Speaker for Rock Hill Contest Chosen

The preliminary contest to select the representative at the State Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Association, which is to be held at Rock Hill this year, was held on Saturday evening. Six men, two from each of the three societies, took part in this contest, and each of them did credit to his society and to himself. The speakers and their subjects were as follows:

F. W. Risher.—"The Coming Era of Peace."
H. C. Jennings.—"The Knights of the Twentieth Century."
D. B. Hill.—"The Needs of a Nation."
J. F. Ezell.—"The Kingdom of Utopia."
J. T. Lazar.—"South Carolina and Her Opportunities."
J. M. Workman.—"The Value of Ideals."

The judges: Professors Poats, Calhoun, and Martin, decided that Mr. Hill should be the representative with Mr. Ezell as alternate.

THE GREATER-CLEMSON ASSOCIATION

Recently there has been formed among some of the leading men of the college an association known as the Greater-Clemson Association, whose purpose is to work for a greater Clemson. This association will undertake work that will be for the benefit and pleasure of the corps. It will give entertainments, it will give college spiritual demonstrations, and it will entertain members of the visiting athletic teams in a great way. The membership of the association will be opened to all who will be willing to subscribe to and uphold its principles. The government of the association is in the hands of the executive committee composed of the class presidents, editors-in-chief, and editors-in-chief-elect who now compose this committee and are: Messrs. Fant Alexander, Scruggs, Webb, Workman, McLeod, Fair, Davis, Reid, and Dunlap. Mr. J. M. Workman has been elected chairman of this committee, Mr. C. B. Fair is secretary, and Mr. A. P. Fant is treasurer. This executive committee will be assisted and advised in its work by an advisory board consisting of the President of the college and two members of the faculty.

Tigers Take Two from Erskine

On Friday afternoon, the Clemson "Tigers" met Erskine's bunch in a very clean game. The game began with a little scoring on both sides, but Clemson got the better of this. In about four innings, the playing became very exciting. There were no scores made for several innings.

Fleming, for Erskine, pitched a fairly good game, but the Clemson bunch netted seven clean hits. Of these seven, Coles and Martin each got two.

"Blonde" Schroeder pitched a fine game. Of the thirty batters facing him, he struck out twelve, walked none and allowed only three scattered hits.

The stars of the game were, Clemson: Yeargin, Coles, Schroeder, Martin, and Rivers; Erskine: Lumley, and Allen.

Saturday's Game

At 1:30 on last Saturday afternoon was called the second of the series of games that Erskine played on campus. The game was, on the whole, a good one, despite the fact that at times, both teams did some very bad playing. As in the first game the Tigers put it on the Erskinians by a score of 4 to 3.

The features of the game were: the pitching of Ezell and Moore, and the fielding of Rivers, Cureton, and Belts.

For the first two or three innings Clemson hit Moore pretty freely; but, after this he settled down and allowed almost no hitting at all. Ezell pitched in his old form of last year, which did much to win the pennant for Clemson. Yeargin as usual, caught a good game, but he seemed to be off in his throwing to second.

Below is an account of the game by innings:

First Inning.—Allen grounded out to Ezell. Adams hit clean to right field. White, flied out to right field. Adams stole second. Spencer grounded out to Ezell.

Cureton fanned, but safe at first on Lumley's error. Cureton stole second. Coles grounded out to first. Schroeder safe on ground to first. Cureton scored, and Schroeder advanced to second on wild throws. Rivers hit to center for a two-bagger, scoring Schroeder. Martin flied out to center field.

Second Inning.—Huey grounded out to Hiers. Belts grounded out to Ezell. Lumley struck out.

Yeargin grounded out to Spencer. Hiers grounded out to Phillips. Thomas grounded out to Allen.

Third Inning.—Phillips struck out. Moore struck out. Allen singled to left field. Adams grounded out to Ezell.

Fourth Inning.—White singled over second. White out attempting to steal second. Spencer grounded, but safe on Hiers' error. Belts struck out.

Rivers flied out to Phillips. Martin flied out to Adams. Yeargin hit to right field and scored on Belt's and Huey's errors. Hiers singled down first base line. Hiers hit to center for a two-bagger, scoring Schroeder. Martin flied out to Phillips. Thomas grounded out to Ezell.

Sixth Inning.—Adams grounded to Coles, safe on Webb's error. White hit by pitched ball. Spencer hit to left field scoring Adams and White and Spencer advanced to second on Schroeder's error. Spencer out attempting to steal third. Huey grounded to shortstop, safe on Cureton's error. Belt grounded out to Hiers. Lumley hit clean to left field, Huey scoring on the hit. Lumley out attempting to steal second.

Eighth Inning.—White flied out to Hiers. Spencer flied out to Rivers. Hiers flied out to Cureton. Coles grounded out to first. Rivers grounded out to Phillips.

