Note: Brackett, R.N. absent on leave May 8th.
Regular Meeting, May 5, 1872.

The meeting was called to order by the President at 8:05 P.M., absent at roll call: Mears, Brackett, DePre, Fuller, Farnum, Hart, Klugh, Lee, McLucas, Redfern, Rigge, Shiver, Somfje, Weyman and Yager. Present later: Mears, DePre, Fuller, Farnum, Hart, Klugh, McLucas, Rigge, and Yager.

Mr. Hart brought up the case of A. J. Carter, who is pursuing an irregular course without consent of the faculty. The President requested the committee on irregular students appointed at last meeting to look into this case and report at next meeting.

Mr. Clinsecales reported that the committee appointed to look into the work of irregular students had found that most of them had enough to do; that some had been assigned additional studies; and that others had been referred to Maj. Shanks to arrange, if possible, by conference with Prof. Morrison, for additional work in fitting School classes, English being especially recommended. Maj. Shanks reported that no English studies were available under the existing schedules, and that book-keeping and seamanship had been assigned instead.

Prof. Clinsecales presented a petition from Geo. B. Postell of the Freshman class asking that he be allowed to pursue an irregular course consisting of Mathematics, English, History, Forge work, Wood work, and Drawing. The President requested the committee on irregular courses to take the matter under consideration.

Mr. McLucas stated that a petition from J. E. Lewis, Freshman class, had been handed to him, asking to be excused from forge work. on account of weak eyes. On motion of Mr. Hart (with Chittick's) the case was referred to the surgeon.

Capt. Fuller reported that R.C. Crawford, High preparatory, had received 120 demerits up to April 30th, that he claimed to be able to give explanations for the removal of some of them, but had failed to do so. On motion of Capt. Fuller (see Minute), consideration of this case was postponed to the next regular meeting.

Mr. King stated that R.C. Davis and F.D. Marshall, who had been granted permission to take regular courses, were not prepared to pursue the work assigned them in Electricity and Mechanics. On inquiry, it was found that they were doing unsatisfactory work in several other departments, and the President asked the committee on irregular courses to look into these cases.

On request of Capt. Fuller, the President directed all instructors to keep records of attendance of irregular students, and to report from day to day all absences to Capt. Fuller. The President also requested instructors to report to him the names of such students as were accomplishing nothing in their work.

On inquiry of Mr. De Pue in regard to adjustment of the Freshman work in Horticulture, Prof. Franklin reported that the schedule committee could do nothing beyond the recommendation made at last meeting, namely, that Mr. De Pue take half the section during the first hour and the other half during the second of the two hours assigned to his work. After some discussion, the President requested the committee to confer with Dr. Blair and Mr. De Pue and see whether a more satisfactory arrangement can be made.
On motion of Capt. Fuller, seconded by Mr. Morrison, the faculty took of the work of making out monthly reports and choosing section marshals, at 9:45, and finished at 11:15 A.M.

J. W. Lewis

The Faculty were called to order by the President at 9:30. Attendance call: Messrs. Connor, Ferman, Hart, Kugh, Quick, Redfern, Riggs, Tompkins, Wright, Hyman. Present: Messrs. Ferman, Hart, Riggs & Wright.

Mr. Fuller in behalf of the Schedule Committee reported that the only adjustment of the Freshman work in botany found practicable was to have section 1a go to Mr. DePri 1-3 on Thursday.

Mr. Fuller also reported that the Freshmen were carrying more than the required number of hours (36) according to the Curriculum (30).

Mr. DePri, while thanking the Schedule Committee for their efforts to arrange the Freshman work in botany, said that the change recommended by the Committee made the work on Thursday too heavy; and that since much of the work was to be name, he thought the desirable balance remain as at present.

Mr. Fuller reported that the Sophomore had their homes work arranged for some days, and that the little Freshman had more than the number of hours prescribed of the Curriculum, in forming a remedial. In reply, Messrs. Barry, Adam, stated that the work period was too instead of three hours on the schedule.

Mr. Fuller stated in regard to the Case of Capt. Crawford who had 120 demerits at the end of last month, that Capt. Crawford had given explanations for some repeats, which enable him to reduce the number of demerits to 76 for the month ending April 20, he thought he matter might... next them for the present. No objection was made. Mr. Lewis offered the following resolution which was adopted by the faculty:

Resolved that all students absent from classes more than one day without a written excuse shall be reported as absent in making out monthly reports.

The next call was to the fact that a few reports of irregular students had been omitted in making out monthly reports, and asked that those of the faculty be corrected and remain correct to the meeting.

Mr. Lewis, speaking in regard to the case of J. B. Leon, it was found that he had been absent from three months' classes. The report was not yet made a

Mr. Christopher, chairman for irregular students, reported that one has been able to manage his course satisfactory, that the case of Leon has not yet been considered at all.

The President called the faculty to order for reports of next Wednesday night (so monthly reports to parents for months ending May 31).

The President presented reports against a number of students of a letter from the Commandant in regard to the reports. The cases against them the reports were made were brought by the faculty - as follows:

McKinley, C.G. Charged with having 107 dimes.

McKinley thought the sugar could help him in an explanation for some of his reports, he was sanctioned for poor attendance until the sugar could defray, a motion of Mr. Tombs, seconded by Mr. Lewis - that McKinley be ruled out and publicly reprimanded.

Matthew, W.J. Reported for absence from section formation.

It was then moved for a false explanation. Thereupon, Matthew stated that he had intended to deceive the Commandant by his explanation, which did not indeed intend as an explanation of his absence from section formation, but with the hopes that he would allow him to complete his studies. Matthew also reported a false explanation of his absence from college. The fact that there was no class on that morning might have influenced him. It was then recessed on motion of Mr. Chadwell (read by Mr. Furrer) that Matthew's statement be accepted with the understanding that the President would listen to the explanation, and improper language in chris...
