The Y. M. C. A. held its regular Sunday evening meeting November 6, 1910. The religious meeting committee had not been able to secure a speaker for the evening as the corps had been away to "The Fair" i.e. preceding week; so we had only a song and prayer service.

One of the best things that the Y. M. C. A. has done for the college and the boys, happened last week, when our general secretary got the president and the commandant of the college to make it a rule to have grace in the mess hall before each meal. This is a work that the Y. M. C. A. should have done long ago; for every boy needs to become accustomed to the habit of thanking God for His blessings before each meal. I believe by this one step the college and Y. M. C. A. will be blessed abundantly.

The meeting Sunday evening, November 13, 1910, was a very inspiring one. We had as our speaker Rev. M. B. Kelley, who spoke on the subject: "Ye Are My Friends, If Ye Do What I Have Commanded You." Rev. Kelley gave us a good talk, and we were very glad to have him with us.

PLAY TO A STANDSTILL.

Georgia, 0; Clemson, 0, was the result of the greatest football game ever played in Augusta. The fast aggregation of Clemson Tigers put a crimp in the University of Georgia team Thursday afternoon by playing them to a standstill on the gridiron at the Georgia-Carolina fair grounds. Georgia played by far the best ball, but Dobson's bunch were fast, and with trick plays and a wonderful defensive game, held the Georgians to a tie game. The odds were all in favor of Georgia, but football dope this year has gone all wrong.

Coach Dobson cannot be given too much credit for the showing made by his team. Three weeks ago he was trimmed by Mercer 3 to 0, and a week later Georgia trimmed Mercer 21 to 0, and Clemson turns and holds Georgia for a tie. Dobson is considered the best trick coach in the South and he has proved worthy of the name.
ratcher, an Augusta boy, "Bob" McWhorter, "Kid" Woodruff, Concklin and Maddox, were the stars for Georgia, while Bates, Connelly, Bissell and Hankel were stars for Clemson. The broken field running of McWhorter and Woodruff was great, both men coming through the entire Clemson team for large gains several times. Hatcher has been out of the game all season, until the game yesterday, with a broken shoulder, and he played a great game, getting through the line time after time, breaking up Clemson's plays. The defensive work of Maddox at tackle attracted considerable attention, and the tackling, and receiving of Concklin was above the average. The entire Georgia team played a steady game.

Connelly proved himself a heady field general, saving the game for Clemson two or three times by good head work. Bissell and Bates both did good work on end runs and line plunging. Capt. Hankel played a star game at end breaking up several of Georgia's plays, and doing good work on forward passes.

One of the prettiest features of the game was the clean playing on both sides, neither side being penalized for rough work. The men played hard, straight football and not even the slightest suggestion of rough play was noticed. Referee Butler made an excellent official, and his decisions were accepted without a murmur by both sides except when in the last few minutes of play. Georgia claimed the ball when he awarded it to Clemson. Georgia tried a forward pass from McWhorter to McClelland, McClelland failed to catch the ball, but hit his shoe, and bounded into a Clemson man's hands, who fumbled it, and the ball was recovered by Georgia. Georgia claimed that the ball did not touch the ground before Clemson got it, it was Georgia's ball, but Referee Butler did not see the Clemson man touch the ball, so awarded the ball to Clemson, where the play was started.

John W. Heisman, coach of Georgia Tech and president of the Atlanta Basebaah association, watched the game from the sidelines, taking copious notes. Tech will play Georgia Nov. 19th, and Clemson on Thanksgiving day.

The Game in Detail.

Georgia won the toss-up, chose the south goal and decided to receive. Bates kicked to Georgia's 20-yard line, Woodruff returning the ball 15 yards. Woodruff carried the ball around left end for a fifteen yard gain. Georgia failed to gain in two downs, and Woodruff punted to Clemson's 10-yard line, Concklin downing Bates in his tracks.

Coles went around Georgia's left end for 15 yards. Bissell went around right end for five yards, and Bates gained five yards on a plunge through center. Clemson gained 10 yards on line plunges, and Georgia was penalized five yards for being offside. Clemson made a forward pass, Bissell to Hankel, for 25 yards, Woodruff downing him on Georgia's 10-yard line. Hatcher was here substituted for Concklin on Georgia's left end. Clemson failed to gain and Georgia secured the ball on her 20-yard line. McWhorter failed to gain around end. Woodruff gained five yards on a run around the end.

