Faculty Meeting of December 15, 1926 - Continued

The subject of the afternoon was announced by Professor Rhodes to be "Some Modern Tendencies in Agricultural and Engineering Education." Mr. Rosenkrans in a very interesting paper discussed the trend of education in agriculture. Professor Carpenter's paper was postponed until the end of the January meeting.

Faculty adjourned.

FACULTY MEETING

January 12, 1927

The President called the meeting to order at 4:15 in the physics lecture room. The following members were absent: Brackett, Dargan, Feeley, Freer, Glenn, Goodale, Lamaster, Lane, Metcalf, Mitchell, Morgan, Penrose, Ritchie, Ryan, Starkey.

The minutes of the meeting held December 15 were read and approved.

The secretary read a letter from Professor Kavanaugh in which he extended hearty wishes for a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year to the President and faculty.

Dr. Sikes announced that Josh Cody, of Vanderbilt, had been elected head coach, and Professor J. G. Gee had accepted the position as Director of Athletics and head of the Department of Physical Education.

Professor Rhodes moved that during January and February classes begin at 8:30. After considerable discussion the matter was referred to the directors for definite action.

Professor Aull discussed in an interesting paper the objective examination and illustrated his talk by showing copies of the examinations he had prepared for his juniors in bacteriology. There was no formal discussion.

Professor Martin moved that examinations begin at 9:00 and at 2:00 o'clock. Carried.

Faculty adjourned.
FACULTY MEETING

February 9, 1927

In the absence of Dr. Sikes, Professor Earle called the meeting to order at 4:15. The following members were absent: Barre, Carver, Cheatham, Dargan, Freeman, Lippincott, Marshall, Metcalf, Mills, Milford, Pollock, Rosenkrans, Sikes, Starkey.

Professor Aull read a resolution proposed by the agricultural faculty thanking the corps for its attempt to hold a fair examination.

Three petitions were referred to the Committee on Petitions with power to act.

Professor Carpenter presented his paper on evolutionary tendencies in engineering education. The paper was illustrated with diagrams and was discussed informally.

The faculty adjourned.

FACULTY MEETING

March 8, 1927

The meeting was called to order at 4:15 by President Sikes. The following were absent: Blanford, Carpenter, Clarke, Dargan, Freeman, Glenn, Henry, Johnson, J. M., LaMaster, Marshall, Mitchell, Mills, Murphey, Newman, Shanklin, Sherman-ex.

Dr. Sikes read a letter from Professor Burr Johnson thanking the faculty for the wreath sent by it to his brother's funeral.

Dr. Wardlaw, professor of education at the University of South Carolina, was invited to speak to the faculty at chapel service.

Professors Brearly and Tate discussed in an interesting manner the project method of teaching. The questions raised by the speakers caused considerable discussion by various members of the faculty.

Faculty adjourned.
FACULTY MEETING

April 12, 1927

Dr. Sikes called the meeting to order at 4:15 p.m.

Calling the roll and reading the minutes were dispensed with.

The faculty listened with much enjoyment to a talk on educational problems by Dr. Patterson Wardlow. On motion of Professor Daniel the faculty gave Dr. Wardlow a rising vote of thanks for his very instructive speech.

Faculty adjourned.

FACULTY MEETING

May 17, 1927

The following members of the faculty were absent: Ayres, Dargan, Eaton, Feeley, Goodale, Henderson, Jensen, Johnson, J. M., Marshall, Mills, Milford, Richey, Robinson, Sams, Tate.

The minutes of the faculty meeting held April 12 were read and approved.

Dr. Beach was recommended to the board for the degree of Bachelor of Science.

The system of reporting to the faculty students who leave College was explained by the registrar.

Professor Bradley presented a paper on college activities and the relationships to success in after life. This very interesting paper was discussed by Professors Tucker and Clarke. Professor Clarke's unusually brilliant discussion was roundly applauded.

The agricultural faculty recommended Mr. W. C. McCoy of McBee, South Carolina, as a candidate to receive the Certificate of Merit for valuable contributions to agriculture in South Carolina. The recommendation of the agricultural faculty was adopted by the general faculty. Mr. McCoy is largely responsible for the development of the peach and dewberry industries and is now engaged in cooperative experiments in grape growing and fruit growing generally.

Faculty adjourned.
FACULTY MEETING

June 4, 1927

The meeting was called to order at five o'clock.

