineering and retired in 1978 as Production Manager.

Ernie was a member of the Ascension Lutheran Church in Charlotte, serving betimes as council president, a Stephen minister, an elder, deacon, lector and usher. He enjoyed traveling on cruises with his wife and friends, bike riding at the beach, playing bridge, reading and swimming.

As his ability to move around diminished, he and Dimny moved into Trinity Grove Nursing Home, a retirement/nursing community in Wilmington, NC. There they both enjoyed reading, socializing, and weekly interacting with their family of eight at the home of their daughter, Zan, and her husband Jerry. He continued to enjoy relatively good health until in 2011 when he was diagnosed with leukemia.

Ernest L. Young died on Friday, December 16, 2011 and he was cremated. A memorial service was held on December 22 at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in Wilmington with Pastor Sam Zumwalt officiating. His ashes were scattered in the Memorial Garden of St. Matthew's. Surviving were his wife Dimny Young; his son Ernest L. (Buddy) Young, III and wife Joyce of Powhatan, VA; his daughter SuZan Y. (Zan) Bramley and husband Jerry of Wilmington, NC; his brother, Marion Young of Allendale; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Endowment Fund of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, 612 S. College Road, Wilmington, NC 28403.
William Thomas Foster
Died February 22, 2012

Bill Foster was born in Chesnee on August, 1916, a son of William R. and Della Foster. He graduated from Boiling Springs High School and entered Clemson in 1935 with his brother Irvin. While at Clemson, he was a member of the Dairy Club, and was in the Best Drilled Platoon his Sophomore year. On graduation in 1939 with a BS degree in Dairy, he worked for the Clemson Extension Service testing cows.

In February of 1942, Bill entered into active duty in the Army, and he was relieved from active duty in 1945.

In March of 1947, Bill married Virginia Scott, whom he first dated in 1940. They built a life together, rearing two sons and a daughter. Bill owned and operated a commercial poultry farm, Early Bird Eggs, the produce of which was retailed to local grocery stores such as Kroger and Bi-Lo. In 1982 he retired to his home on Beech Island, where he and Virginia enjoyed the fruits of their labors - and their children and grandchildren.

In late 2010 Bill moved into a nursing home after having been diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease. For the year and a half he was there, Virginia sat with him every day, talking or reading to him while he could still understand, and just being there for him when understanding passed.

William Foster died on Wednesday, February 22, 2012 after a long struggle with Alzheimer's disease. A funeral service was held the following Sunday at Posey's funeral Home in North Augusta, with burial in the Pinecrest Cemetery
William Pinckney Irwin, III
Died March 23, 2012

William Irwin was born in September, 1917 in Spartanburg, a son of Ann Page and William P. Irwin, Jr. He attended the Spartanburg public schools and entered Wofford College in 1935. After one year at Wofford, he transferred to Clemson. He was manager of the Track team his first year. His senior year, he was president of both Phi Psi, the honorary Textile fraternity, and Alpha Chi Psi. He graduated in 1939 with a BS degree in Textile Engineering.

After graduation, Pinck began working for the Spartanburg division of Reeves Brothers, Inc., a textile manufacturing company based in New York. He was exempt from active duty service in WWII because the plant he supervised manufactured critical war materials.

Pinck married his high school sweetheart, Ellen Ellerbe, in 1940. They had three children. He retired in 1979, at which time he was president of the Spinning and Weaving Division of Reeves Brothers, Inc. in Spartanburg. In retirement he enjoyed gardening and helping out at his son’s hardware store. When his wife Ellen became ill, he devoted himself to her care until her death in 1985. In 1986 William married Virginia Christman Smith.

He enjoyed reasonably good health until the last few years. In 2010 he was moved into the Alzheimer unit of an assisted living facility in Spartanburg, where he died from natural causes on Friday, March 23, 2012.

Graveside services were held on March 26 at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens in Spartanburg, conducted by The Reverends Nichols Beasley and Ned Morris. Survivors included two sons, five grandchildren, and three great-grandsons.

