The Honor System.

A GREAT MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

Clemson stands without reproach among the foremost colleges of our country today. The standard of work done here has long been recognized; but to the careful eye, there were among the student body in the lower classes, certain questionable practices which could not but detract from the reputation of the institution. But these shackles have been thrown aside and we stand out clearly before the student and general world for all that is true and best in college life.

On the evening of April 10, a mass meeting was held in the college of attraction. Besides twirling a very nice game, he proved himself a second Cobb by getting a hit every time at bat, four times, four hits.

In the first inning, it could be clearly seen that the game would be a one sided affair. Clemson getting three hits and three runs, scored respectively by Lee, Brown and Stokes for Clemson, the left-handed boy wonder, was the center of attraction. Besides twirling a very nice game, he proved himself a second Cobb by getting a hit every time at bat, four times, four hits.

In a slow but very interesting game on Bowman field on Saturday, April 11, Clemson walked over Furman by a score of 11 to 1. Stokes for Clemson, the left-handed boy wonder, was the center

The Senior Class

The Seniors are very busy at present practicing for the Senior-Faculty base ball game May 1st.

This will not only be a great event in athletics, but it will give the Seniors an opportunity to repay the Faculty for numerous zero's, and 4's. From the material at hand, a very creditable team can be rounded into shape with a weeks hard practice.

Another athletic event which is claiming a good share of attention now is the class contest on field day.

The Callowm Trophy cup was won last year by the present Senior class with the greatest ease, and while there is some surprisingly good material in the under classes, the dope on the subject picks the Seniors again as winners.

The recent misbehavior and subsequent dismissal of the majority of the Junior class has made it almost an impossibility for the few remaining Juniors to have a good field day hop; so the dance will be given under the auspices of the Junior and Senior dancing clubs

Mr. Norwood Sykes of the Senior class recently spent several days in Columbia on a visit to friends and relatives.

A number of the Seniors attended the Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest at Greenwood.

The Sophomore Class

Every Sophomore should go out on the track field now and try to get in condition to do something for his class on Field Day. We need some fast men in the relay races, and these men have to come from the boys not on the regular track team. The way our men will take part in the regular track events will be about as follows: Barnett, mile and half mile; Furtick, pole vault, broad jump and high jump; Byrd, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, broad jump, low hurdles, and quarter mile; White, shot put and hammer throw; Baker, 100 yard dash and 220 yard dash; LaRooch, mile; Boykin, mile. Considering the records made by some of these men in our recent meet with Tech, I think we ought to do well in the track events.

W. H. Morgan and O. A. Hydrick were sent as delegates from here to the Sunday School convention held at Union.

Mr. F. E. Lee visited relatives in Pendleton Sunday.

At a meeting of our class on the 22nd; Byrd, N. E. was elected captain of our Field's Day track team.

The Sophomore Dancing Club will join the Junior Dancing Club, and they will meet every Saturday night.

J. L. Hill, L. W. Summers, and W. H. Marshall have gone to Greenwood to the oratorical contest.

The Freshman Class

The Freshman class is not the noble aggregation it was last fall. Only about sixty-five men remain out of the small army that matriculated in September. Many of our friends will no doubt return next year. They have had a hard lesson, and to their honor, let it be said, they took it like men. The same quiet submission, the same orderly preparation for departure, and the same sober farewell to the college—the spirit that caused the people of the State to take off their hats to the Junior class—appeared when the order for dismissal was published. The men who went to Pendleton made a mistake, but the gentlemanly manner in which they took their punishment will cause the people of the State to look less severely upon them. Let us hope they are making the most of a bad piece of business.
An event significant in the history of Clemson College was the meeting of the Freshman class in the Y. M. C. A. hall on April 17. Most of the men of what is now the Freshman class had already signed their willingness to discontinue the use of unfair means in examinations and classes; but in this meeting the question was put before the class to be decided by vote, and it is with pleasure that we can state that the decision was unanimous in favor of the adoption of the honor system. Hereafter the Freshman class will do more work and better work; there will be no annoyance from guilty consciences, and there will be no regrets in after years. Sophomore and Junior classes will not be so hard for us when we have a foundation to build upon. Boys, you have taken a step in the right direction. It will be hard going for a short while, but be true to yourselves and keep it up!

