Dec. 12, 1912.

Meeting was called to order by Prof. Furman.

Absent, Messrs. Bradley, Bryan, Shanklin; present late, Messrs. Martin, Poole, Wells.

Prof. Furman stated that the committee appointed to consider the matter of credit commencement speakers was not ready to report. Prof. Daniel of the committee, stated that the correspondence upon which the committee was waiting showed such a variety of answers, that no advantage would be gained by waiting for other replies and that, with the consent of the chairman, he would submit some resolutions which he had drawn. On motion, these resolutions were considered and discussed.

On motion of Prof. Kent, the resolutions were referred back to the committee with request that the committee make a complete report at the next regular meeting of the faculty.

Meeting adjourned at 5:30 P.M.