Memorials may be made to a charity of one’s choice.
John Franklin Chandler
Died April 1, 2012

John “Jack” Chandler was born in Victoria, B.C., Canada on May 18, 1914, a son of Earl and Hanna Talbert Chandler who were originally from Laurens, SC. His parents died in the flu epidemic of 1918 and he was sent to live with his grandparents in Laurens. Later, as a kid, he lived with an uncle and aunt in Seneca, where he attended the public schools. He became a naturalized US citizen in 1936. Jack graduated from Clemson with a BSCE degree in Jan. 1939. On graduation, he took a job with CSX Railroad. During that time he was also in the construction business for himself. The major part of his career was spent working for the Seaboard RR designing and developing Industrial Parks across the Southeast, including Savannah, Charleston, Miami, Jacksonville, Tampa, and Atlanta. During the early ’50s he was in charge of constructing the largest railroad hump yard in the country at Hamlet, NC. He was a fellow of the American Society of Civil Engineers. Jack was a member and Elder of the Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church in Richmond, VA.

Jack’s first wife was Helen Harper from Seneca. They had no children. She passed away in early 1980, and in late 1980 he married Virginia Figg of Richmond, VA. When Jack was recently moved into a Richmond retirement home, The Hermitage, Virginia remained in her home in Richmond.

John Franklin Chandler died on Sunday, April 1, 2012. Funeral services were held on Tuesday at the Central Chapel of the Bennett Funeral Home in Richmond. He was buried in Mountain View Cemetery in Seneca. Jack was survived by his second wife, Virginia Figg Chandler; two stepdaughters, Janet Rice of Richmond and Donna Bradner of Atlanta, GA; and a cousin, Rita Randell of Charleston.

Memorials may be made to your favorite charity.

Laura Arrington Chovan
Died Monday, March 2, 2009

Laura Arrington was born in Seneca on August 23, 1910, the youngest of the seven daughters of Joshua S. and Maud M. Arrington. She attended the Greenwood public schools, and graduated in 1932 from Lander College in Greenwood with an AB degree in Education. At Lander she was editor of The Naiad, the college annual, and a member of the student government council. She took graduate work at the University of Georgia. She was teaching in Honea Path when she met Philip Chovan, coach of the Honea Path High School football team. They were married on May 29, 1941. They moved to the Washington, DC area in 1945.

In the Washington area Laura resumed teaching, starting at the elementary level in 1956 and then specializing in remedial reading at the secondary level. In the mid-60's she became a reading consultant, supervising other reading teachers in Prince George's County, MD. She was one of the first to teach English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)

She was active in the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), having served as Regent of the Colonial Chapter in Washington, DC, and having belonged to the Mount Ariel Chapter in Greenwood and the Battle Born Chapter of Carson City, NV. While living in the Washington area, she researched Martha Washington and developed a one-person program in which she depicted Martha as of the year 1801. She presented this program before numerous groups, including school groups in South Carolina and Georgia and DAR gatherings in several states. At the time of her death, she was a member of the Gainesville First United Methodist Church.

Laura Chovan died in the home of her daughter Mimi in Gainesville, GA on Monday, March 2, 2009. A memorial service was held on the 6th in the Chapel of the First United Methodist Church of Gainesville with the Revs. Paul Hanna and Tom Jones conducting. A direct descendent of founder Milton Antoni, she willed her body to the Medical College of Georgia for scientific research. She was survived by her three children; four grandchildren, Cameron, Todd, Chris, and Heather; and two great-grandchildren.
Mary Frances Smith Wolfe
Died November 9, 2009

Mary Francis “M.F.” Smith was born on September 12, 1917 in Orangeburg, a daughter of Rozier Gilland and Frances Evens Smith. She attended the local public schools, graduated from Orangeburg High School in 1934, and worked for a period for first an insurance company and then a lawyer before she met Russ Wolfe, whom she married on June 1, 1940. While he was overseas, she became a secretery and sometimes nurse’s aid to a surgeon.

