Junior Hop

One of the prettiest cotillions of the year was given by the Junior Dancing Club on Friday evening, January 27. The hall was tastefully and artistically decorated—the color scheme being red and white. The windows and walls were a network of interlaced streamers and pot plants draped in Spanish moss were placed in each window. The orchestra stand was covered with Spanish moss, and decorated with red and white streamers. The columns in the center of the hall were covered.

Creatore’s Big Band

Coming February 9

Famous Conductor to Give Concert in Chapel at 3:45 P. M.

"When Creatore comes here he will bring one of the largest bands ever heard here, a band of fifty musicians, all natives of Italy, among whom are some of the noted soloists in the world."

—State.

"Probably no other band master in America stands more in the limelight to-day than Signor Tinseppe Creatore. He pursues his own methods in his own way. He undertakes such work as no other conductor would dare to attempt. He stands unique. His band is up to the highest standard, full of richness, color and power, while the ensemble is remarkable for expressiveness and point. In his conducting, Signor Creatore is spectacular to the last degree, but not intentionally so. He forgets everything in the music, and almost magic effects are produced. Armed with his slender baton, his hair waving wildly, his figure swaying to the music, he pleads with his men, he threatens them, he argues, he pushes them, he prays to them, and finally with arms outstretched, soars with them to empyrean heights. Invariably he leaves his audience breathless at the climax, and the thundering applause which he inevitably wins comes only after people have had time to gasp and draw their breath.”—Georgian.

DOUBLE HEADER.

The class football games began Saturday—the Juniors playing the Sophomores and the Freshmen being lined up against the Preps. The games were good and many players showed up well. From the individual playing the prospects looked bright for good material out for the Varsity next year. Below is a summary of the games by quarters:

Preps, vs. Fresh.—First quarter. During this quarter the Preps. kept possession of the ball most of the time but could not gain much over the Freshmen. The quarter ended with the Freshies strengthening, and holding the ball in the Preps. territory.

Second quarter: Freshmen started off in a rush, making a touchdown from the 40 yard line in two downs. Soon the Preps. got down to work, though, and, by a series of good plays and fumbles on the part of their antagonists, made a touchdown. Neither goal was kicked. Score, 5 to 5.

Third quarter: The Freshmen got mean in this quarter and they put the ball over for a couple of touchdowns. Witherspoon, for the Preps., made several fast tackles, and all the Preps. played a stiff game. One goal was kicked: P. 16 to P. 5.

Fourth quarter: Everything belonged to the Freshmen this quarter and they ended the game by making two more touchdowns. Failed to kick goals making the final score—Freshmen 28, Preps. 5.

Junior-Sophomore—First quarter: Exciting from start to finish. Juniors had a little advantage, carrying the ball to within 5 yards of the goal twice. The Sophs held them though and quickly carried the ball out of danger.

Second quarter: In this quarter the Juniors made a touchdown in a few minutes play. The ball was then kept in the middle of the field for a few minutes, when the Juniors carried the ball over for another touchdown. One goal was kicked, making the score 11 to 0 in favor of the Juniors.

Third quarter: The Juniors had a decided advantage in this quarter but failed to score. Fast playing on both sides.

Fourth quarter: The Juniors had their own way this time also carrying the ball over for another touchdown and kicking goal. The game was good from start to finish and was hard fought. Final score—Juniors 17; Sophomores 0.

Among those who showed up especially well were Lumpkin and Witherspoon for Preps., James, Lewis, Melver and Cauvghman for Freshmen. For Sophs, Barnwell, Williford and Alexander. Juniors, W. Perry, Bell, Bacot and T. Perry.