The following members were absent: Ayres, Dargan, Doggett, Eaton, Feeley, Goodale, Henderson, Jensen, Johnson, J. M., Marshall, Mills, Rhodes, Robinson, Rhyne, Tate.

The minutes of the faculty meetings held May 17 and April 8 were read and approved.

The Secretary recommended that Cadet Maxwell be given his degree as soon as he stands his final examinations. Approved.

The matter of awarding a degree to J. W. McMillan was referred to the Director of Engineering Department and the Registrar.

Dr. G. N. Burns, J. A. Norris, and J. O. Winguard were recommended by the faculty to the Trustees for the degree of B. S.

Mr. L. K. Richards was recommended to the Board of Trustees for his degree as soon as certain work in which he is behind is made up.

Mr. J. C. Lie was recommended to the Board of Trustees for his Master's degree.

Professor Earle moved that the list of graduates published, with the exceptions as noted, be recommended to the Board of Trustees for degrees. Carried.

Faculty adjourned.

FACULTY MEETING

September 5, 1927

The meeting was called to order at 4:15. The following members were absent: Goodale, Johnson, J. N., Lane, Lippincott, Milford, Fawlinson, Musser.

The minutes of the faculty meeting held June 4 were read and approved.

Dr. Sikes made a short address of welcome to the faculty.

The registrar gave an explanation of the purpose of Freshman Week.

Faculty adjourned.
Faculty Meeting
October 13, 1927

The meeting was called to order at 4:15 p.m. by President Sikes. The following were absent: Bradley, Collings, Daniel, Edwards, Feeley, Henry, LaMaster, Lippincott, Morgan, Mullins, McKenna and Pollard.

The minutes of the meeting held September 5 were read and approved.

The paper of the afternoon was read by Dr. Milford and gave in an interesting way the results of the recent medical examination of the Freshmen. The paper was discussed by Professors Heath, Martin, Johnson, Dunavan, Tucker, LaMaster, Johnston, Carkuff and Cole.

After several announcements the faculty adjourned.

FACULTY MEETING
November, 1927

Dr. Sikes called the faculty meeting to order at 4:15 in the Physics lecture room. The following were absent: Balcar, Bradley, Clark, Dunavan, Furno, Glenn, LaMaster, Mullin, McKenna, Newman, Sams, Shanklin, Starkey, Townsend.

Professor Eaton made the announcement that the Legion would conduct chapel services at 11:00 a.m. on Armistice Day. Colonel Cole stated that special trains would run to Anderson and Athens.

On motion of Professor Daniel the numbers for houses selected by the ladies of the Woman's Club were adopted.

Professor Barre moved that the subject of free mail delivery at Clemson and the immediate vicinity be further investigated.

Dr. Daniel spoke on fundamental English. The discussion was lead by Professor Tucker. After a full discussion of the matter by several members of the faculty, the meeting adjourned.
FACULTY MEETING

December 15, 1927

The meeting was called to order at 4:15 by President Sikes.

The following faculty members were absent: Carpenter, Cole, Daniel, Earle, Feeley, Fernow, Freeman, Glenn, Goodale, Harris, Heath, Henry, Johnson, J. M., Kinard, LaMaster, Lee, R. E., Lippincott, Lissey, Milford, Morgan, McClure, Otto, Sams, Taylor and Townsend.

The minutes of the faculty meeting held November 9 were read and approved.

The paper for the afternoon was read by Professor Martin, title "Mathematics as Taught at Clemson." The paper was discussed by Professor Rhodes. After a vigorous and heated discussion in which many members of the faculty took part, the faculty adjourned.

FACULTY MEETING

January 10, 1928

The meeting was called to order at 4:15 by the President. The following members of the faculty were absent: Balcar, Barre, Buie, Bryan, Carpenter, Clarke, Daniel, Dargan, Earle, Edwards, Ezell, Feeley, Fernow, Freeman, Glenn, Heath, Henry, Hodge, Johnstone, B. J., Johnson, J. M., Johnson, H. D., Lee, R. E., Marshall, Martin, Mills, Morgan, Newman, Rawlinson, Rhodes, Sams, Taylor and Townsend.

The minutes of the faculty meeting held December 15 were read and approved. Dr. Pollard read an interesting paper on "The Teaching of Chemistry." This was discussed by Drs. Mullin and Collings. After a general discussion the faculty adjourned.