M.F. and Russ had three boys, and while rearing their children, she took over and did the accounting for both L.F. Wolfe Company and Pal Gas for many years. She was a multi-talented woman, who loved working with her hands. She loved gardening, and held every office in her garden club. With its many flowering shrubs, her yard was a testament to her green thumb. She was skilled in the sewing arts, including cross-stitching, making clothes, embroidering, and making hooked rugs. She refinished furniture, and painted flowers on wooden plaques, spoons and paddles for hanging in the kitchen. For diversion, she enjoyed and was good at playing bridge.

After Russ died in 1999, M.F. continued to live a full and independent life until reaching the point when she needed nursing care. She moved into The Oaks, an Orangeburg nursing home. There she died on Monday, November 9, 2009. She is interred in the Memorial Park Cemetery, Orangeburg.
Mary Smith McCorkle
Died January 10, 2010

Mary Smith was born in Chesterfield, SC on April 12, 1918, a daughter of Aliard P. and Julia B. Smith. After completing the local public schools, she worked in Columbia while taking courses at the University of South Carolina. She and Phil McCorkle were married in 1942, and while Phil was overseas during WWII, Mary worked with the Red Cross in South Carolina.

During Phil’s numerous assignment moves, Mary was active in her son’s schools, and was Home-room Mom at several places, a Sunday School teacher, and a Den Mother for the Cub Scouts as well as for the Boy Scouts. While living in Washington, she attended Cooking School at George Washington University. In Paris she took painting courses at the École des Beaux-Arts. Cooking and interior design have remained her interests. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Spartanburg.

Mary McCorkle died Monday, January 10, 2010. A graveside service was held at Rose Hill Cemetery in York. She was survived by two sons; two grandsons; two great-grandsons; and two sisters.
Virginia Williams Anderson
Died May 31, 2010

Daughter of former South Carolina Governor Ransome J. Williams and Virginia F. A. Williams, Virginia was born on December 9, 1917 in Mullins, SC. She graduated from Mullins High School in 1935, Coker College in 1939, and taught high school in Springfield, SC from 1939 to 1940 and Lake City from 1940 to 1942. Virginia married Army Air Force Lieutenant William D. Anderson, Jr. on December 5, 1942 in Mullins First Baptist Church.

During WWII she and William lived in San Antonio and Waco, Texas, where William served as a B-25 instructor pilot.

Following the war they lived for awhile in Greensboro, NC until moving to Myrtle Beach in 1948. Virginia was a charter member and first woman deacon of Ocean View Baptist Church. Active in the church choir and the Women's Missionary Union, she taught the adult women's Sunday School class for a number of years.

Virginia passed away at her home in Myrtle Beach on Monday, May 31, 2010. A private committal service for the family was held Wednesday at Southeastern Memorial Gardens, followed by a memorial service at the Ocean View Baptist Church with Dr. Steven Cromer and Dr. J. Kirk Lawton, Jr. officiating.

Survivors included her two sons, William D. Anderson, III (Bonnie) of Wadmalaw Island, and (Retired) Colonel Ransome W. Anderson of Myrtle Beach; grandson Timothy A. Crews-Anderson (Vickie) of Chicago, IL; granddaughter Kimberly V. Anderson (Ian) of Charleston; and great-granddaughter Abigail Anderson of Chicago, IL.

Memorials may be made to the Ocean View Baptist Church, 7300 North Kings Highway, Myrtle Beach, Sc 29572.
Daisy Stringfellow was born on December 28, 1922 in Chester, a daughter of Myron J. and Daisy Stringfellow. She grew up on a farm near Chester, and while still a teenager met Bob Guy of Chester. She completed the public schools in Chester and entered the University of South Carolina in 1940, but left after a year to marry Bob Guy on December 7, 1941. She accompanied him during his training assignments in the US, and returned to Chester with their two year old daughter Nikki when he left for oversea duty.

Bob was killed in early 1944. Daisy moved to Greenville and took a job in the Radiology Department of Greenville General Hospital. There she met Dr. Will S. Judy, whom she later married. They had two more children, Murray and Jane Judy. Dr Judy died in 1961.

Daisy Guy Judy died on Wednesday, June 9, 2010 in Greenville.