McWhorter made seven yards over tackle. Georgia failed to gain, and the ball went to Clemson. Clemson failed to gain on first down, but made five yards on a forward pass, Coles to Woodward, Woodruff downing him in his tracks. Clemson lost the ball on downs, and Woodruff made 25 yards around left end. McWhorter made 15 yards around right end. Bowden made 10 yards through Clemson's line. McWhorter made five yards through tackle, and the ball was on Clemson's 10-yard line. This was one of Georgia's chances to win the game. It was first down, but Clemson braced up and held Georgia for downs, the ball going to Clemson on her 7-yard line.

THE CALHOUN.

Almost every member was ready to respond to his name when it was called Friday night, November 11.

The society, after electing Messrs. E. P. Josey, W. H. Privette, T. S. Evans, and — — Norris, decided to dispense with the regular exercises in order to hold an election of officers for the next three quarters.

The officers for the second quarter are: President, R W. Freeman; vice president, G. C. Fant; critic, W. W. Foster; recording secretary, J. R. Crawford; and corresponding secretary, G. W. Byars.

The president, vice president, and critic for the third quarter are respectively L. D. Boone J. A. Riley, and A. M. Salley; for the fourth quarter are respectively L. B. Altman, H. P. Cooper, and T. Crawford.

The election of secretaries for the third and fourth quarters was postponed.

Mr. Salley, in a very inspiring talk, urged the members of the society to write stories and essays for the "Chronicle." The Chronicle is published by the societies, and we of the Calhoun should write for it.

THE PALMETTO.

The eighth meeting of the Palmetto Literary Society was called to order last Friday night by the president, O. O. Dukes. This being the time for the election of officers for the second quarter, the regular exercises were dispensed with. Besides the officers for the approaching quarter, two presidents, one for the third quarter, and one for the fourth quarter, were elected. These, J. A. Goodwin and F. H. Jeter, were elected in the order named. The officers for the second quarter are as follows: W. M. Henderson, President; W. W. Mickle, Vice-president; C. B. Faris, Secretary; B. W. Getty's Literary Critic; G. H. Zerbst, Prosecuting Critic; E. P. Scule, A. H. Ward, T. F. Massey, Reporting Critics. Those placed on the various committees will be named later.

The society was peculiarly honored Friday night in having Prof. J. M. Burgess visit the society and make a talk. Every man enjoyed his talk most heartily. Besides inspiring within every man a new desire to do honest work in society, he made us realize somewhat, the feelings of interest a man has for the welfare of the society, in which he receives his training.

On Saturday, Nov. 12, the society assembled in front of the Memorial Hall, and had the picture made, which will go into the Annual. Besides the thirty or forty members present, we were pleased to have also two honorary members, Prof. J. M. Burgess, and Prof D. H. Henry.

THE COLUMBIAN.

The last meeting of the society was for the purpose of electing officers for the remainder of the session; and, also to select men for the annual celebration in chapel.

Before the work of election was taken up, Mr. Keith, the retiring president, made a short talk, in which he urged the men, in electing their officers, to be influenced by the amount of work each man had done for the society. The following was the result of the election:

Presidents: Second quarter, All, F. H.; Third quarter, Harrison, L. C.; and Fourth quarter, Wall, M. W.

Vice Presidents: Second quarter, Jenkins, Jno. E.; Third quarter, Wiggins, W. M.; and Fourth quarter, Stickley, J. P.

Literary Critics: Second quarter, Wall, M. W.; Third quarter, Keith, J. B.; and Fourth quarter, Harrison, L. C.

Prosecuting Critics: Second quarter, Jenkins, E. S.; Third quarter, Martin, J. M.; and Fourth quarter, Graham, O. H.

All of the above men are from the senior class. Other men elected for second quarter only are: Recording Secretary; Ezell, J. F.; reporting critics Barre, J. A., and Smith, J. G.; Corresponding Secretary, Petrie, W. C.; Serjeant at Arms, Clark, J. R.

