The Baseball Trip

The Tigers left last Tuesday, April 25th, for a series of six games on the road. Only two of these games were lost and the other four were decisive victories. The two games lost were to Trinity at Sumter. The trip was as follows: Wofford at Spartanburg Wednesday, Clemson 8, Wofford 5. From there to Sumter for a double-header with Trinity, Clemson 0, Trinity 7, 1st game; Clemson 5, Trinity 9, 2nd game. The boys had only four hours sleep the night before and weren't in the best condition, while

Clemson Wins Track Meet. Downs Tech 66 to 42

At the track meet in Atlanta on Monday, Clemson won over Tech by 24 points, although the team was crippled by the loss of Garrett. Stevens, for Clemson, did remarkable work in spite of his bad ankle. Alex Lewis won the mile by a sensational sprint, lowering the college record one second. Ezell also established a new college record in the hammer throw. Below are the events:

100 Yard Dash—1, Epps (C); 2, Hill (T); Stevens (C).

Time, 10 flat.

Pole Vault—Stevens and Furtick (C) tied 1st and 2nd; Adkins (T). 10 feet.

220 Yard Dash—Hill (T); Epps (C); Logan (T). Time, 24 1-5 sec.

Hammer Throw—Ezell (C); Patterson (T); Britt (C). 117 feet 2 inches.

High Jump—Stevens and Furtick (C) 1st and 2nd; Goree (T), 3rd. 5 ft. 3 in.

Mile—Lewis (C); Ward (C); Jones (T). Time, 4 minutes 53 4-5 seconds.

Shot Put—Britt (C); Ezell (C); Patterson (T). Distance, 36 ft. 2 in.

High Hurdles—Stevens (C); McRae (T) Provost (C). Time, 16 3-5 sec.

Low Hurdles—Harvin (T); Furtick (C); Provost (C). Time, 27 4-5 sec.

One-Half Mile—Barney (T); Lewis (C); Monsalvatge (T). Time, 2 min. 10 sec.

Broad Jump—McRae (T); Woodward (T); Stevens (C). Distance, 19 ft. 9 1/4 in.

440 Yard Dash—Epps (C); Harvin (T); Logan (T). Time, 56 sec.

This was the first meet of the season for the Tigers; and, considering all the hard luck which the team has had, they made a fine showing. Garrett is improving fast, and hopes to be in the S. I. A. A.

Secretary Robt. L. Sweeney delivered an excellent address to the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. In his address he set forth the necessity of having faith in anything that we undertake. He said that works without faith were worthless; and this is a very true statement, as no one can accomplish any great thing in life without he has faith in the thing that he is trying to accomplish. He pointed out as examples of those who had accomplished great things by faith, Gideon, Elijah, and Washington. This address was enjoyed very much by all who attended the services.

We were very glad to have with us a number of visitors at our last Sunday evening meeting; and we extend to them and to all the folks in the college community a cordial welcome to attend any of our religious services.

The regular Sunday evening Bible classes have been suspended for the remainder of this term, in order to have in their place a Teachers' Normal Training class to train boys for Bible class leaders for next year. The first regular meeting of this class will be held next Sunday evening, and we invite every boy in college to attend, especially those interested in Bible study.

There will be played on the college campus by the Coburn Players, who are out-door players, Shakespeare's famous play, "As You Like It," on May 11. It will be under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Boys, this is a rare opportunity for us all and let us all take advantage of it.

Although several of the men on duty were absent, the exercises were splendidly carried out at our last meeting. The orator and the essayist were absent, but Messrs. Harvey, H. W., and Foster, W. W., amply made up for this deficiency in the exercises by giving us respectively an inspiring declamation and a humorous reading.

Mr. Lazar, J. T., volunteered to assist in the debate. And he and Mr. Lathrop, F. H., convinced both house and judges that the governor should not have the right to pardon. Messrs. Kilgo, P. R., and Ferebee, L. L., represented the negative, and although they brought out some very strong arguments, yet they lost the issue.