To fill the offices made vacant by the dismissal of several of our leaders, an election was held on the 17th, which resulted in the choice of Mr. C. B. Farmer, for Vice-President; Mr. T. S. Marshall, was elected Secretary-Treasurer, and Mr. A. M. Salley was chosen to represent the class on the staff of "The Tiger."

President Hanckel is very earnest in advising the men of his class to come out and represent the class in the track events on Field Day. This is a department of athletics that is deserving of better encouragement than it is receiving at Clemson. Come out, boys; you don't know what you can do. Even if you find yourself among the "also rans," you have three more years, and your training.

One member of our class who will be missed wherever cadets gather, is Mr. H. D. Kirby, who has procured an honorable discharge, and left for his native heath. The bright mischievous face and ready tongue of our diminutive "Harry K." will be remembered long by every man in the corps.

This is the first issue of "The Tiger" since the departure of Mr. Venning, our former reporter. The Freshman class has been compelled to call into requisition one versed in the employment of the crisp, readable style which was always evident in Mr. Venning's items.

The ranks of the Palmetto have been greatly thinned on account of the recent trouble, but the remaining members have got together and resolved to carry on the work, at least as well, if not better, than before.

At the meeting of the Palmetto on Friday evening the following officers for the fourth quarter were installed: President, C. A. McLendon; Vice-President, G. M. Truluck; Literary Critic, J. M. Napier; Recording Sect., F. Fleming; Corresponding Sect., H. C. Whittle; Reporting Critic, G. C. Furtick; Sergt. at Arms, G. H. Barre. These men are all earnest workers and their administration promises to be one equal to if not surpassing that of any previous term.

The declaimers, Messrs. C. F. Middleton and G. C. Furtick, delivered splendid declamations. And the orators, Messrs. R. B. Carpenter, J. H. Harvey and W. M. Lunn acquitted themselves very creditably. The subject of Mr. Carpenter's oration was "The Centralization of Power," and the splendid manner in which it was handled showed careful preparation on the part of the speaker. Mr. Lunn's discourse consisted of a dissertation on "The Right of Woman to Vote." It was evident from Mr. Lunn's manner that the gentle sex has an uppermost part in his thoughts during these closing days of his Senior year, which probably added to the forcefulness of his speech. The house was kept in constant roars of laughter by Mr. Harvey as he spoke for some length on a peculiar subject, "The Negro and the Mule." The new light thrown on the subject by Mr. Harvey, together with his sparkling wit and humor, held the closest attention of the house.
The debate was exceedingly fine. And every man showed himself filled with enthusiasm as well as with something to say.

Extemporaneous speeches were made by Messrs. J. O. Bethea, A. C. Summers and B. B. Esell.

CLEMSON LOST TO CAROLINA.

Barring dumb fielding on the part of some Clemson players in the first inning, the game Thursday with the University of South Carolina was really an exhibition of magnificent ball playing. The final score was 4 to 2 in favor of Carolina. Farmer out pitched Smith, and would have won his game had he been given proper support.

Most of Carolina's hits were of the scratch variety, Clemson's slow fielding in the first inning being responsible for two of these. Smith, who pitched for Carolina, did not strike out a man, but he managed to keep the hits scattered. Farmer pitched beautiful ball after the third inning. A feature of the game was Brown's throw home in the fourth inning, Trippett being caught at the plate.

