EMERGENCIES

In any emergency of any nature, come to the right side door of the press box (as you face press box), or contact any user on duty. First aid stations are on either side of field beneath stands with trained personnel on duty. Telephones are located at the northeast, northwest, southeast, and southwest ticket booths.

RESTROOMS

Ladies' and men's restrooms are located beneath the stands and can be reached by exit from any portal. There are 4 ladies' and 4 men's restrooms on each side of the stadium and one each under the new west stands.

CONCESSION STANDS

Concession stands are located underneath each side of the stadium and west end stands and can be reached by exit from any portal. The stands handle soft drinks, sandwiches, cigarettes, popcorn, peanuts, candy, etc. Vendors also sell these items in the stands.

IN LEAVING

In leaving the stadium, please give utmost heed to the directions from officers on duty. New parking lots and exit roads have been added this year for your convenience. Please cooperate with traffic officers. Cars will be cleared from parking lots as quickly as possible.
Nobody Says "Sis-Boom-Bah" Any More!

It went out of date with the flying-wedge and handlebar mustaches. But the game goes on with new plays and new cheers. Uniforms are an ancient and traditional garb but today we bring to them modern fabrics—improved technique—advanced craftsmanship and contemporary design. Uniforms for Clemson and other fine colleges—"Uniforms of Distinction!"

We at Clemson College are delighted to have each of you with us for today's game.

It is always a pleasure to show our fine institution to friends and 'friendly enemies' alike. We hope both the football played here today in our magnificent stadium and your experiences on our campus will be memorable, and that you will come back to visit us often.

We hope, too, you will share with us our pride in the progress which abounds here. We invite you to share our obligations to the young men and women who have their faith in us for their 'tomorrows,' and our commitment as the greatest single influence upon every segment of economic, social and political life in South Carolina.

About The Coach . . .

Frank Howard's 22nd season as head coach at Clemson and his 31st on the staff holds much promise, even though there are the usual problems such as lack of depth at some positions, inexperience at others, lack of speed in the backfield and probably the toughest schedule ever to face a Clemson team.

Most of the "Top 20" selections failed to mention the Tigers this year, but all gave a note of caution that "Frank Howard's Tigers cannot be overlooked and could offer a few surprises."

Howard has been connected with eight bowl teams: one as a player at Alabama, one as assistant coach at Clemson and six as head coach of the Tigers. Two of his teams were undefeated, five have won conference championships and six of the last 13 squads have been in post season spectaculars. The Tigers, despite being underdogs in all seven bowl appearances, stand 4-3 in bowl competition.

In his entire coaching career Howard has won 121, lost 74 and tied 10. In eight years of ACC competition Howard has a 28-12-1 league mark and a leading overall record of 52-27-3.

The Century Club . . .

Nine coaches who are at major football institutions have now won 100 or more games in their careers. Jordan Olivar of Yale joined the "Century Club" last year while four new members are possible during the 1961 season. Andy Gustafson of Miami and Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse have 98 wins each, Woody Hayes of Ohio State has 97 and Rip Engle of Penn State has 96. Frank Howard of the Clemson Tigers ranks fourth in the nation with Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech for the most wins in a career. Listed below are the "Century Club" members.

The Wake Forest Series

Should today’s Clemson-Wake Forest game go along about the same lines as the previous 26, the Tigers will score three touchdowns and the Deacons will edge over a pair.

No other series in Clemson’s football history has been as exciting as this one with the North Carolina Baptists.

Clemson has averaged 17.5 points a game in 26 outings while Wake Forest has an average game output of 13.5.

The Tigers have held the upper hand for the past several years, but Clemson has never been able to rest for one play so close and exciting have the games been.

Who can forget the 7-7 tie going into the fourth quarter at Winston last year before an overflow mob of 22,000 with the Tigers pushing across three quickies in the last period?

Or those three straight games at Clemson in 1957-58-59 when the Tigers pulled all three out in the last couple of minutes in each game with some never-to-be-forgotten action?

This colorful series started back in 1933 when the present Atlantic Coast Conference commissioner, James H. Weaver, was head coach of the Deacons. The Tigers capped two of three from Weaver and then along came the colorful “Peahead” Walker in 1937 and Frank Howard took up Clemson’s end in 1940. Walker got the best of Howard in seven of 11 games between them, but in 1950, Walker’s last year, Clemson started a string of wins that has stretched today to 10 in a row against Coaches Walker, Tom Rogers, Paul Amen and Billy Hildebrand.

In the overall series Clemson leads with 18 wins as against eight losses while Howard’s personal record against the Deacons is 13-7. There has never been a tie between the two and Wake has shutout Clemson once while the Tigers have seven to show.

Hildebrand is now in his second year with the Deacons and enters today’s game with a 0-3 1961 record, having lost to ninth ranked Baylor (31-0), South Carolina (10-7) and 13th ranked Duke (23-3).

