Faculty Meeting of October 8, 1930 - Continued

Dr. Sikes asked that these questions be discussed and called upon the Secretary to open the discussion. The Secretary was followed by Dr. Daniel, Dr. Pollard, Professor Lippincott, Professor Earle, and other members of the faculty. It was the general sentiment of the faculty that a committee should be appointed to draw up a set of rules to govern the best way to handle the questions discussed. It was decided that the committee should consist of a faculty member from each department of the college.

Faculty adjourned.

FACULTY MEETING
April 29, 1931

The President called the meeting to order at 12:10. The minutes of the meeting held March 11 were read and approved.

Special order of business for this meeting was taken up. Dr. Daniel moved that any student applying for a degree from any department must be recommended by that department to the general faculty for the degree of Bachelor of Science. Mr. Washington amended as follows: That special cases without the jurisdiction of a department be referred to a general committee which would have the same standing as the departmental faculty in making its report to the general faculty, this committee to be appointed by the President.

Professor Aull discussed the subject of Ways of Recognizing Scholarship. He stated that he held that public recognition of good scholarship as essential, and then discussed the various methods of giving such recognition both at Clemson and at other institutions. As Dr. Armstrong was not present, Professor Aull incorporated his remarks with his paper. Professor Aull's paper was also discussed by Professor Curtis.

A committee to make specific recommendations as to how scholarship should be recognized at Clemson was appointed; this committee to consist of Professors Aull, Curtis, and Armstrong.

Dr. Sikes asked the opinion of the faculty as to whether or not Juniors and Seniors should be allowed to leave College for the purpose of bringing young ladies to the Junior-Senior Banquet. It was the sentiment of the faculty that it was not wise to allow this to be done.

The faculty adjourned.