Next, came the matter of electing men to represent the society in Chapel at the annual celebration, Jan. 19, 1911. For declaimers, there will be a preliminary held the first Friday night in December, from which the two best men are selected. Following men volunteered to enter the contest: Declaimers, Ken J. B., McCrary, O. P. Wom M. W., Jenkins, F. E., Wiggins, W. M., and Cannon, D. L. Orators: All, F. H., and Hayden, C. J.

Messrs. Harrison, L. C., and Jenkins, Jno. E., were elected as declaimers in the celebration.

EDITORIAL

The zero-zero game with the University of Georgia shows that we can play football.

Lookout Tech! Thanksgiving promises to be sad to you if Clemson only holds her own.

Boys, don't let the rooting stop. There are only a few more days before the critical game of the season must be played. Don't despair because we are going against a strong team. The Tigers are fast and can do good work; so get on the sidelines in the afternoons and keep up the spirit which was shown at the Fair game and a few since.

It has been the custom in the past years for the college to grant those Seniors so desiring permits to attend the Thanksgiving game in Atlanta. We hope that if this privilege is again offered, a large number of Seniors will take advantage of it. This is not only a very good trip, but to many of us, who will be called to distant parts of the world to follow our profession, it will undoubtedly be our last opportunity to see Clemson eleven battle on the gridiron.

In a recent editorial in the "Gamecock," we notice that Clemson is designated as a college of which a great many are from the backwoods, large brawny farmers, and men of great strength. Should statistics be taken at both Clemson and the University, the honorable "Gamecock" editor would undoubtedly find that within the classic walls of the Univeristy there is just as large a per cent. of countrymen as we have at Clemson. We wish to concede to the gentleman that we have men of physical stature and strength, and we are proud of the fact. Physiologist teach that to have a strong mind we must have strong bodies.

If the editor will kindly inform himself, he will find that Clemson did not "far outweigh" Carolina.

Carolina, we are friends, as sister institutions should be, but it is our purpose to impress upon you that we play classy football.

We have a coachy coach who coaches. So don't knock. Just console yourself by reflecting upon the fact that Clemson outclassed the University in football.

We notice that a Northern newspaper is knocking college bred men upon their efficiency, or, as it is stated, their inefficiency, as successful newspaper men. The solution may be that college bred men are not really inefficient, but are called to do a different kind of professional work from newspaper work.

However the solution should not worry us; but we as college men should see that we do become prepared to do efficient work in the world.

EXCHANGES

When we glance at the exchanges for the week we are impressed with the "Hustler," the Vanderbilt University periodical. The "Hustler" is the only semi-weekly publication noticed among our exchanges, and with the fact that it is published twice a week does not keep it from being well stocked with readable contributions, as one might naturally be led to think.

We are impressed with the loyalty of the alumni, who are planning for a big celebration at their alma-mater on Thanksgiving. We all should be more loyal to our school and visit it frequently as possible, and offer any help or suggestion that we may chance to know to help those who are still battling against the bonds of ignorance.

We also note with pleasure the newy articles on college life, such as the clubs and the athletic side of life. The Y. M. C. A. also has a good write up.

This week's issue of the "Gamecock," published by the students of the University of South Carolina, is exceptionally good. We find it stocked with newy sketches of the various college activities. The game between the University Eleven and the Clemson Tigers is well written indeed, though the game was lost to Clemson by a good score. We are informed that the Gamecocks were placed at a disadvantage by several of their good men not being able to play at all that day.

Dr. Mitchell's lecture on the "Foremost Figure of the French Revolution," is briefly but well outlined.

We also think that the literary training derived from the Dramatic Club will well be worth the time for those who have that talent. Such talent should be cultivated and developed, and no time is more suitable than while in college.

The exchanges as a whole this week were good indeed, and we only hope to receive more, so that the exchange department may grow to be one of the most important phases of our periodicals.

A CURE FOR LOVE.

Take twelve ounces of dislike, one pound of resolution, two grains of common sense, two ounces of experience, a large sprig of time, and three quarts of the cooling water of consideration. Set these words over the gentle fire of love, sweeten with the sugar of forgetfulness, skim it with a spoon of melancholy, and put it in the bottom of your heart. Cork it with the cork of clear conscience, let it remain, and you will quickly find ease and be restored to your senses.

