Called Meeting Feb. 18, 1879

The faculty was called to order by the President at 10 A.M., absent were Charles Meader, Henry Hart, E. Childs, Robert Blake, James Childs, and E. Hart.

The minutes of the meeting of Dec. 17th, 1878 and Jan. 14th, 1879 were read and approved.

Mr. Sherman in behalf of the Schedule Committee reported that the Schedule was ready to present to the faculty, and on the blackboard. The President stated that the schedule was only for the consideration of the faculty.

Mr. Morehouse called attention to a discrepancy between the number of hours allotted him by the schedule in the freshman junior year and the hours called for in the catalogue of 1879 (see page 24 and 27).

Mr. Carter called attention to the fact that no provision was made in the schedule for Dress Music.

Mr. A. H. Smith spoke of a practical difficulty in the way of having the dining hall open in the afternoon. The laboratory for junior boys is the worst idea I have heard. Mr. Brown called attention to the necessity of having coming to the school of the summer's term.

Mr. Nye called attention to the discrepancy of hours allotted him and called for in catalogue 1879 (page 27).

Mr. Hart proposed 3 hrs. per week for 3rd year.

Mr. Van teens called attention to the fact that Freshman junior class had been omitted.

Mr. Lewis's agreement to divide time with Mr. Blake to provide for Freshman Agriculture.

Mr. Redman desired to divide the year with Mr. Hart.

Mr. Quick desired two more hours junior fourth.
After considerable discussion of the Schedule of the objects raised to it, a motion of Mr. Brodie the schedule was adopted subject to changes approved by the Faculty; the arrangement between Messrs. LeFevre and Messrs. Parkman of being replaced as approved in this motion.

The meeting continued the Committee on Religious Services — it being understood that Rev. Mr. Sanders of Pulaski is to supply the pulpit one Sunday in each month.

The meeting requested the Committee on Examination to meet all the new cadets and all the old cadets conditional in any studies in the chapel at 2 P.M., arrange for Examination. The meeting announced that Chapel service would be held tomorrow at 9 A.M.

On roll call, the following members of the faculty volunteered to take part in morning exercises in the chapel:

Messrs: Brodie, Chisholm, Heyman, Morrice, Quick, Sparks, Mr. President.

On motion the Faculty adjourned at 11:30 A.M. —

 Called Meeting, July 22, 1897

The Faculty was called to order by the President at 8:30 a.m. Short roll call: Messrs. Wiliam, Alex.

The President stated that there were a number of applicants among fitting school students to take special work in the shops.

After considerable discussion in regard to the advisability of allowing such courses, it was resolved on motion of Mr. Fuller, that all students desiring to take special courses be required to make written applications setting forth studies which they desire to take, that such applications must be accompanied by the consent of parents, and that the application and any accompanying documents be submitted to the Faculty.

Mr. Fuller as Chairman of Committee on the Friday night exercises - made a written report (see report on file), which was adopted on motion of Mr. Morrison (read by Mr. Chiniscalke).

The report of the Committee on Friday Night Exercises - recommends that F. N. be abolished and that it is undesirable that the yard be used for such exercises.

A motion of Mr. Chiniscalke (read by Mr. Brodie) the Faculty adjourned at 9:20 a.m.