Y. M. C. A.

The religious meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last Sunday evening at 7:30 o’clock; and there was a very large crowd out at this meeting. We were exceedingly fortunate to have as the speaker of the evening Rev. N. G. Ballinger, of McCormick, South Carolina. He spoke on the follow-
The subject: “The Making or Unmaking of Man.” In his discourse, he emphasized the following points: (1) that a man, in order to make a man, must understand something of himself; (2) that true manhood is the result of the right ideal; (3) that a man must be responsible; (4) that a man must be reliable; (5) that a man must have resolutions; (6) that a man must have stability; (7) that a man must be obedient to a universal law; and (8) that a man must have pure thoughts.

We are glad to know that the boys are taking a great deal more interest in the morning watch than usual, and we sincerely hope that they will keep it up. Fellows, you are all cordially invited to attend this service, which is held in the Y. M. C. A. room every morning just after breakfast.

Every year, and almost continuously throughout the year, the enemies of Clemson College are busy faking up something to attack the college about; but thanks to the deep thinking majority of the legislature of South Carolina in their solid stand for the best interest of the college, our enemies have not prevailed. The question naturally arises whether these attacks impair the efficiency of the college. No, these attacks simply make a false impression upon a large number of our citizens, but this does not impair the efficiency of the work at the college. Her young men, in spite of all attacks, take a stand in the world equally as high in the importance of their positions as the graduates of the more laudable or pet State institutions of these enemies of our college.

SOCIAL ITEMS.

Misses Mamie Morse and Fannie Harris of Abbeville, South Carolina, are the guests of Mrs. M. E. Bradley.

Mrs. Goldsmith of New York is visiting Mrs. C. M. Furman.

Miss Lucille Sloan of Anderson has returned to her home after spending several days with Misses Nela and Janey Sloan.

Miss Vina Patrick of Anderson, spent Friday night with Mrs. Brackett, and Saturday night with Mrs. Winslow Sloan.

Miss Margaret Morrison is spending a short time at home.

Mr. Robt. L. Sweeney, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., left on Wednesday for Raleigh, N. C., to attend the Y. M. C. A. conference there.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. M. E. Bradley gave a most attractive Euchre party in honor of her guests, Misses Harris and Morse. Mr. B. Freeman, having won the highest score among the gentlemen, received a very pretty deck of cards. The highest score among the ladies was made by Miss Helen Brackett, who was given a beautiful Clemson hat pin. Those who were fortunate enough to enjoy this evening at Mrs. Bradley's were: Misses Lena Hardin, Sara Furman, Helen Brackett and Mr. Freeman; Messrs. H. C. Thompson, T. E. Keith, J. E. Toomer, J. F. Allison, M. Birch, Joe Hunter, C. Van W. Cornell, G. F. Lipscombe, D. H. Henry, C. W. Rice, B. Freeman, and Crampton.

NOTE OF THANKS.

THE CALHOUN.

Friday night, Jan. 27, being the last meeting for the second quarter, the new officers were installed. Before retiring, Mr. Freeman thanked the society for the honor bestowed upon him and urged the members to continue to hold the Calhoun up to the proper standard. Mr. Boone, the new president, in a few well chosen words, told the society how much he appreciated being one of its Presidents.

The following is a list of the officers and committees for the third quarter:

The declamation of Mr. C. S. Lykes was well received. In an extemporaneous speech, Mr. Foster touched a live wire with most of the Seniors, viz: securing a position after graduation. It was decided to insert a brief history of the society in the Annual. Mr. Foster was selected to procure the necessary information.

THE PALMETTO.

The exercises were opened by the debate, the query being, Resolved, That an income tax is a desirable part of a scheme of taxation. The affirmative was defended by Messrs. A. J. Brown, J. N. Stribling, and B. G. Field, while the negative was represented by Messrs. W. C. Garrett, W. M. Hunter, and W. W. Mickle. Much spirit was shown and many good points were brought out by both sides. The judges, Messrs. Henderson, Williams, and Lawton, rendered their decision in favor of the affirmative.

The society was disappointed by the absence of Mr. W. E. Stokes, the first orator, but the members listened with much pleasure to Mr. B. W. Getty's fine oration. Mr. C. J. King gave the society an interesting declamation and Mr. C. B. Faris read an essay which was up to his usual high standard.