Carolina made three runs in the first inning. Davis reached first on a grounder to third, Bissell throwing high to first. Gibbes sacrificed to pitcher, and both men were safe. Belser sacrificed to pitcher and it was a f.c. no one covering first. W. B. Perrin hit to pitcher and was thrown out at home. Gibbes stole home on Wylie's error of Pitcher's Ball. Wylie then let the ball pass him, Belser and W. B. Perrin scoring. Rembert hit for a single through short. L. W. Perrin struck out. Rembert then stole second. Cartwright struck out, Carolina made her other run in the third inning. Gibbes hit safe to right field. Belser sacrificed and was out at first. Gibbes safe on second. W. B. Perrin hit safe to right and Cochrant threw home to Wylie, who played to second in time to catch W. B. Perrin, Gibbes on third. Rembert was safe to Harris, who scored. Gibbes scored, Rembert stole second, L. W. Perrin flew out to third. Clemson made her first run in the fifth inning. Wylie hit safe to center field, and later stole second. Coles ballooned to center. Harris grounded to first. Farmer hit safe over second, Wylie scored. Lee sacrificed, beating it out. Farmer stole third, Lee stole second. Brown hit to pitcher and out at first. Clemson again scored in the sixth. Kirby singled to center, Cochrant singled to left, Kirby reached second. Bissell sacrificed, advancing both runners a base. Wylie got hit by pitched ball. Coles flew to center and was out, Kirby scoring on the throw in, Cochrant still on second and Wylie on first. Harris flew out to second.

CLEMSON WINS.

As the clock in the college tower struck four, the pistol cracked and the hundred yard dash was won. Warren for Clemson was easily the victor, covering the distance in 10 2-5 seconds. The mile, half, and quarter were all taken by Davenport, for Tech; the times being, respectively 5 min. 4 sec., 2 min. 8 3-5 sec. and 55 seconds. In the high hurdles, Captain Goodier won in 17 seconds, closely followed by Rosborough for Clemson. Byrd, for Clemson, took the 220 dash in 24 1-5 seconds. The low hurdle was won in 27 3-5 seconds by Warren with Goodier close at his heels.

Then came the field events. All three places in the shot put fell to Clemson's share, Fleming, Truluck and White doing the work; distance 35 ft. 3-4 inches Goodier again showed his form in the pole vault, and took first place at 10 ft. 2 inches. Furtick, for Clemson, fell out at 10 feet and Harris took third. Fleming took a half wind up and threw the hammer about 25 feet farther than any of his opponents, winning at 113 feet 7-2 inches. Goodier took the high jump at 5 feet 4 inches. Furtick, for Clemson, fell out at 5 feet 2 inches. Frasier of Tech. Byrd of Clemson, had little difficulty in taking broad jump at 20 feet, 3 inches. Goodier for Clemson, and Hill of Tech. Byrd of Clemson, had little difficulty in taking broad jump at 20 feet, 3 inches. Frazier of Tech got second place and Warren of Clemson, third. Total score: Clemson 59, Tech. 49.

A SCRUB GAME.

On Saturday the 18th, the Clemson second team, otherwise known as the "scrubs," met defeat at the hands of the Victory team. This is the first game the scrubs have played and they did well to keep the score in such a nut shell, as the victory team is composed mostly of old leaguers who have played together for three consecutive years. The scrubs played a great game and for six innings it looked like a tie-up, but an error, a hit and unexcused base-running won the game for the other team.

The contest was interesting from start to finish. For the first six the boy wonder,” held the “Old” down. Stokes, the youthful South-innings, it was three up and three down. Stokes, the youthful South-paw, dubbed by the Grier's folks, “the boy wonder,” held the “Old” leaguers down to two hits, and succeeded in making seven men bite dust by fanning. His wonderful “knuckle ball” did the work. In the sixth inning, Bing succeeded in the box, where he did the twirling of his life with his world famous “spit ball,” sometimes called by the Grier's folks, “the saliver sphere.” The winning runs were made in the sixth inning, Bing succeeded in making seven men bite dust by fanning. His wonderful work of Warren at third, who men got on base by the wonderful two innings where two successive dust by fanning. His wonderful work of Warren at third, who men got on base by the wonderful two innings where two successive errors were made in favor of the establishment of the system. In another mass meeting, the entire corps unanimously voted to adopt the honor system, and thus it became permanently established.

