Prof. Martin at 4:10 o'clock P.M. Absent,
Messrs. Bradley, Bramlet, Morrison (excused), Poats, Covington (excused).

Prof. Martin reported that his committee had conferred with the President in reference to having drinking water and water closets provided for each floor of the Main Building and that the President had promised to carefully consider the matter and to do what was practicable.

Prof. Daniel asked for information
as to the rules governing audit Commencement speakers. Pres. Piggs and Prof. Shanklin stated the rules.

On invitation of the Chair, President Piggs addressed the faculty and concluded his remarks
with the suggestion that this faculty discuss the following topics
at this or later meetings:

1. Systems of grading with a view to an improvement over our present system.
2. Rotation of class sections to teachers.
3. Dividing examination papers for grading.
4. Academic requirements in other Southern institutions such as this as to:
   a. Conditions allowed.
   b. Range of work.
   c. What shall we do to connect up the Freshman class with the schools.
5. Question of reducing work for Freshmen well-advanced and elevating it for backward men.

Following general discussion of several of these topics, on motion of Prof. Daniel, it was decided to take up for discussion at the next regular meeting the subject of grading.

Prof. Bryan suggested that the Secretary notify the absent mem-
Rev. of the subject for discussion.

Prof. Daniel suggested that the secretary ask the President before each meeting for suggestions as to topics he would like this faculty to discuss. Adjourned at 5:08 P.M.