The society was very fortunate in having several visitors from our sister colleges with us. Mr. Hucks, of Wofford, and Messrs. Keefer and Gunter, of Newberry, gave us short talks complimenting us on the excellent work that we are doing.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE COLLEGE PRESS ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

The College Press Association of South Carolina met here on Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22, with about thirty-five delegates present. The first meeting, Thursday morning, was opened by a joint address of welcome by Col. M. B. Hardin and Prof. J. N. Harper. Prof. Daniels followed this with an interesting address on "The Ideal Press," after which Mr. A. N. Kieppler gave a sketch of the history of the College Press Association. Miss Marie Davis, of Columbia College, read a splendid paper on "How to Criticize the Exchanges."

At the Friday morning session, "The Relation of the College Journal to Athletics" was discussed by Dr. F. H. H. Calhoun. Prof. A. B. Bryan gave a very helpful talk on "College Fiction." Mr. A. M. Salley made a very interesting talk on "The Magazine of the Technical College," and Mr. T. M. Ross, of the University, discussed the "Educational Feature of the College Journal."

At the afternoon session Prof. Furman addressed the meeting, emphasizing the importance of journalism. Such vital topics as "The Management of the Literary Department," "Methods of Obtaining Contributions," and "The College Magazine" were ably handled by Miss Yeadon, Mr. E. A. Fuller, and Mr. J. D. Guess.

The reading of the prize articles had to be omitted because of the delayed decision of the judges. The reports of the officers and of the committees, and the final reading and adoption of amendments to the constitution concluded the convention.

The annual banquet, which was held at the College Club, was a very enjoyable part of the convention. The dining room was tastefully decorated with the colors and pennants of the various colleges. Prof. D. W. Daniels was toastmaster, and many of the guests responded to appropriate toasts.

The delegates from the boys' colleges were entertained in barracks, while the girls were guests of members of the faculty. "The Chronicle" staff enjoyed its share in the entertaining of the guests. It is hoped that the visitors got as much pleasure out of the convention as did we.

The College Press Association will meet at Wofford next year.

THE COBURN PLAYERS.

An interesting social and dramatic event will be the performance of "As You Like it" on the Clemson College grounds May 11th when the Coburn Players will be seen under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. This play is especially adapted to out of door performance and the sylvan atmosphere is never caught so well as when the trees are real and the green grass is really grass, and when any draft that one may feel is a breeze from the trees and not from the painted area of a playhouse.

The players are an organization composed of some of the most skilled Shakespearean actors in the country and their out of door performances have won them high praise throughout the colleges and universities where they appear yearly. Very quietly, without any theatrical ostentation, the Coburn Players six years ago banded together to restore in these modern days of humbug and delusion the spirit of Shakespeare's time when there were no stars, no press agents and no mechanical effects to detract from the real poetic purpose of the play. The organization has developed from the influence of two very important factors in dramatic history. Mr. Coburn discovering in his career as actor that the theatre as an art and the theatre as a profession were too far removed from each other to mutually succeed by companionship conceived the plan of reviving performances that should have in them the character of Shakespeare's time, when the players with rare modesty of talent were content to obey the poet dramatist by conveying incognito a poet's fancy. Mr. Coburn's sympathy with the true interest of the player has enabled him to gather together a little company of men and women who have not lost their faith in the art they have chosen.

The work of these players has reached the attention and interest of men and women in America who are concerned primarily with the refinement of the theatre and now the Coburn Players are engaged yearly by the leading universities and colleges of the country because they are reviving the youth and joy of the theatre when poetic drama was young.

CLASSES

* * * * *
* SENIOR. *

The past week has been one of unusual activity with the corps of cadets and especially with the Senior members. In fact, as the number of days of our college career become fewer and fewer, an ever increasing number of calls is made upon our time, till, it seems, we are kept on the "go" all the time.

It was the good fortune of Clemson College to have the Sixth Annual Convention of the State College Press Association to meet within its walls during the latter part of last week, Mr. Frank H. Jeter, as editor-in-chief of the Chronicle and president of the Association, presiding. The members of the Chronicle staff, Messrs. Jeter, Salley, Williams, Henderson, All, Sitton, Boone, and Deason, were excused from classes in order to attend every meeting, and aid in entertaining the visitors. At the annual banquet, given at the Clemson Club, Mr. W. N. Henderson responded very eloquently to the toast, "Our Guests." On Friday, Mr. A. M. Salley read a very interesting paper on the Technical College Magazine, in which he gave our visitors a clear, concise outline of conditions as they exist in technical colleges in general and in particular at Clemson. Messrs. Salley, Williams, and Mr. Kangeter, of the Sophomore class, were the committee on entertainment.

