Regular Meeting Academic Faculty
Jan. 29, 1919.

Meeting was called to order by the Chairman.
Mr. Johnstone was absent, excused.

The Chairman made the following suggestions and and announcements: that faculty members encourage literary societies by urging students to join and by giving references for debate; that janitor's schedule was posted in the bulletin board, and that unsatisfactory service be reported; that Mr. Shanklin should have notice of changes in texts sufficiently in advance to enable him to make arrangements; that the English Division would use as basis of composition a short simple book suggested by each division; that if any member of the faculty had any special request to come before the Board of Trustees the President would receive it before he left for France.

On motion of Prof. Bradley the time for meeting for the remainder of the term was fixed at 12:05 P.M. on the last Wednesday.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

A.G. Holmes,
Sec'y.

Regular Meeting Academic Faculty
May 8, 1919.

Meeting was called to order by the Chairman.

Absent, Messrs. Bradley, Hunter, J. E. (excused), Johnston, Morrison, Ponte, Place, Mackie, McCallum, Hunter (excused), Dunn (excused).

Chairman stated that he desired the question of entrance requirements discussed. Mr. Littlejohn was present and made a report of the meeting of the registrars of colleges of U.S. and of suggestions adopted by the meeting.

He called attention to the complaint of other colleges against our entrance requirements in connection with our graduates seeking admission elsewhere. To our graduates seeking scholarships for advanced work in other institutions, 15 units of high school work are desired. Clemson College is on a 15 unit basis.

There followed general discussion of this question. The chairman asked about the work of the janitors.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

Meeting of Academic Faculty
Sept. 12, 1919.

Meeting was called to order by the Chairman.

Absent were: Leary, Franklin, and Wells.

On motion of Prof. Martin, the regular time for faculty meeting was fixed at 12:00 o'clock on the last Friday.

The Chairman stated that the President wished the faculty to discuss some time the question of a Summer School for work in the Academic Department on the basis of tuition for students and remuneration for teachers teaching in the Summer School.

The Chairman announced that the President wished all official matters, except the question of houses, to come to him thru Heads of Divisions and Directors.

Here followed discussion of the question of the Summer School but definite action was left to a later meeting.

Meeting adjourned.

A. L. Holmes, Sec'y.