This was not a hasty move made, as some might be led to think, because in the recent trouble the dissenting party was rid of, for this is not so, but is the result of several years work of many good hard working men who have earnestly sworn to arouse the sentiment of the under-classmen in favor of its adoption. Some of the wiser heads realizing that at this particular time every man in the college had more nearly at heart probably than ever before the best interests of the college and himself, saw in it the auspicious moment and pushed the point with the result of the glorious success mentioned.

Although the mass meeting was called by the Senior class, it would hardly be fair to say that any class was conspicuously the leader. It was a common movement on the part of the corps and to the corps at large belongs the honor.

To trace the history of this movement in detail would prove a far too difficult task for one to attempt. The many speeches made in societies, in the Y. M. C. A. and the many heart to heart talks with men in their rooms in behalf of it would constitute a large part of it. The movement was deep-seated and its success at sometime in the near future was inevitable. Praise be to the men who during the past years of the existence of the college have by precept and example made possible just such a splendid result!

There can be no question as to the effect of this step on the tone of the institution. Nothing can be done to help an institution more than the establishment of the honor system. Every friend of the college cannot help but rejoice over this action, every man on neutral ground cannot help but be converted into a friend, and every enemy except the very basest kind cannot but become an admirer. In his stand for honesty, coupled with the recent manliness exhibited by the boys who had to leave college shows, the world, that there is alive and active at Clemson the spirit of true Southern manhood, and that although mere, boys there is in us the foundation of a good citizenship and a wise rule in the future.

ANNUAL INSPECTION OF CORPS.

On April 10, Captain W. S. Shannon, of the United States Army, made the annual inspection of the corps of cadets. In the morning, he inspected the battalion and company drill; later, he made a superficial inspection of barracks. Notwithstanding the disorganized state of affairs here, due to the disturbance on April 1, and the depleted regiment, the corps made an excellent appearance and drilled as well as on previous inspections. Because of the small number of men here, the companies were combined so as to form one battalion instead of two, as was previously the case. Classes were held in the afternoon, as usual.

Captain Shannon expressed himself as being well pleased with the appearance of the boys. He commented favorably upon the condition of the barracks.

EDITORIAL

Many important mass meetings have been held at Clemson, but none can compare in importance and far reaching effects to the one that was held by all of the classes for the purpose of instituting an all-class honor system. An established and recognized honor system has been in vogue in the Senior and Junior classes for a number of years, but such has not been the case in the lower classes. We can see no reason for this differentiation; for it is just as essential for a Sophomore, a Freshman or a Prep to deal honestly with his instructors as for a Senior or a Junior to do so. Some of the members of the lower classes did not look at it in that light however, and there is no doubt that there were some cases of cheating on examinations.

At the mass meeting in the chapel called by several members of the Senior class, the question of an all-class honor system was brought up for discussion. The proposition was placed before the classes, and after several Seniors had made earnest pleas to the members of the under classes to assert their manhood and establish an honor system, the question was opened for discussion. The manly stand for the right that the under classes took was indeed gratifying. A number of their representative men expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of an honor system, and called upon their comrades to take the golden opportunity afforded them of taking a fearless stand for honor. Later, at private meetings of the several classes, each one unanimously voted to adopt the honor system.

That was a day that the best men of Clemson had long looked forward to. It marked the beginning of a new era here; it marked the beginning of an era when an honest Sophomore, Freshman, or Prep can stand an examination without the stigma of suspicion being cast upon him because of the evil acts of his dishonest classmates. Stick up to your pledges, men, and let nothing swerve you from your determination to do the right thing under all circumstances. It does not pay to be dishonest; because if a man cheats his way through the lower classes to Junior, where he is compelled to abide by the honor system, he will fail as certainly as effect follows cause.

