The special order, Mr. Chambers' resolution that hereafter no student be given a re-examination was considered.
Mr. Daniel moved as a substitute
Resolved: 1st. That no student who has failed one term examination shall have a right to a reexamination.

Second. That no student who has failed on a subject shall be granted a reexamination unless he has a class mark of 60 in that subject.

Upon Mr. Briggs' motion the 2nd paragraph was amended by adding "provided he makes at least 40% on the term examination."

Upon Mr. Bryant's motion a third paragraph was added, "that only one reexamination be allowed."

Mr. Briggs moved to amend by substituting "term examination" for subject, which was carried.

Upon motion of Mr. Daniel, "except by permission of faculty," was added to first paragraph and "be granted" was omitted.

The motion as amended reads:

DANIEL RESOLUTION:

On re-examination as amended,

Resolved 1st. That no student who has failed on more than one term examination shall be granted a re-examination except by permission of the faculty.

Second. That no student who has failed on a term examination shall be granted a re-examination unless he has a class mark of 60 per cent. in the subject and makes at least 40 per cent. on the term examination.

Third. That only one re-examination be given."
