Kettles—I appeared before the faculty and stated that:

The men were playing cards and I was not invited to play. I went to Mr. Funches' room and found Mr. Funches playing cards with Mr. Fairly. Mr. Funches said you were playing cards and I said I was not. Mr. Funches asked me what cards I had and I said I had none. The game was stopped and Mr. Funches asked me to play again. I refused and the game was continued.

Mr. Fairly left and Mr. Funches continued to play cards. Mr. Funches asked me to play again and I refused. The game was continued.

Motion of Mr. Fairly (Mr. Funches). The matter adjourned to meet next Wednesday at the usual hour.

R. H. S. Lacy.

Regular Meeting June 2, 1897

The faculty was called to order by the President at 8 o'clock.

Present: Messrs. McLean, Klahn, Lewis, and Mr. Funches. Present late: Mr. Klahn.

The President stated that he had received a letter from Mr. M. B. McLean of Yonkers, asking that he be allowed to return to college. A motion of Mr. Fairly (Mr. Funches) it was resolved that Mr. McLean be allowed to return to college.

The President presented a petition from the senior class requesting that their recreation time be extended to 8 o'clock. Mr. Fairly (Mr. Funches) the petition was granted.

Mr. Funches suggested the advisability of having the laws of the college codified.

Mr. Fairly called attention to the irregularity of cadets playing in attendance on Sunday.

Motion of Mr. Fairly (Mr. Funches). The board examined the records of the faculty and found that they had been unable to get any report for March and May, the report was made out and read Tuesday night.