Of course, we cannot expect to win every game; but notwithstanding a few defeats, the team merits the enthusiastic support of the corps. The team is playing good ball, and if it were not for the nemesis of ill luck, the chances are that the percentage would have been somewhere near 1.000. The Clinton, Furman, and Erskine games showed what the team can do, and in future games we can expect them to deliver the goods. In the Carolina and Wofford games, a streak of hard luck in the first few innings, was responsible for the loss of the games, but in the remaining innings, Clemson outplayed them at every point. In the Tech. games, luck pure and simple was the sole arbitrer of the results. Clemson outplayed them in both games, and in the ninth inning of the second game, with two men down and the score 4 to 2 in Clemson's favor, Tech. managed to tie the score. In the eleventh, Tech. secured the score that decided the game. Since those games the team has been rounded more into form, and the best possible material has been placed in the different positions. The Erskine game showed Clemson up in excellent shape. During the game, some spectacular plays were made, the most brilliant of which was the double play in the last inning that decided the game for Clemson.

The prospects for a winning track team are excellent. The first meet, with Tech., resulted in a victory for Clemson, and showed up some good material. Although Georgia has a team that is hard to down, the prospects of a victory are for Clemson, when the meet is held, are bright.

A RESUME OF THE SEASON BY COACH LYNCH

I am unfortunately handicapped in the power of expressing myself clearly and concisely, I therefore ask pardon for thrusting upon you a few ill-connected ideas upon the base ball situation as I found it, then a stranger, as I leave it now a friend.

I was agreeably surprised to find the first requisite for an athletic body: fresh invigorating air, for Clemson College is certainly naturally blessed with a wealth of healthful advantages. A greater and more agreeable surprise was in store for me when I found that the athletes co-operated with nature by exercising good, sane judgment in

Mr. B. B. Henry, representing the B. B. Henry Tailoring Company of Spartanburg, visited Clemson some days ago for the purpose of taking orders for tailor made clothing.

Miss Bessie Adelle Rast, who was a recent visitor of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Tucker, returned to the Greenville Female College to resume her studies several days ago.

Mr. J. H. Batty, representing the Chatanqua Writing Desk Company, is visiting the college for the purpose of securing several of the cadets to canvass the country and sell the desks next summer.

Miss Floride Calhoun returned home after a short visit to Athens, Ga., at which place she attended the marriage of her brother, Mr. P. N. Calhoun with whom she returned to Clemson on the 17th of April.

Mr. P. N. Calhoun, of the class of ’96, arrived at the Calhoun Mansion, his old home, with his beautiful bride, on the evening of April 17th. He was greeted a few hours after his arrival by a splendid serenade given by one-half dozen cadets.

The track team from Georgia Tech. visited our campus, and carried back to Atlanta a 59 to 49 defeat as a result of their meet with our team on April 14.

The base ball team went to Grierson, S. C., on Saturday, April 18, and lost the game with the Grier team by the score of 4 to 2.

In a joint meeting of all the classes the honor system was unanimously adopted. Before now the Juniors and Seniors were on their honor to use no unfair means on any of their work; but now it is an established fact that cheating has breathed its last at Clemson. Be men! and stick to your pledge boys! This is the best thing that has ever happened to Clemson.

The last of the Lyceum entertainments, “the Morphet-Stevenson Company” was enjoyed by a large attendance on the evening of April 18. It was advertised as “Melody, Mirth and Magic” and it was very appropriate, as the famous Maro was completely outclassed by the magic of the wonderful and sly Mr. Morphet.

Lieutenant Gibbes Lykes, a recent graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., was a recent visitor in our barracks, where he was the guest of his cousin, Cadet Norwood Lykes of the Senior class. Lieutenant Lykes has been assigned to the 9th cavalry which is stationed now in Manila, P. I. He leaves his home in Columbia, S. C., on May 2, for New York City, in turn he will leave on May 14 for San Francisco. He sails for Manila on June 5th.

MARRIAGES AMONG CLEMSON MEN.