SHE: I'd heard about the famous filter, never knew Viceroy had the best taste, too.

HE: You get both! Viceroy's Deep-Weave® Filter and the rich tobacco blend!

Compare the filter: Only Viceroy has the Deep-Weave Filter. Viceroy's Deep-Weave Filter is woven from a vegetable substance that's pure, and safe!

Compare the blend: Only Viceroy has this rich tobacco blend, deep-cured the slow way to bring real taste to filter smoking!

SHE: Mmm, now I've really got it! Viceroy's Deep-Weave Filter and the best taste, too!

HE: You'll feel a big difference in pleasure... because Viceroy's got it at both ends. Got the filter! Got the blend!

Clemson House

In the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains, you'll find the Clemson House located in a unique setting — right on the campus of Clemson College. Here you will find all of the services of a great metropolitan hotel yet you will be far away from the noise of a large city. And you will enjoy the beautifully landscaped grounds and the flower beds. The splendid accommodations and the excellent cuisine offered at the Clemson House are combined with warm friendly hospitality and fine service. The Clemson House is a gem among fine hotels, and the rates are almost unbelievably low. All rooms are air-conditioned. Four dining rooms and the Tiger Lounge and Coffee Shop. There is swimming, fishing and golf nearby.

GUEST ARTISTS

FRANK A. PIERSOL
Guest Conductor

Frank A. Piersol has had a varied and brilliant career in the field of instrumental music education. He taught for fifteen years in public schools before accepting his present position of Director of Bands at the State University of Iowa. In his thirteen years at Iowa State, he has not only produced some of the nation's finest marching organizations, but has been a guest lecturer, adjudicator and clinician throughout the United States. Perhaps his greatest honor was achieved last winter, when he was elected to serve as president of the highly-respected College Band Directors National Association.

AARON SCHMIDT
Twirling Coordinator

Aaron Schmidt is no stranger to the Clemson campus. His famed women's precision drill team "The Governettes" have appeared in "Death Valley" and he was a member of the Clemson Marching Band Clinic staff in 1959. Dr. Schmidt's activities and honors are wide-spread, and embrace all areas of music education. He is an Associate Professor of Music at Austin Peay State College, in Clarksville, Tenn., where he serves as Director of Bands. In addition he is the current chairman of the Southern Division of the College Band Directors National Association.

MORGAN G. BRENNER
Color Guard Coordinator

Mr. Brenner returns to the Clemson College Campus again this year as coordinator of color guard activities for Band Day. In addition to his regular duties as instructor of the William Penn High School color guard in York, Pa., and director of the Pennsylvania state champion all-girl color guard "Les Guillotiniers", Mr. Brenner is an adjudicator in the All-American Association of Contest Judges, and is National Commissioner of Color Guards for the All-American Drum and Bugle Corps and Band Association.

On days when the elements aren’t too bad, Clemson’s football team enters Memorial Stadium down the east bank on the world’s largest college banner. The unique banner, presented to Clemson by Wunda Weve Carpet Co., of Greenville, weighs 527 pounds, is 104 feet long and 13 feet wide. The rug is exhibited at all Clemson home games and it followed the Tigers to the 1959 Sugar Bowl game.
1961 rule modification takes the "joker" out of the "wild card."

Last season, the Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association introduced the "Wild Card" substitution, which proved to be a big step in the liberalization of the substitution rule. Unfortunately, it also proved to be unfair at times.

In order that we may understand what has taken place, it may be well to review the substitution rule as it was written last year: Any player who starts a period, or one who enters during a period, may re-enter once during the same period. In other words, the same player can be in and out of the game twice during each period, or eight times during the game; the only restriction being that once he enters the game he cannot be withdrawn until at least one play has been run, and once he has been withdrawn from the game, he cannot return until at least one play has intervened.

In addition to the above, one substitute was permitted to enter the game at any time between downs regardless of previous entries, and his entry did not stop the game clock or interrupt the 25-second count. This lone substitute was known as the "Wild Card" and could be used freely and at will by his coach. However, here is where the rub came in. If other substitutes were subsequently sent in on the same play with the Wild Card, then he was charged with an entry; and if the Wild Card had already had two official charged entries in that period, he was in trouble. It would be bad enough to penalize him for a violation of the substitution rule which carries a 5-yard penalty, but this infraction comes under the heading of "Illegal Return," the penalty for which is 15 yards. And this hurts.