Ninth Inning.—Belts struck out. Lumley struck out. Philips grounded out to Ezell.

In college there are many men with different dispositions and aims in life, men of different thoughts, different aspirations, and different temperaments. There are men in college who are interested in all of its activities, and there are men who are indifferent, to them all. In fact, the men who are in college may be divided into three classes: namely, those who do their class work and take part in the college life, those who do their class work and who seem to be interested in nothing connected with the college, and those who do nothing. Which class is in the majority? Why, I suppose the first one is. Anyway, it is the ones who do their will be attractive. These will give the men of the association and of the college a chance for more pleasure and more social advantages. It is the purpose of the association to entertain the members of visiting athletic teams, to show them our college, and to give them a chance to meet more of our men. The association hopes to be able to plan and lead different college spirit demonstrations, and to make each man in the corps believe more and more the fact that Clemson is the greatest college in the South.

An association like this, organized and working from plans formulated by the leading men in the college, and working for the interest of the college and of the whole corps of cadets, cannot help but result in good. It has a great work to do, and we expect it to do it well.

THE HOME STRETCH

The college has entered upon the third and last term, which ends with Commencement Day on June 15th. It is the term in which good weather, baseball, and happy anticipation of the summer vacation help to make the pleasantest of the session. It should be a time of solid work on the part of every student. If you have done well during the first and second terms, you should strive to do still better, in order that vacation may be gladdened by your own and your parent’s satisfaction in your good work.

But if you have done poorly, it is all the more important that you should strive your utmost to redeem the record.

After the close of the session, the Committee on re-examinations and promotions goes carefully over the record of every student to determine whether he is worthy of promotion; whether he should be given re-examinations on the subjects in which he has failed; or whether he should take the class over. For such, failure would be inevitable if allowed to go into a higher class. A student should remember that a college like a factory, desires to finish its products in a minimum of time and only when there is no reasonable hope of progress is the chance denied.

No student should think of withdrawing so near the end of the session. With all fees and dues paid, with the pleasantest three months of the session ahead, with a vacation that will be doubly enjoyed if rightly earned, every student should buckle down to hard work and get out of his course all he can, regardless of what his record thus far has been. No student should give up and go home to humiliate his friends and parents by his acknowledged failure. But with courage and perseverance, he shall receive in return an hundred fold in strength, and self reliance and self respect.

Hold fast—it is not for long—and then comes vacation, with girls and picnics, and an hundred things which only the mind of a boy can conjure up, and only a boy can fully appreciate and enjoy. It will be all the happier if you have no re-examinations hanging over your heads to fall upon you next September.

CAN'T YOU GO?

As summer draws near, your mind naturally begins to ponder over the thoughts of vacation. How are you going to spend it? Perhaps you have but a few weeks to rest before going to work. Where can you spend ten days outing at a minimum cost? The Y. M. C. A. offers one solution to this problem—the solution is a good one too. If you can find a spot at which you may spend a few days surrounded by a bunch of jolly good fellows in the heart of the mountains; if you can get a restful and as beneficial outing wouldn't you think it worth considering?

At Black Mountain, N. C., in the midst of the peaks of the Blue Ridge mountains, the Southern Students’ Conference, generally known as the Montreat Conference, will convene. Ten days June 15-25, 1912, of ideal camping in the heart of the mountains, affords everyone a chance to recuperate after nine months of hard study.

New grounds, belonging to the Blue Ridge Association, comprising eight hundred acres and extending to the crest of the mountain ranges, have been developed. New buildings, including dormitories, dining hall and auditorium beautify the grounds. The equipment including tennis courts, a baseball field and track cost approximately $125,000.

Recreation hours for mountain climbing, baseball, tennis, track, and swimming, will be set apart. Baseball games between colleges and states will take place as well as contests in tennis and track. Grounds suitable for these sports will be in shape by summer.

Expenses are dependent upon the distance you live from Black Mountain. The general secretary is in a position to give you advice in this line.

Consider this very seriously now and see if you can’t go up. You will have the time of your life climbing the mountains and chasing rattlesnakes. All aboard for a ten days outing.
SENIOR CLASS

At last we have our senior privileges, and are able to roam about these moon-light nights and look back over our four years of put up life in barracks. We are now beginning to realize that our college days on Clemson's campus are drawing to a close, and soon friends must part, some of whom will not see each other again.

The annual preliminary contest to select a speaker to represent Clemson in the South Carolina Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest at Rock Hill was held last Saturday night, and Mr. D. B. Hill was given first place and Mr. J. F. Ezell was chosen as alternate. Mr. Hill has been an active society member ever since he entered college, and with the college behind him, we expect great things from him at Rock Hill.

