Clemson Reserves in Fast Game
Defeats Georgia Meds. 6 to 5.

On Thanksgiving Day the Scrubs beat the Ga.-Meds by the very small score of 6 to 5. The game was played in July weather, and consequently, the men were not able to play their best. Time was taken out frequently.

The Scrubs’ best work was done when they held the Meds for downs when only a few yards meant a touch-down, and their defensive work in the second half.

The game consisted of end runs by Ga.-Meds. and punting by the Reserves.

First Half.
The first half was played with the ball in Clemson’s territory most of the time, but only once was there any danger, which was when the ball was in the Meds’ possession on Clemson’s one-half yard line, first down and goal to gain, but right here the boys got busy and decided that the Meds. should not make a touch-down, and forth-with proceeded to hold them for downs. Then “Rip.” Major’s trusty toe booted the ball back to the middle of the field where it remained until the end of the first half.

Score: Meds. 0; Reserves 0.

Second Half.
The Meds. opened the second half by kicking to Clemson, who immediately on receiving the ball, booted it back down the field. By means of a recovered kick, a series of end runs and a couple of bucks by Bowen, the ball was carried over the goal for a touch-down for the Meds. P. W. Brown missed a very difficult goal.

Score: Meds. 5; Reserves 0.

Clemson kicks to the Meds. W. Brown receives ball and advanced it 55 yards. A series of plays followed, and on a fumble by W. Brown, Clarkson of Clemson, got the ball and ran 60 yards through an open field for a touch-down. Teams kicked an easy goal.

Score Reserves 6; Meds. 5.

However, right here the Meds. put in a protest, claiming that the score was 5 to 5 on account of the fact that two of the Clemson subs were behind the goal post when the goal was kicked.

No further scoring was done, Time being called with the ball near the middle of the field.

The Game in Detail.
gets ball when fumbled. J. Brown kicks 25 yards.
Clemson's ball. Major kicks 40 yards. Brown kicks 45 yards. Time up first half. Score: 0 to 0.

SECOND HALF.
Meds. kick to Clemson's 20 yard line. Major kicks 40 yards and Brown runs it back 20. Brown gets 3 yards through center. Bunch 2 over tackle. J. Brown gets 25 around left end. Bowen, on a couple of bucks, carries the ball over. W. Brown missed goal. Score: Meds. 5; Reserves 0.

Final score: Clemson 6; Meds. 5.

The Cotillion Club Dance.
The Cotillion Club gave its first dance of the season in the Agricultural Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 27. This was one of the nicest dances ever given at Clemson. The hall was appropriately decorated with wreaths, ferns, flags, college pennants, etc.; Comstock’s Orchestra furnished music for the occasion, and it goes without saying that we had the best that could be produced.

Among those present were: Miss Mabel Sanders, of Greenville, with J. D. Graham; Miss Neile Bostie, of Spartanburg, with L. P. Byars; Miss Helen Alston, of Greenville, with R. P. Jeter; Miss Margarete Lipscomb, of Greenville, with J. P. McMillan; Miss Cena Sitton, of Autun, with G. W. Keitt; Miss Sadie McPhail, of Pendleton, with J. C. Pridmore; Miss Alice Stirling, of Pendleton, with I. H. Grimbail; Miss Annie McPhail, of Pendleton, with T. C. Redfern; Miss Leiz Stirling, of Pendleton, with S. O. Pegues; Miss Helen Boggs, of Pickens, with J. C. Littlejohn; Miss Lila Stirling, of Pendleton, with J. H. Wilson; Miss Clara Hunt, of Greenville, with H. L. Reaves; Miss Clara Belle Dawkins, of Spartanburg, with W. C. Crum; Miss Helen Bradford, of Clemson with O. B. Brodie; Miss Floride Calhoun, of Clemson, with W. G. Societies

Columbian Society.

After one more week, society work will be entirely forgotten in the melee of examinations. But at the last meeting of the Columbian Literary Society no sign of waning interest was visible. In fact, several old members have been heard to say lately that more interest is taken in the affairs of our society than for a year or so back. Be that as it may, we believe we are getting something worth while from our meetings.

The Senior officers for the third and fourth quarters have been elected so that their pictures and names may be published in the Annual. For the third quarter the officers are: Harris, A. L., President; Baldwin, C. E., Vice-President; Whittle, A. C., Literary Critic. For the fourth quarter the following were elected: Fleming, F., President; Brockington, W. J., Vice-President; Barnett, G. M., Literary Critic. The Society is to be congratulated on selecting such able men to administer its affairs. They are sure to reflect honor on themselves and the Society during their respective terms of office.