You will no doubt wonder how a coach could get himself into such a situation with full knowledge of the rules. The answer is very simple. The coach has a great deal to think of on the sideline during any closely contested game, and even the charged time outs against his various players are sometimes very difficult to record accurately. Now, to give you a concrete example, let's assume you are the coach and your team, Team A, is on the offense. You want to send in your best passer but he has already used his two allotted entries, so you avail yourself of the Wild Card rule and send him in as a single substitute. Before the next play has been run, Team B requests a time out which the referee grants. During the time out, the Team B coach sends in a number of substitutes to bolster his pass defense. Immediately, the coach of Team A decides to change his strategy, so he sends in a couple of fast backs. As soon as the official checks in these two additional substitutes from Team A, he realizes that the Wild Card substitute must also be recorded as no play has intervened since he came in. When he looks at his card for recording substitutions, he sees that the Wild Card has been charged with two previous entries; so he has no other alternative than to signal a foul and inflict a 15-yard penalty on this team for illegal return.

The Rules Committee has now corrected this situation by rewriting the rule to the effect that the first substitute of either team may re-enter the game at any time between downs, without being charged, regardless of previous entries.

The spirit that prompted the liberalization of the Wild Card substitution was to permit a coach to take out a player who had been temporarily shaken up, check his physical condition and return him if desirable, without being charged with one of his official time outs. This was a great step toward preventing injuries, and it also gave more players a chance to get into the game. Coaches have found that this gives them an excellent opportunity to relay information to their team between every play, and the Rules Committee has taken a dim view of this procedure and has expressed its disapproval rather concisely as follows: "The Rules Committee deprecates the use of substitutes to convey information to players on the field continuously on successive downs throughout the game."

LOCATED IN THE LOGGIA
IN THE HEART OF STUDENT ACTIVITY
1961-62 Basketball . . .

The hottest group of sophomores to join the varsity ranks in many moons steps forward this year for Coach Press Maravich’s sixth year as Clemson coach. Maravich believes this will be his best club so far, although an auto wreck back in May might rob him of his leading scorer of the past two seasons.

Choppy Patterson, who has made all-conference honors his first two years, suffered a dislocated pelvic bone in May and was in traction for eight weeks and stayed on crutches some six weeks more. His playing status was undetermined as of Sept. 1st, and if the senior guard is forced to stay out a year, the burden will fall even more on these sophomores.

Another 60-61 starter, Tommy Mahaffey, returns and his rebounding and scoring is expected to play big factors in the overall won-loss record.

Jim Brennan, Nick Milasnovich, Richard Hall, Donnie Mahaffey, Manning Privette, Woody Morgan and Gary Burnisky should give the Tigers some added bench which has been lacking of late. Also, there is good height among these sophomores. Brennan led the 17-2 frosh in scoring last season with a 26.3 mark, a new Clemson record for a freshman.

Maravich has lined up a tough 25-game schedule for his Tigers that includes home and home games with each of the seven other ACC schools as well as Florida State and Furman. Single games are scheduled with VMI, Citadel, Kent State, Marshall, Davidson and two games in the Poinsettia Classic in Greenville.

Clemson Football Network

The Clemson Football Network enters its eighth year of broadcasting Tiger gridiron contests this fall. The network has proved to be highly successful and is operated wholly by the Clemson Athletic Assn.

The network reached it zenith of coverage in 1960 by averaging 46.9 stations per game with outlets in Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina. This average represents a jump of more than 20 stations per game in the last five years. The fewest outlets broadcasting any one game last fall was 41 with the highest being 55 twice.

Jimmie Coggins and Ed Osborne will again handle the broadcasting on the network this fall. Coggins as the play-by-play commentator while Osborne gives interesting pre-game and post-game comments as well as handling halftime interviews with top personalities from the press box.

Coggins, who is the dean of South Carolina sports broadcasters, is owner of Station WKDK in Newberry and is co-owner with Osborne with Station WBCU in Union. They are co-owners of Station WAGS in Bishopville.

Coggins broke into radio 27 years ago with WSPA in Spartanburg. He also worked at WAIM in Anderson before going to Newberry in 1949. Prior to joining the network in 1954 he broadcast the Clemson games during the seasons of 1936-1937-38-47-48-49. In 1950-51-52 he did the “Game of the Week” on Station WIS, Columbia.

Osborne served as director of both the Clemson News bureau and the sports publicity office from 1947 through the spring of 1950. A Clemson graduate, he left his dual post and joined Station WMSC in Columbia as sales representative and sports director. Since early 1953, he has been manager of WBCU.

Osborne is immediate past president of the South Carolina Broadcasters Assn., and is now a member of the board while Coggins was singled out in 1960 by being voted the “Sports Announcer of the Year” in South Carolina.

Greatest CLEAN-UP TEAM in its field . . . that’s TEXIZE!

Try all these famous Texize household products and find out why they’ve won out in millions of homes. All will perform to your highest expectations.

The Texize secret? Modern chemistry plus bold imagination to make fine products better and better and better.

What Texize has done for the home, Texize has done for industry in general and the textile industry in particular. Indeed, Texize derives its name from its first products — textile sizings . . . a fact well known to Clemsonites who know the help given Clemson by Texize in behalf of the textile industry.

That contribution to Clemson and to textiles will continue to grow in the future as in the past.