These things can be had of the apothecary at the home of understanding, next door to reason, on prudence street, in the village of contentment.
CLASSES

SENIOR.

The “Fair” is over, and all the men have again settled down to work. We are all hoping that by the time another State Fair is held, we shall all be the happy possessors of our “sheepskins.”

Bissell, Brit, Connelly, Gilmer, Epps, Hankle, and Manager Arthur, all report a pleasant trip to the Georgia-Carolina Fair at Augusta, where the team played the University of Georgia eleven.

From the amount of mail received in barracks of late, Cupid was not idle during Fair week. The Senior members of the corps, especially, seem to get a great amount bearing the Columbia postmark.

We are informed that Captain M. H. Epps and Lieutenant Garrett love Liberty (or some that live there) as well as Patrick Henry loved liberty. At any rate, they sought that goal on last Saturday.

Mr. S. L. Britt spent last Friday, Saturday, and part of Sunday, at his home near McCormick, returning to college on Sunday.

Everyone is looking forward to the “Tech” game with much interest. It is to be hoped that many of our class will be able to go to Atlanta.

The photographer for 1911 “Taps” has been kept very busy for the past few days making the individual pictures for the seniors.

At a meeting of the Annual staff a few nights ago, J. A. Dew, O. T. Sanders F. H. All, and D. C. Beatty were elected to the staff.

Mr. J. S. Knox payed a flying visit to the little town of Central last Saturday. Evidently there is some attraction there for “Sam.” His intimate friends are beginning to fear lest we should lose him before the year is out.

JUNIOR.

The most enjoyable dance of the season was given by the Junior Dancing Club on last Saturday night. A good number were present, and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The following couples were present: Mr. Prosser with Miss McPhail, Mr. Redfern with Miss Sloan, Mr. Evans with Miss Doyle, Mr. Lazar with Miss Brackett Mr. David with Miss Garner, Mr. H. A. Adams with Miss Porcher, Mr. H. W. Anderson with Miss Stirling, Mr. Becker with Miss Brown, Mr. Bedell with Miss Calhoun, Mr. Hall with Mrs. Hall.

Stags.

Chaperons:

Mrs. Brackett, Prof. and Mrs. Riggs, Dr. and Mrs. Redfern, Capt. Stokes, Prof. and Mrs. Barre.

At a class meeting held last week Mr. O. F. McCrary was elected secretary and treasurer to succeed Mr. Altman who has been honorably discharged. The officers now are as follows: President, J. F. Ezelle; vice-president, F. L. Ross; secretary and treasurer, O. F. McCrary; Poet, C. B. Paris, historian, G. J.

THE TECH GAME.

The most interesting topic among the boys now is “What are we going to do for Tech this year?” As the matter stands now, things look much more favorable than they did at the beginning of the season. The team is about one hundred per cent. better than it was at the time of the Mercer game, as is shown by the game they played against Auburn, the Carolina game and that game against the strong University of Georgia eleven.

While our prospects are much better still we are going to have a hard game next Thursday and the dope is that it Tech beats us it won’t be over a couple of touchdowns. The team has been in rigid training for the past week and the men have been working hard. Tech may have a mighty big team and a mighty good team, but they have got to do a hard day’s work for that Thanksgiving game. Back the team, fellows, because it is a good one and in it lies our hope of laying Georgia Tech in the dust. If they don’t it won’t be their fault, because they are going to work for it. It won’t be Coach Dobson’s fault, for we all know that he is the best ever. It will simply be because Tech has a better team than ours and when we play them who ever wins has got to be a “goodun.”

Coles made 15 yards around right end, being stopped by Hatcher, who made a beautiful tackle. Bissell made 12 yards on an end run. Clemson failed to gain on the next down and punted to Georgia's 15-yard line, Woodruff returning the ball 20 yards.

McWhorter gained 20 yards around left end. Hay made 5 yards through tackle. Georgia failed to gain and Hay punted 20 yards. McClelland was here substituted for Bowden at full back, Bowden going to end, Griffith being taken out of the game. Clemson tried an end run, but quick work and a good tackle by Hatcher prevented any gain. Time was called with the ball on Clemson's 22-yard line and in her possession.

