Special meeting Academic Faculty
Jan. 15, 1923.

Meeting was called to order by the Director at 12:10 P.M.

At the suggestion of the Director, a committee to draft suitable resolutions pursuant to the death of Prof. Morrison was provided, consisting of Messrs. Holmes, Johnstone and Martini.

The secretary read a letter from the registrar to the Director in which the registrar asked that teachers should not add names to printed rosters of student sections.

For the benefit of new faculty members the Director called attention to rules for holding examinations, stated that a stenographer would cut examination stencils if necessary, stated that the number of the course must be put on the teachers’ reports to the registrar, asked whether text books for 2nd semester had been ordered, called attention to the recitation benches in the tower room and stated that those needing extra seats should get them at once and return chairs borrowed of Common.

D. S. O. suggested that student ask for leave from class to go off on permit be denied and stated that requests for changes in terms for 1923 be made early.
He also asked that needs for next year in the way of files be put in early, that cleaning of class rooms should be directed by faculty members, and reviewed the evils of early dismissal of classes with the concomitant noise to meetings. Adjourned.

Dillard and Edgely; present, late Mr. Godfrey.
The Director asked whether anyone had any need to be presented at the approaching meeting of the Board, asked for needs as to repairs to class rooms. furniture, asked for schedule of class work of faculty members, asked that heads of departments or of divisions be notified when faculty members find it will be impossible to meet classes.

The Committee on Resolutions in memory of Prof. Morrison made its report, the resolutions being unanimously adopted (the resolutions follow).

Whereas, on Dec. 28, 1922, it pleased God in His Wisdom to remove by death from this world Prof. Wm. Shannon Morrison and

Whereas, for almost thirty years he was Prof. of History and Political Economy of the Clemson Agricultural College and an active and enthusiastic member of the Academic Department.

Therefore, be it Resolved, that in his death the College has lost one of its most faithful and inspiring teachers, the members of our faculty a trusted counselor and friend, and the State of South Carolina a citizen who with constant and devoted zeal in the class room and on the platform, promoted his state's educational, social and religious welfare.

Be it Resolved further, that a page of our minutes be inscribed to his memory and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the bereaved family and to The Tiger.

May 28, 1923.

Meeting was called to order by the Director. Absent: Messrs. Godfrey, Withers.

The faculty discussed the summary of teachers' weekly reports, which the Director had on a blackboard. The Director called attention to apparent errors originating either with registrar's office or with individual instructors, and asked that care be exercised in making out weekly reports.

The Director asked the faculty to consider what the members could do to discourage April Fool pranks and called attention to the danger of teachers thoughtlessly encouraging pranks in a college with military government. The question was discussed fully and sympathetically to the chair's suggestion.

Meeting adjourned.

Regular Meeting Academic Faculty
Nov. 30, 1923

Meeting was called to order by the Director. Absent: Smith, Dillard and Ferguson. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

The Director called attention to the composite grading report of the 2nd Semester 1922-1923, which the faculty examined and discussed. The Director stated that the Division of Education was to offer a course to teachers and that at a meeting of the directors it was decided to ask that teachers who were still serving in their probationary period to attend these lectures. one hour a week. Others were invited to attend these lectures.

The Director also stated that Dr. Hayden of the State Board of Health had made another inspection of the building, and was pleased with conditions, and that Dr. Hayden had expressed his regret that a former report intended only for the Board of Health had been given to the press.

Prof. Martin explained faculty rule 16, which requires students scheduling additional work to drop the extra hours where they fail on any subject at the mid-semester. He stated that the rule was very drastic and that the committee on re-examinations in applying it to seniors enforced it with those seniors only who had two or more failures.