The friends of Mr. C. W. Busch were a little surprised to receive sometime ago the following announcement:

> “Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Havenkamp announce the marriage of their daughter, Edna Mae to Mr. Claus W. Busch Monday evening, March 30, 1908 Fort Worth, Texas.”

Mr. Busch was formerly a member of the present Senior class and his colleagues wish him and his newly acquired wife great success.

An Approaching Marriage.

> “Judge and Mrs. Alexander Lawton Miller have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Katherine, to Mr. Patrick Noble Calhoun of Columbia, S. C., the wedding to occur on Thursday, the 16th of April, at 6 o’clock at the Mulberry Street Methodist church, the Rev. T. D. Ellis officiating,” says the Augusta Herald.

> “The bride will be attended by Miss Marth Miller, maid of honor; Mrs. Wallace Miller, matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss R. Sarah Tinsley, Miss Lila...

Miss Bug Norris of Greenville, S. C., is visiting friends on the campus.

Mr. J. H. McLean, of the class of 05, was a recent visitor of his alma mater.

Mr. Clyde Plowman of Silver, S. C., visited Cadet D. S. Tindall in barracks some days ago.

The members of the board of trustees held a special meeting here on the 16th and 17th of April.

Mrs. A. B. Bryan and Master Wright, both of the class of 07, witnessed the Clemson-Tech. track meet.

Messrs. R. E. Dalton and A. B. Taylor, both of the class of 07, were a little surprised to receive a few hours after his arrival by a splendid serenade given by one-half dozen cadets.

Mr. W. W. Houston, our distinguished baritone sang several solos on Easter Sunday, all of which were of the highest standard.

The scrub base ball team went to Grierson, S. C., on Saturday, April 18, and lost the game with the Grier team by the score of 4 to 2.

In a joint meeting of all the classes the honor system was unanimously adopted. Before now the Juniors and Seniors were on their honor to use no unfair means on any of their work; but now it is an established fact that cheating has breathed its last at Clemson. It has come to us that certain people are criticizing the Young been severely punished. We are sorry. How ideal it would be if none of our boys ever did anything these opportunities of being entertained in the homes of the members of the faculty.

Dr. W. D. Weatherford of Atlanta, the well known international student secretary of the South, was with us Saturday and Sunday,

April 25-26, for a series of evangelical meetings. Mr. Weatherford is unquestionably the greatest student leader in the South today, and there is no man who has done more for the moral and religious welfare of Southern student life than has he. He is not only a great religious leader and friend of students, but he is also a very fine scholar, having taken his M. A.

and Ph. D. degrees at Vanderbilt University since he left college.

Again we urge the importance of Clemson’s sending a large deligation to the Southern Student Conference at Asheville.

With the large number of new men at Clemson next session there will be an urgent demand for trained and efficient leaders.

Every man who goes to this conference will come back prepared to do valuable service for the association and for the college, as the entire program has been planned with reference to the greatest development of each individual man and the highest efficiency of each college association. Some of the strongest speakers on the American platform have already been secured, and it will be the opportunity of a lifetime for any man to attend this conference. To those who have already decided to go,

we suggest the following as a list of things to take with them:

1. The courses in Bible study which will be presented, especially the one which you planned to teach next year.

2. You will need a fountain pen and a good note book.

3. You will feel lost without your college flag, pennants, college songs and college spirit.

4. Overcoats, athletic suits, tennis rackets, and shoes, kodaks,

etc., will be in order.

WILL THERE!

Will there be any stripes on my arm,

When next fall I come back from the farm?

On that September eve,

When they look on my sleeve,

Will they see any stripes on my arm,

A Cheese Nibbler.
THE TIGER

Clemson won over Erskine.—Tigers again victorious.

In a fast and interesting game on campus last Friday, Clemson ran it over Erskine by a score of 5 to 4. The game abounded in errors at critical times and more than once the hearts of Clemson supporters sank only to rise again at a bum fumble by Erskine. The game started at four o'clock sharp and is given below in detail.