The Society is at present looking forward to the preliminary declaimers’ contest, which takes place at our next meeting. From among quite a number who will deliver declamations, the two best will be chosen to represent the Society in the annual Celebration.

The Calhoun.

At our last meeting, three Juniors, who had found out their mistake in not joining the Society, had their names presented and were elected members. The time comes to nearly every cadet when he realizes the good to be gotten from Society work, and if it is not too late he joins. To those who are not members of any Society, remember it is never too early to start in Society work. Ask to become a member of some Society and you will never regret it.

The subject of our annual contest was discussed, and two volunteers for the orator’s contest presented their names, Mr. G. W. Keitt, and T. B. Reeves. Of the five volunteers for the debate, Messrs. Pridmore and Pitts were elected, while a preliminary contest will be held to decide which of the many volunteers will enter the contest as declaimers.

The regular exercises were not carried out, and instead, the Senior officers for the third and fourth terms were elected.

For the third term, Mr. J. C. Pridmore was elected President, Mr. J. H. Wilson, Vice-President, and Mr. B. E. Wolff, Critic.

For the fourth term, Mr. T. B. Reeves was made President, Mr. L. P. Byars, Vice-President, and Mr. W. G. Dominick, Critic.

Having no further business, the Society adjourned.

Y. M. C. A.

Two new tennis courts and a basket ball field are nearly completed. With the two courts already made, and the new ones, fellows ought not to have to wait to play. Anyone interested in basket ball, come out and play.

Any body who wishes to use the Y. M. C. A. property is welcome. They need not necessarily be members of the Association.

There are three hundred and seventy-five men in Bible study. This is exactly seventy-five per cent. of the fellows in school. You ought to be with the biggest side.

Mr. Mills entertained the Bosworth leaders at his home Thanksgiving Day. Words can’t express the fellows’ enjoyment. Ask them!

President Harms, President of Newberry College, made an excellent speech to the students in the Association hall not long ago. He is now President of his “Alma Mater.”

Prof. Geer’s lecture was greatly enjoyed. Prof. Geer is a close neighbor, as he is from Furman.

Now, as examinations approach, don’t lay aside your Bible study.

The Mission leaders were entertained last week by Mr. Mills. There are ten leaders with an average of six men to a class.

The faculty are having men ask them for contributions this week. Most of them are gladly giving freely. The results can not yet be posted.

Our Coach Stone.

You talk about Napoleon and men of fame;
Of Garibaldi, of Cesar, and of Charlemagne,
Of the rulers great upon the throne.
But the greatest to me is our Coach "Stein" Stone.

Taft can make speeches from his front porch,
But he hasn’t got all that makes up a Coach.
Bryan is called the greatest man of the time,
But he hasn’t the nerve to “buck” in the line.

A man with brains and constructed like Taft,
Would never make Center, nor could try for Half.
Why such a big fellow, as round as a tub,
Couldn’t make “Sub” for the Clemson “Scrub”.

All praise to Coach Stone, who trains the men,
For Halves and Tackle, Center, Guard and End,
Making them plucky with vigor and vim.
The whole student body is proud of him.

We may have hard luck, and lose a game;
But that won’t reflect on Coach Stone’s name.
He has trained the men well, and has done his best;
And its up to the team when it comes to the test.

—Harold Guerry.

Mr. Wm. W. Houston.

Some weeks ago we received cards from Mr. William W. Houston, the “Baritone”, from Appleton, Wis., where he is soloist in one of the largest choirs of that city. We also hear of his giving concerts in the Northwest with the famous violinist, Frederick Makmuri, from Brussels, Belgium.

We did not realize what a privilege and education it was to have an “artist” in our midst such as he, nor how we would miss him until he was gone; but we could not hope to keep so talented a man with us long. We are more than thankful for what he did to raise our appreciation of the greatest of arts, the voice. We wish him much success in his career and hope the fates will send him down in our midst again, that we may have the advantage of hearing his great voice again.

With Apologies to Olive Goldsmith.

When foolish boys do stoop to folly,
And find, too late, that they’ve been burnt,
What man can soothe their melancholy,
When Minus of their sin has learnt?

The only art his guilt to cover,
To free him in the Captain’s eye,
To cause all of his doubts to smother,
And get no extras, is —— to lie.

Mr. Warde’s Lecture.

Mr. Frederick Warde, the eminent tragedian, gave an interesting reading of the “Merchant of Venice” in the chapel on November 28th. That Shakespeare is truly appreciated by students as well as by the faculty, is attested by the large attendance at the evening’s entertainment.