She was survived by daughters Nikki Guy Latham of Tulsa, OK, Jane Judy Taylor of Greenville, son Murray S. Judy of San Diego, CA; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
Edna Freeman Vickery
Died January 28, 2011

Edna Freeman was born on October 12, 1918 in Oconee County, a daughter of Jacob G. and Evelyn B. Freeman. She grew up in Pickens, completed the local public schools and entered Winthrop in 1935, graduating in 1939 with a BA degree in Education. She married Victor Van Vickery on June 18, 1941 at her Pickens home in front of Glassy Mountain.

While Van was overseas, she taught school and served as school librarian. After his return, she became a homemaker and assisted Van in his several agricultural enterprises. They lived most of their married lives in Forest City, NC. She enjoyed vegetable and flower gardening, played a very good hand of bridge, and was much appreciated and respected in her community. She lived a rich and full life.

Edna Vickery died on Friday January 28, 2011 in Cary, NC. Graveside services were held on Saturday at Sunset Memorial Park, Forest City with Rev. Dr. Barry K. Keys officiating.

She was survived by her four children; a brother, David Freeman of Greenville; a sister, Kathryn Hendricks of Pelzer; twelve grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her brother Val, and her sisters Irene and Margaret.

Memorials may be made to the Mooneyham Public Library, 240 E. Main Street, Forest City, NC 28043, or First Baptist Church, 211 W. Main Street, Forest City, NC 28043.
Theo Wells Harrison
Died March 2, 2011

Theo Wells was born in Orangeburg County on December 11, 1918, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lionelle D. Wells. She was reared in Holly Hill. She attended the public schools in Orangeburg and was a graduate of Providence High School, Orangeburg, and Winthrop College.

Theo married Jim Harrison in the Corinth Baptist Church on October 19, 1952. While Jim was flying for TWA, Theo taught first in the Orangeburg schools, then at Appalachian State University in Boone, NC, and finally retired from teaching in the Charleston County schools.

She was a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, a national teacher’s organization. She enjoyed traveling, having visited both France and Germany. Theo took a delight in collecting demi-tasse cups from all over the globe, as well as recipes and recipe books.

Theo Wells Harrison died on Wednesday, March 2, 2011 following a long illness. Funeral services were held at the Corinth Baptist Church in Holly Hill on Sunday, with burial following in the church cemetery.

Survivors included her husband; a daughter, Beth W. Harrison of Mt. Pleasant; a son, Dr. James Harrison, Jr. of Charlottesville, VA; two grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Majorie W. Jagar of Orangeburg; and a brother, Dr. Lionelle D. Wells of Boston, MA.

Memorials may be made to Corinth Baptist Church, P.O. Box 69, Vance, SC 29163.
Gentis Pilgrim Whitmire
Died April 5, 2011

Gentis Pilgrim was born September 1914 in Pickens County, a daughter of Arthur and Elizabeth B. Pilgrim. She attended the public schools in Pickens County and graduated from Six Mile High School in 1937. She married Asa Whitmire on August 28, 1936, with whom she had two children. When they established the Six Mile Sales and Service business, it was Gentis who handled the sales end out of their home. After Asa entered the Air Force in 1948, she accompanied him on his assignments and thereafter devoted herself to rearing their children and making a loving home for the family.

She was an active member of the Mountain View Baptist Church, an avid bowler, and she loved gardening. In his declining years she kept busy as Asa’s caretaker. She drove until she was 94 and enjoyed visiting with friends and family.

Gentis P Whitmire died on Tuesday, April 5, 2011 at Cannon Memorial Hospital in Pickens. Funeral services were held on Saturday at the Mountain Baptist Church, with interment following in Hillcrest Memorial Park, Pickens, next to her beloved husband of 54 years.