First inning.
Lee fouled out to left field. Brown out second to first. Bissell fanned. Hits 0. Runs 0.

Second inning.
Sherard hit to right field for two bags. Kirby outed pitcher to first. Wylie flied out to right. Sherard purloined the third sack. Coles walked and stole second. Stokes fanned. Hits 1. Runs 0.

Third inning.

Fourth inning.

Fifth inning.

Sixth inning.

Seventh inning.

Eighth inning.

Watson fanned. Coles, Wylie fanned but catcher dropped the ball. Grier fanned. Hits 0. Runs 0.

Ninth inning.
Goodman fanned. Lee outed trying for second. Brown fanned to center. Hits 0. Runs 0.

Nothing doing for Erskine.

honorably obeying the rules of athletic training here in vogue. They thereby exemplified the fact that the greatest adage is moderation, which, after all is the only safeguard in athletics or out of it—"Meus sana in sano corpore."

The greatest impetus for one to work is the consciousness that those with whom he is working and for whom he is working are co-operating with him, for without co-operation we feel that we are laboring in vain. To say that I am pleased with my labors here is a fact: I camened found a willing body of boys who tried to put into execution all that was asked of them. This is as much as one can sanely expect or exact from another.

Though the labors have not born fruit one hundred fold, they have born fruit and not bad fruit at all.

Victory is not always the total measure of the strife; many are greater in defeat than in victory.

Any one who has witnessed, impartially, must confess that the victors had to work hard to down us and that the 40 per cent of luck that usually is attendant in base ball contests was invariably on the side of our opponents.

I feel grateful to the boys for their daily efforts to bring about a good team by their conduct both on and off the field. They have done and are doing their best to uphold the reputation of Clemson college and deserve all the co-operation the student body can give them.

The student body must remember that co-operation is necessary in all things; get out, boys, and root! root! root! show the boys that you appreciate their efforts. Root in defeat as well as in victory, for he who cannot weather defeat, deserves not victory. A victory for the ball club is a victory for you and vice versa. Remember that Clemson College for Clemson College is ethically not swine-like,—its loyalty, its patriotism.

Clemson was handicapped more than any of her opponents and when all circumstances connected with our work are considered. Clemson has done well

THE TIGER

Every member of the team is deserving of highest commendation and I publicly extend to them my hearty congratulations, they have the true spirit to make not only good ball players but good men, good citizens.

I leave Clemson College with the kindliest feelings toward the gentlemen whom I have had the good fortune to meet and with hopes for the State championship for the Tigers. May the Tiger win in all the battles in which he participates. May the Athletic Association and its honorable body of men meet with success; they truly deserve unstinted praise for their considerate and generous views for the welfare of the student body.

Good Luck to Clemson!

LAST LYCEUM ENTERTAINMENT OF SEASON.

On the evening of April 18, the last Lyceum entertainment of the season was given in the chapel by the Morphet-Stephenson Company. Because of the serious illness of Mr. Stephenson’s wife, only two of the company, Mr. and Mrs. Morphet, were able to fill the engagement. Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson’s absence made a serious break in the program, as they were the leading musicians of the Company; but Mr. and Mrs. Morphet managed to fill the musical deficiency very creditably. The feature of the evening was undoubtedly Mr. Morphet’s peerless exhibition of black art and sleight of hand. Mr. Morphet is a true artist in his line, and by his ingenuity and skill, he kept his audience in amazement, and completely mystified them with many wonderful exhibitions of so-called magic. He performed several tricks of his own invention that were entirely different from the usual magician’s tricks. The tricks of the burning bubbles and the writing on the slate were perhaps the most interesting on the program.

The musical portion of the program consisted of saxophone solos and duets, and saxophone and cornet duets. Mr. Morphet created a great deal of amusement by playing on the “hoseophone,” an instrument of his own invention; consisting of a funnel with a rubber hose attached to the small end.