The formal and informal german dances of last week were much enjoyed by a number of our members. The color scheme of white and old gold was carried out to perfection, and gave a very pleasing effect.

We wish to take this means to extend to the faculty and people of the "Hill" our deepest gratitude for their kindness in entertaining our friends whenever they visit the college.

Mr. J. W. Harrison spent the week end at his home in Walhalla last week.

Messrs. Chapman, Altman, and Knight paid a flying trip to Liberty last Friday.

The Seniors' rings have arrived at last.

Messrs. Epps, Britt, Jeter, Stevens and Furtick were among those who went to Atlanta on the track team and contributed their share to the overwhelming defeat of Tech.

* * * * *
* JUNIOR. *

An all-star baseball team has been picked from the members of the three agricultural teams, and the men on this team are practicing daily. A game will soon be played between this agricultural team and a team selected from the mechanical members of the class.

Messrs. J. F. Ezell and J. H. Gage made the trip to Atlanta with the track team the first of last week. Ezell won first place in the hammer throw in the Clemson-Tech meet on Monday afternoon.

Mr. A. K. Goldfinch spent last Saturday in Seneca, where he went to have some dental work done.

Mr. M. L. Hamer has been at his home in Bennettsville for several days, where he was called on account of the illness of his mother. His many friends hope that his mother's health will permit him to return to college soon.

Messrs. H. F. Rivers, J. A. Bates and H. M. Hutson accompanied the baseball team on the Spartanburg, Sumter and Charleston trip last week. Messrs. Rivers and Bates played the game, while Hutson went as assistant manager.

The members of the 1912 "Taps" staff have started work on the annual for next year. Much work must be done to bring the volume up to the standard that has been set for it, and only by starting now can all the work be done. The staff expects to make this volume one of the best that can be got out.

SUCCESS OF THE "LYRIC" ASSURED.

"A Trip to the Moon," "The Texas Ted's Defense," "The Station Agents Daughter," "The Childhood of Jack Harkaway," and "The Empty Cartridge" have given the "Lyric" a reputation rarely enjoyed by moving picture theatres.

The staff of the "Taps" '11 is proud indeed of the success which this project has attained already, and is happy in feeling that to a great extent the loud demand at Clemson for some sort of pastime and amusement has been answered. The pictures run each time are the highest class of pictures that can be obtained, and are consequently proving to be both instructive and amusing. It is the purpose of the staff to continue these throughout the remainder of the session—putting on new films each week.

THE EASTER GERMAN.

On last Friday evening, one of the most elaborate dances ever given at Clemson was given by the German Club. About 9 o'clock the couples assembled in the hall and enjoyed general dancing until the grand march was formed. As the long line of about forty-five couples circled the hall, everyone seemed to be in a mood for merry-making. After the grand march four German figures were gracefully led by Cadet Wilson Arthur with Miss Myra Young of Union.

At 11:30 the merry throng gathered on the top floor of the Agricultural Hall, where they were served with a delicious four course luncheon, after which the dance continued until two o'clock.

The hall was tastefully decorated with large arches, from which festoons of old gold and white crepe paper hung in an array of decorative splendor never before equalled in this hall.

Trinity with Bob Gantt in the box were in good shape. From Sumter the Tigers journeyed to Charleston and there took a game Friday from the College of Charleston, 6 to 1, and another Saturday from the Citadel 3 to 0. Then back to Greenville Monday to meet the Baptists. This looked like a lost game but with Furman two runs in the lead the Tigers still scrapped on and when the dust blew away from the hitting and base-running in the ninth the Tigers were leading 6 to 4. The trip was much enjoyed and was in every way successful.

REPRESENTATIVES PAY VISIT TO CLEMSON.

At the invitation of the Board of Trustees and of President Riggs, the "ways and means" committee of the House of Representatives visited the college last week.

While here this committee was shown every courtesy possible and were given every opportunity to see more into the workings of the college. A majority of the committee took advantage of the invitation and were on the campus for several days.

At chapel, Tuesday morning, Mr. Browning, of Union, chairman of that committee, addressed the student body on the work of the college. He spoke very forcefully of the opportunities now open before such a body of men as Clemson was turning out and urged us to realize the situation and grasp the opportunities as they presented themselves.