She was survived by a daughter, Doris Carl and husband Lee of Magnolia, TX; a sister, Beulah Chappell of Pickens; four grandchildren, Leland and Brian Carl of Texas, Jeffrey Whitmire of Virginia, and Keri Whitmire of Travelers Rest; and four great-grandchildren.
Sara Boyd Scott
Died September 2, 2011

Sara Boyd was born in Spartanburg on August 5, 1921, a daughter of Jesse W. and Ollie D. Boyd. She attended the Spartanburg public schools, and studied at Converse College from 1938 to 1940 when she left to marry Blynn Scott on June 8, 1940. She and Blynn had two boys, and when they were of an age, she began working as a substitute teacher, in Union until 1967 and thereafter in Spartanburg.

Sara was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church of Spartanburg, serving as a Sunday School teacher and a volunteer. She also volunteered for Mobile Meal Service, and enjoyed several bridge and book clubs.

Sara Scott died on Friday, September 2, 2011 at the Presbyterian Home of South Carolina in Lexington. A graveside service was held on the 6th in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens in Spartanburg, conducted by the Rev. Mrs. Sally Putnam.

She was survived by her sons, Blynn B. Scott (Nancy) of West Columbia and Richard B. Scott (Margaret) of Austin, TX; four grandchildren, Suzann Overton (Brian) of Brentwood, TN, Harriett Pyburn (Steve) of Marietta, GA, Eleanor Bowman (Greg) of Austin, TX, and Catherine McElroy (Wade) of Austin, TX; and ten great-grandchildren.
Mary O’Brien was born in Philadelphia on May 4, 1923, a daughter of Lawrence and Anna O. O’Brien. She attended the Philadelphia public schools, graduating from Chesapeake City, MD High School in 1940. She was working as a civilian in the Post Exchange headquarters at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds when she met Bob Henry. They were married in September, 1942. She accompanied Bob when he was transferred to California in 1942 to start a west coast ordinance training center at the Santa Anita Racetrack camp. About a year later, they were transferred to Jackson, Mississippi. Their first son was born there in 1944.

By 1969, Mary and Bob had six children and were living in Falls Church, VA. Mary was a devout Catholic, a devoted wife and mother. She was the consummate homemaker, and loved to entertain guests in style, including even the childrens’ birthday parties for which she would bring out her best china and silverware. Family was of utmost importance to her. She had a thirst for knowledge and passed on this love of learning to her children, all of whom became teachers in varying capacities. She was an avid bridge player, and loved doing crossword puzzles. She was a woman of faith, which sustained her during the long illness that preceded her death.

Mary O’Brien Henry died at home on Monday, November 28, 2011.

Award for Excellence

For the year 2011

See page 33 for prior years.
Dr. Richard S. Figliola
Dr. Figliola, through his research into fluid mechanics, has made important contributions in a broad variety of applications, ranging from airfoil shape optimization to human heart defects to pneumatic conveying as relates to vacuum cleaners. His research has found expression in over eighty publications including text books, trade papers and technical journals. As Professor of Mechanical Engineering, he has taught nearly every course in the curriculum, in recognition of which he received the Murray-Stokely Award for Teaching Excellence in 2005 and the Eugene Bishop Outstanding Teaching Award in ME in 2007.

Dr. Figliola is a Fellow of ASME and a licensed professional engineer. He maintains a busy schedule of teaching, theses advising for graduate students, research, industry consulting, and participation on ASME committees. He is a private pilot, plays golf, and lives in Central with his wife Suzanne. His daughter Elizabeth is a student at College of Charleston.
The Faculty Senate invites you and your guest to join in a celebration to honor the Clemson University Great Class of '39 and Richard S. Figliola 2011 Recipient of the Class of '39 Award for Excellence

Monday, January 9, 2012 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Madren Center
Tuesday, January 10, 2012 at the Bell Tower

FS prexy Daniel Warner welcomes the assemblage.

Acting for Pres. Barker, Provost Helms presents the Bell Tower watercolor to Richard Figliola.

Below: Class president Senn prepares to congratulate Dr. Figliola and to present to him traditional gifts of a replica of the bell suitable for use as bookends, and a copy of the class history.

Acting for the Faculty Senate, Warner gives Figliola two Award for Excellence certificates for display in home and office.

Dr. Figliola ends the ceremony with the bell ringing ritual, and poses for a photo op with his lovely wife Suzanne.