It was the society's pleasure to have present Mr. Freeman of the Calhoun Society who brought up the matter of the society's history being put in the Annual, and suggested that two men be elected by the society to write its history. Mr. Freeman's suggestion was carried out, and Messrs. F. H. Jeter and C. B. Faris were selected for the work.

The President added to the committee on society hall improvements Mr. F. H. Jeter.

The Society gladly welcomed back into its membership Mr. W. G. McLeod, an old member who had got an honorable discharge last year. Mr. C. R. Gilliam was granted leave of absence until the fourth quarter.

THE COLUMBIAN.

At the last meeting of the Columbian Society, the following members were elected as officers for the third quarter:

President: L. C. Harrison.
Vice President: W. M. Wiggins.
Literary Critic: J. B. Keith.
Prosecuting Critic: J. M. Martin.
Recording Secretary, R. M. Jeter.
Corresponding Secretary: H. A. Adams.

The president, on assuming the chair, spoke briefly:

"I am deeply grateful to you, my friends, for bestowing such an honor upon me. Unfortunately, I have been preceded by two of the best men in college; but I hope to make this society one where duty abides and must be well done.

"The sacrifices that are being made for us at home must be repaid; therefore, let me urge every one of you to take an active part in all the duties of college life, and ever be a true son of Carolina by grasping your opportunities.

"Our numbers are small; but have it said that we are made of stern stuff, and that the year 1911 must not pass us by until the Columbian Literary Society has been placed upon the topmost round. Then, from this vantage ground, launching out into the sea of life, let us paint in baby blue and orange, the words, "Labor Omnia Vincit."

"I sincerely hope that every man here tonight will ever prove a loyal member to this society. Go forth to the task, whether it be great or small. The future lies before us; make it what we shall; but remember:

"The tissue of the Life to be,
We weave in colors all our own,
And in the held of Destiny,
We reap what we have sown."

The regular exercises were then taken up. Mr. R. M. Jeter gave a good declamation, entitled: "Satan and the Grog Seller." After a review of current events by Mr. R. P. Ulmer, the debate was called for.

Messrs. Jenkins, Jno. B., McCrary, and Provost maintained that the United States should fortify the Panama Canal; while Messrs. Cannon, Green, and Risher opposed such an idea. The judges and the house decided in favor of the affirmative. In irregular debate, Messrs. Wall, Stickley, Stevens, Byrd and Ezell brought out some good points.

We were glad to have Mr. B. H. Deason, of the Calhoun So-

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION METS.

On Tuesday night a meeting of the Athletic Association was held in the chapel. About three hundred were present. The following business was transacted:

1. Prof. W. M. Riggs was re-elected president; J. B. Douthit was elected vice-president and Prof. J. W. Gantt was re-elected secretary and treasurer.
2. J. B. Keith was elected manager of the baseball team. Harry Hutson, O. B. Brodie and H. S. Kenney were nominated for assistant baseball managers.
3. H. F. Rivers was elected manager of the football team.
4. M. S. Lawton and E. T. Prevost were nominated as assistants.
5. M. H. Epps and W. C. Garrett were nominated managers of track teams, and Ezell, Barnwell, Kangeter, and Prevost nominated assistants.
6. After these elections, Coach Dobson made a short talk on the class football games, complimenting the spirit of the players and of those on the side lines. The coach's talks are always to the point and always appreciated.

JOKES.

Prof. Massey (to Senior Graham in bacteriological laboratory): "Now the next step you take is to isolate the bacteria."
Sr. Graham: "How do you do this Professor? Pack them in ice?"

Prof. Hall: "Mr. Boone, what can you say of Hippocrates' theory of disease?"
Sr. Boone: "He was the god of medicine."

Senior Rast (reading report on bulletin): "Three plots were planted in cotton, velvet beans, and cowpeas respectfully."
