The Hispanic & Latino Heritage Month celebration was created with a desire to educate and heighten awareness of a rich culture. This year’s celebration, which will take place from September 15th - October 15th and will center on the theme ‘Ayer, Hoy, y Mañana,’ will give insight into the lives of Hispanics and Latinos at Clemson and beyond.

Interested in more than just books?

Kick-Off Event: Friday, Sept. 16th, 5pm, Library Bridge
Begin exploring Hispanic & Latino culture through a fusion of food, entertainment and fellowship.

Café con Leche: Tuesday, Oct. 11th, 6:30pm, Union Palmetto Ballroom
DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) students share personal stories of success and struggles in the journey to obtain education as an undocumented individual.

Keynote Speaker, Victor B. Sáenz: Thursday, Sept. 29th, 7pm, Hendrix Ballrooms
Dr. Sáenz founded an award-winning initiative called Project MALES (Mentoring to Achieve Latino Educational Success)

Noche de Gala: Saturday, Oct. 23rd, 7pm, Madren Center Grand Ballroom
End the month-long celebration with live entertainment, authentic food, and a fundraiser to support DACA.

A display of fiction and non-fiction books on Hispanic and Latino culture is currently located on top of the New Books shelving on the 4th floor of Cooper Library. In addition to a book or two, check out the variety of events taking place around and off campus in celebration of Hispanic and Latino heritage.