Bates made a pretty run around left end for 25 yards, being tackled by Woodruff. Bissell gained seven yards around right end. Clemson failed to gain and punted. The ball did not go 20 yards and Georgia claimed it, but it was awarded to Clemson by Referee Butler after considerable squabble. Clemson gained 10 yards on a forward pass, but lost 5 yards on an attempted end run in the next play, Hatcher throwing Coles back for the loss.

Georgia secured the ball on downs, and McWhorter made an end run for 10 yards. Woodruff made two yards through tackle. McWhorter plowed through the line for 10 yards. McClelland gained five yards through center. Georgia failed to gain 10 yards in downs and the ball went to Clemson. Clemson made 10 yards on a forward pass, and Georgia was penalized five yards for being off side. York here replaced Peacock at guard for Georgia.

Clemson failed to gain, the ball going over. McWhorter made five yards around left end and on the next play Woodruff gained the same distance around right end. McClelland went for seven yards over tackle, and on the next play gained three yards through center. Woodruff made a pretty end run for 20 yards. Georgia lost the ball on an attempted forward pass.

Clemson attempted an end run, but McClelland tackled, causing a 10-yard loss. It was third and twenty yards to go so Clemson punted. Georgia failed to gain, and was penalized 15 yards for holding. McClelland punted 45 yards, Woodruff downing Lachicote in his track. On the next play Bissell's head was cut open, and time was called until it could be bandaged. Clemson punted 30 yards, Woodruff returning the ball 10 yards. Georgia failed to gain and time was called with the ball in the center of the field.

Second Half.

Clemson kicked to Georgia's five yard line, Woodruff making the prettiest run of the game for 50 yards, returning the ball to the center of the gridiron. Georgia fumbled but recovered the ball, and Woodruff went around right end for a five-yard gain. Hay punted 50 yards. Clemson made a beautiful forward pass, gaining 25 yards, and carrying the ball out of the danger zone. Clemson failed to gain through the line, and punted. Georgia failed to gain and lost the ball on a fumble. Clemson lost the ball on the first down on a fumble, and Georgia failed to gain. McClelland punting 40 yards. Clemson gained 15 yards around left end, running beautiful interference. Bates tried to come through tackle but was thrown by Maddox for a five yard loss. Clemson made seven yards on a forward pass, and failed to gain on the next down, punting 20 yards.

McClelland made five yards over tackle, and McWhorter came around end for a similar gain. Woodruff made an end run for 25 yards. Georgia made seven yards on a forward pass, McWhorter to Woodruff. Bowden made nine yards around right end...
end. Georgia failed to gain on third down, and the ball went to Clemson.

Clemson punted and Georgia brought the ball to her 35-yard line. McWhorter made five yards around end. Woodruff gained five yards on an end run. Georgia tried a forward pass, McWhorter to Woodruff, but it failed, the ball going to Clemson. Bates punted, but the kick was blocked by Corvington, who recovered the ball on Clemson's three-yard line. Georgia gained one yard on the first down, when time was called.

Fourth Quarter.

Georgia had the ball on Clemson's two-yard line, and second down. McWhorter made two efforts to gain around end, but was knocked back for a loss and the ball went to Clemson on her three-yard line. This was Georgia's chance to score, and the Georgia supporters lost heart when they failed to make the touchdown. Bates punted 45 yards, but Clemson was penalized five yards for tackling out of bounds. Georgia failed to gain, and lost the ball on an attempted forward pass. Clemson failed to gain, punted 25 yards and recovered the ball on Georgia's fumble. Clemson lost five yards on an attempted end run, Hay getting through the interference throwing Coles for the loss. Clemson punted, the ball going over Georgia's goal line. Woodruff returned it to the field. Georgia punted and Clemson lost the ball on an attempted forward pass. Clemson gained five yards through tackle. Georgia tried a place kick from the 35-yard line, McLelland kicking. The ball passed outside the posts by about a foot. Clemson failed to gain and punted.

The ball was carried back and forth on the field, in the possession of first one team and then the other, and time was called with the ball on Clemson's 35-yard line.

Clemson used the forward pass during the game with signal success, while Georgia attempted several, failing on all except one. Clemson has a quick, fast team, but it was impossible for them to gain through Georgia's solid line. Georgia outplayed the Carolinians, but the Tiger's wonderful defensive work saved the game for them.