No one who hears Mr. Warde’s rendition of this great play can say that he has had so true an understanding of the play as is gained by hearing our noted visitor. With an ease and youthfulness of manner that belied his years, the aged actor took up the parts of the different characters and made the actors in classic drama to become almost living beings. All through the reading Mr. Warde punctuated his recital with terse applications of lessons in the play to every day life. He carried the sympathy and interest of the audience with him throughout the evening, and wove the thread of the plot in a way that interested all alike.

Without going into a detailed discussion of the treatment of the different characters, we may say that Mr. Warde is a master of Shakespeare’s art; and his visit among us will mean the awakening of greater interest in Shakespeare’s poems and plays.

Luther P. Byars (in the Calhoun Literary Society.)

“Gentlemen, I don’t see why we should not elect a presiding elder (officer) tonight, to preside at our annual celebration.”

“Buster” White wants to know if Lent is not a period of two weeks in February, in which period all the ladies on the Hill refuse to have any social functions and also to eat any meats.

Two visiting ladies on the Hill, wishing to see the country around here, hired a horse and buggy from Mr. “Clink,” our liveryman. He assured the ladies that the horse was perfectly gentle, provided they did not let the rein hit his tail. A few hours later, Mr. “Clink,” hurrying home out of the down-pour of rain, passed the two ladies. One of them was sitting in the foot of the buggy, holding an umbrella over the horse’s tail. Mr. “Clink” told them that it wasn’t any danger of the horse’s catching cold by getting his tail wet. “But,” answered one of the ladies, “you said we should prevent the rain from hitting his tail.”

A GREAT REVOLUTION IN DENTIFRICES

CALOX

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.

The Oxygen Tooth Powder

(U. S. Patent granted May 17, 1904, Oct. 17, 1905.)

(English and Canadian Patents granted.)

Calox is a revolution in Tooth Powders. It has properties which no other powder possesses and it does work which no other dentifrice can do.

CAŁOX depends for its effects upon the presence of Nature’s purifier—oxygen. It is a product which the dental profession has long sought—a powder which is not only a mechanical cleanser, but a reliable and efficient antiseptic and germicide, a powder which will not only cleanse the teeth, but will also sterilize the mouth, thus preventing dental decay arising from the acid-producing bacteria, and protecting the system from danger of attack by germs of infectious diseases, which so frequently gain access through the mouth.

CAŁOX cleanses the teeth, keeps them white, or whitens them if discolored, prevents decay, relieves sensitiveness, cleans and hardens the gums, neutralizes acid, destroys infectious germs, removes all odors and keeps the whole mouth clean.

CAŁOX is the only dentifrice that will actually remove discolorations and whitens the teeth without injury to their structure. It is the only dentifrice that will prevent decay because it destroys the germs that cause decay. It is the only dentifrice that will desodorize the mouth, because the oxygen it contains oxidizes all food particles, removes deposits from the teeth, tongue and mucous surfaces and destroys organisms that give rise to fermentation and decay.

EDITORIAL

Are hair-pulling, nerve-straining examinations necessary?

Get your girl's Christmas presents from those who by their advertisements, helped to put The Tiger in your hands.

Anything that is for the benefit of the Annual, Chronicle and Tiger is for your benefit: thousands of people who have never seen or even heard of you, judge you by them.

Thanks to Dr. Mell, and thanks to the Y. M. C. A. for the basket ball and tennis courts they are erecting. Without some better athletic facilities, there would be somewhat of a lull in athletics at Clemson College until the opening up of baseball and track seasons.

Any number of opinions are likely to be formed of us on our way home and back. Our behavior on our trip home and return will have quite a different effect in causing opinions to be formed from our behavior at home: those opinions formed at home will be of the individual, while those formed by people who know us only as Clemson cadets will be of our College. Out of respect for ourselves and for our College, let us so conduct ourselves at all times, that opinions formed may be those due every gentleman, and every gentleman's College.

Among some of us, there seems to be a sad lack of the proper spirit along certain lines. A class meeting or a staff meeting is announced for the consideration of some important subject, and perhaps a third or half of the members are absent. In the majority of cases, if the class or staff happens to do something out of the way, those who are prone to be indifferent about attending the meetings, are the ones who have the first kick coming; yet they were not present to say anything against the wrong doing. If we should attend, if possible, all class and staff meetings, we should find that we could save others a great amount of inconvenience and trouble.