Owing to criticisms that here-to-fore have been laid on the college authorities, the senior class has elected a committee to look into all brutal hazing that might occur. The class has also requested any new cadet that thinks he has been hazed or mistreated without a cause to report same to any member of the senior class, who will bring the matter up before the committee and have it investigated.

JUNIOR CLASS

At a recent meeting of the Junior class, Mr. F. F. Davis was elected the manager of the Junior-Senior Hop. Mr. L. D. Hutson was elected the assistant manager. With the support of our class, we feel sure that these will make the hop a great success and that we will have a fine time on that glorious night.

Mr. J. H. Kangeter having resigned as manager of the 1913 annual, Mr. R. A. Alexander was elected in his stead. Mr. Bomar was elected the advertising manager. Both of these men are hard workers; and, if the class will give them the proper support, the annual for 1913 should be a great success.

PUBLIC EXERCISES CALHOUN LITERARY SOCIETY

On Saturday evening, the Calhoun Literary Society held its annual public exercises in the Memorial hall. The stage was nicely decorated with ferns and hot-house plants, with the large painting of John C. Calhoun just behind the chair of the presiding officer. The exercises were excellent. Mr. F. L. Ross, the presiding officer, in a few brief remarks, welcomed all to the exercises and then introduced the following speakers in order:

Declaimers.—J. R. Douthit and E. P. Josey.
Orators.—J. T. Lazar and D. B. Hill.

The judges were Professors Wells and Burgess, and Rev. Mr. Marshall. Prof. B. J. Wells announced the decision of the judges awarding the declaimer’s medal to E. P. Josey; the orator’s medal to D. B. Hill; and, the debator’s medal to H. A. Freeman.

THE CALHOUN SOCIETY

After the long rest from society work, the exercises last Friday night should have been unusually good, but they were not up to the usual standard. One of the declaimers, the orator, the essayist, and three of the debaters seemed to be a little indisposed. However, the men that were on duty did excelent work. The debate was the feature of interest. The discussion, both by the debaters and the house were very heated.

A decoration committee was appointed to decorate the chapel for the annual contest, which comes off next Friday night.

We had several distinguished visitors, among whom were Mr. Prosser and Mr. Jennings.

COLUMBIAN SOCIETY

The society was called to order by the President. After devotional exercises, the regular exercises were taken up. Mr. G. L. Hardy, the declaimer, gave a creditable declamation. The reader and the orator were absent.

The regular debate was then taken up. The query: Resolved, That Mr. Roosevelt is not justified in running for President a third time, was taken up. The affirmative was defended by Messrs. Ulmer, R. F. and Hall, E. M. Mr. Ezell, W. D., and Edmunds, M. attempted to prove that the negative was right, but public sentiment seemed to be against them. After considerable discussion, the judges retired and rendered their decision in favor of the affirmative. The house also decided for the affirmative.

Mr. J. F. Ezell, and Mr. F. W. Risher contested in the chapel last Saturday night for the honor of going to the State Oratorical Contest, but unfortunately, a Calhoun Society man, Mr. D. B. Hill won first place, while Mr. J. F. Ezell of the Columbian came out second. The State Oratorical Contest is to take place at Rock Hill on April 26. A number of seniors are expecting to attend.

He passed his arm around her waist,
The color left her cheeks;
But on the shoulder of his coat
It showed up for weeks.

PEN PointERS

The Wirt is the oldest Fountain Pen manufactured in the world.
The Wirt offer the fullest possible line of varieties and nearly one hundred varieties.
The gold pens are the very best that can be made to suit any hand.
The cases or reservoir holders are of the purest and most highly finished hard rubber—strong and beautifully made.
The mountings, where used, are of the best, and in designs from the hands of the most skillful artists.
The pen is durable, it is practical, it will work one time as well as another and work always.
It is made in its entirety from the rough material to the finished article at the factory of Paul E. Wirt, at Bloomburg, Pa., the only establishment in the world devoted exclusively to the manufacture of fountain pens. It is our exclusive specialty.
The demand of the hour requires the very best: this pen is offered as such, direct from the manufacturer.

SAFETY

ONLY those who have used a good non-leaking fountain pen can appreciate its advantages. Each year has emphasized the necessity of a fountain pen that the business man, ladies and the traveling public may carry in any position, in the handbag and in the trunk. Made in two lengths, vest pocket, 5½-in., regular, 8½-in., and in four sizes, carrying No. 2, 3, 4 and 5 pens respectively. Our claim of superiority are simplicity, durability, no valves, no springs and no soft rubber. Every part is indestructible as the hard rubber. We have combined with safety and convenience a fountain pen by which the individuality of handwriting is maintained. Simply place the cap over the gold pen end, screw properly to place and you have sealed the ink in the barrel UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED. This means your money back when not satisfied.