The College publications are got out by the student body and not by a class or a few individuals. There seems to be prevalent but erroneous impression among some of the students, that they have elected staffs for this purpose, and that they have nothing whatever to do with it except to criticize and see the members of the staffs "work like fury" to get it out. To get the best and most satisfactory results, we shall all have to work in harmony. It is next to impossible for a staff to get out a publication without the support of the students. With the number of boys we have, with no city or town in which to spend our idle moments, we should be able to get out the best College periodicals in the South. It is quite possible to do so, but we shall have to put our shoulders to the wheel and push things along.

"I'm going to have a time Christmas," is no uncommon expression heard among the students these days. Very well, we sincerely hope that every boy will have a royal good time; but when you are "living the life," remember why you are given a vacation at this time of the year. It is not intended for us to go reeling and staggering about, jabbering incoherently. "I am living a life; Christmas only comes once a year," etc.; for God knows it would be a thousands times better if it could not come at all, then to come under those conditions. But let us bear in mind why there are such things as Christmas holidays, and we will not entertain any such low and unbecoming desires. Truly, it was intended for a time for us to rejoice and make merry, but it should be of thanksgiving and praise for that invaluable Christmas gift that was given many centuries ago. If the thoughts and respect of that one Gift alone is uppermost in our minds, we cannot have the countenance to do a single low and shameful deed.

Now, boys, the easiest and most pleasant (?) time of our term's work is at hand—our examinations. They should and would be the easiest time for us during the year, if we have applied ourselves to our duty from the beginning, as becomes men to do. While, on the other hand, if we have only done enough to pass, or have worked simply because we were watched, exams, mean nothing less than one week of anxious and tiresome cramming. And then, if we neglect our studies until the very last—as some of us are prone to do—we shall, no doubt, sometimes be tempted to use unfairness in order to pass. If such an idea comes to our minds for one fleeting moment, let us spurn it and cast it from us as we would a poisonous viper, as indeed it is. And yet to compare such thoughts with the hiss and sting of the most repulsive of all creatures, is far too mild a comparison. There is not one thing of God's creation hideous enough to be likened unto dishonesty. We hope and believe that there is no man in College mean as to deign so low a condescension as to give his thought to such things; but we should only like to remind every man that he is on his honor as a gentleman and as a member of our corps, to do the honest thing at all times.

Let us see that our hearts and minds are not blemished by entertaining any mean and loathsome ideas for one moment.

Senior Class.

A few weeks ago, an oyster supper was given in the Mess Hall for the benefit of the 1909 Annual. Both stews and fries were served, and were enjoyed very much by the happy possessor of a quarter.

The corps of cadets had a rare treat on Thanksgiving Day by the management of the 1909 Annual in the form of a football matinee. A miniature field being laid off on a black-board, the ball was kept in its correct position throughout the game. The game was received in detail from Ponce de Leon Park, Atlanta, and although the ball kept moving towards our goal a great part of the time, the afternoon was enjoyed very much by all who attended.

Cadets, especially, are urged to attend these entertainments for the benefit of the Annual, for it must be remembered that the Annual is not published by the Senior Class alone, but by the entire corps; and everyone should co-operate to make this Annual the best ever published by the Clemson corps of cadets.

On December 1, a short meeting of the Senior Class was held. At this meeting the resignation of Mr. W. H. McIver, as business manager for 1909 Annual, was read before and accepted by the Class. Mr. McIver gave as a reason for his resignation that his studies would not permit him to devote the required time to this work. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered Mr. McIver for the work already accomplished. Mr. T. B. Reeves succeeds Mr. McIver as business manager for the 1909 "Taps."

Mr. T. B. Reeves and L. C. Byars spent Thanksgiving in Atlanta, for the purpose of seeing the Tech-Clemson game.

Messrs. Hyrne, Jeter, and Blair, accompanied by Dr. Calhoun, made a visit to the rock quarry at Beverly, in order to do some Geological work.

Messrs. Clark, Keitt, and Harris spent Saturday in Pendleton, making pictures for the Annual.

We regret very much to hear that Mr. F. Fleming, our football Captain, who was hurt in the Tech-Clemson game, is once more attending classes.

Mr. T. B. Reeves spent Saturday in Anderson on "Annual" business.

Mr. G. A. Burton, a former member of our Class, has returned to College, and expects to continue his work as an instructor.

We are very glad to learn that Strict Coles, our football Captain, who was hurt in the Tech-Clemson game, is once more attending classes.

Junior Class.

The Christmas holidays are rapidly drawing near, and along with them come examinations. When a man has passed all his examinations, and showed that he has really accomplished something during the term, then he is in a position to enjoy his vacation.

Class football season will soon be here. Some arrangements as to our coach should soon be decided upon, so that no time will be lost after Christmas.

The President called a meeting of the Class, and the election of men for the “Taps” staff was discussed. In order to give the members time to think over this matter, it was decided to elect the staff next Saturday.

On Saturday night, Nov. 25, the Juniors had an informal dance in the Agricultural Hall. All present enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. W. D. Barnett was confined to the hospital for nearly a week, on account of injuries received by falling on a gravel walk.

Mr. F. W. Chapman is now very ill at the hospital. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. E. C. Martin visited friends and parents at his home near Central last week.

“Buster” White made a flying trip to Pendleton last Saturday. Of course it was a business (?) trip.

Mr. J. T. Stevenson was called to his home in Ker- shaw on account of the serious illness of his mother, who died soon after he reached home.

Simpson, R. M., after horselaughing Prof. D——, was informed that he would have either to lengthen his ears or trim his voice. “Simp.” chose the latter.

Mr. W. Allen attended the Clemson-Tech football game in Atlanta on Thanksgiving.

Sophomore Class.

Our little holiday on Thanksgiving Day was certainly appreciated and enjoyed by most of the boys. A few boys especially enjoyed it, because they had a very pleasant chat with Captain Minus at Calhoun. He told them that he thought that they had had enough holiday, and that they must go to their rooms and be good little boys. He talked so nice that they obeyed his request, and went to their rooms; they have been there ever since, and expect to stay there for quite a while. Several of our classmates went to their homes to spend Thanksgiving. Some of the ones that remained here “got happy” and raised a little sand. Nothing else happened worth mentioning.

The Dancing School is still getting along fine, although we miss our late president very much. We are very sorry that he had to leave so suddenly, and that he is not apt to return very soon. But we hope that the new president will prove as competent as the old one, and continue in the good work. Exams are coming! Gee! What are we going to do when we strike such “snags” as “Powers,” “Poats,” “Trig,” and “Colonel?”

We look forward to our Christmas holidays with much pleasure; but, we look forward to the Exams week before the holidays with much apprehension. I reckon we will try to hurry and finish them, and breathe a sigh of relief when they are over; but there will probably be much “weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth” when the reports are received. Some of the boys will probably find it pretty hard to study for Exams, because some vision of “the girl he left behind” and that he will soon see, will come before his tired eyes and divert his mind. But in his mind’s wanderings he must not let them so wander as to once forget the “Honor System.” Let him always keep it in mind and study hard, so that he will know his lessons and not be tempted to divert from the straight path of the “Honor System.” We hope that all the boys will keep this in mind and not depend on “skinning” through, as was so often the case before the “Honor System” was adopted.

Two of our classmates and friends, J. W. Hennagan and J. E. C. Bischoff, left suddenly on an indefinite leave of absence. We wish them good luck.

Freshman Class.

We have about recovered from the effects of the Thanksgiving boxes that we were into not long ago. There are but a few days more until we will be leaving for the holidays. It seems a pity that the examinations could not be arranged so that they would end on Saturday the twentieth, so that we could have been home by Sunday.

When we come back after the Christmas, we will be ready to start in the New Year with hard work.

Although Clemson was defeated by Tech, that did not prevent us from playing good ball; the playing of Horton and McPadden, who represent the Freshman Class on the football team, was very good; these men will both be stars next season, if nothing prevents their coming back to Clemson.

Some of the Freshmen seem rather doubtful as to the outcome of the exams, and on a good many doors you will see “studying for exams, call again.” On the whole, there does not seem to be a great many of those who will be, “take it overs” as one of our learned Professors calls them.

Several members of the faculty spent Thanksgiving in Atlanta for the purpose of witnessing the Tech-Clemson football game.

Mrs. C. A. Woods, of Marion, sister of Mrs. T. W. Keitt, and Miss Marion Salley, of Orangeburg, were the guests of Mrs. T. W. Keitt last week.

Two tennis courts are being built in the rear of the middle barracks by the members of the Y. M. C. A. They are also going to have a basketball ground a little later.

A "football matinee" was given in the Chapel on Thanksgiving Day, by the '09 Annual staff. The Clemson-Tech. game was gotten in detail by wire, and illustrated by means of a blackboard devised by Prof. Howard.

Prof. Furman: "Mr. Baxley, what kind of feet was Chaucer's?"

Junior Baxley: "Prof. I don't think the book says what number of shoes he wore."

Class: Same old thing!!!

Prof. F.: "Mr. Boykin, why were these tales of Chaucer's called 'Canterbury Tales'?"

Junior Boykin: "The author's name was 'Canterbury', sir."
