Approved March 11/96.
Regular Meeting, March 11th, 1896

The faculty was called together by the President at 2:30 p.m. Abraham Roll, W. M.
Blythe, Dr. Re, Reed, Franklin.

The President requested Professors to furnish
Mr. Fuller with lists of textbooks and a statement of the terms when the books are to be used.

Mr. Hardin reported one section of Sophomore Chemistry class late at Chemistry lecture nearly every day, and asked for an investigation of the cause and regulation of the irregularity.

Mr. Fuller introduced the question of reporting monthly grades in discipline. After considerable discussion by the faculty it was decided that no official action be taken in the matter at present.

Mr. Brodie brought up the question of size of sections in high school Arithmetic and asked for further discussion. After discussion of the division of sections in the College Classes, looking to compliance with Mr. Brodie's request, the President requested the Schedule Committee to examine into the practicability of continuing the 2nd and 3rd Sophomore sections in Mathematics and History.

The President called attention to the sudden dangerous disappearance of Cadet G. M. Hendricks, stating that Cadet Hendricks had not been seen or heard of since last Monday at noon; that he had telegraphed the parents of Cadet Hendricks of his disappearance and asked if Cadet Hendricks had been home. The President telegraph was sent Monday, and a reply which reached Catham Friday was received by the President today, announcing that Cadet Hendricks had not been (at home).

No official action was taken in the matter by the faculty.

Mr. Hardin reported that Cadet Quincy attended Chemistry classes, asked by what authority, and requested the President to take some action in the case. Motion of Mr. Hardin the faculty and at 9 p.m. R. B. Brackett, Sec.

Regular Meeting March 25th 1906

The faculty was called to order at 8:30 a.m. by the President. Roll called on roll call: Messrs. Lewis, McFee, Redfern, Tomkins, Wyman. Messrs. Lewis, McFee, Tomkins came in late.

A petition was presented by Mr. Morrison and signed by the Secretary from C. H. Gentle, requesting to be allowed to take a special course, with the following subjects: Chemistry, Agriculture, Vet Science, Physiology, English, and Tactics. In the course of the discussion of the petition the President said that C. H. Gentle's case is rather that of an elective than of a special student, inasmuch as the number of subjects specified in the petition were from full work and he is under military discipline.

Mr. Gentle's case moved (seconded by Mr. Braekele) that C. H. Gentle's request be granted.

The motion was carried. The vote on roll call being as follows:

Ayes:  Barnes, Braekele, Brodie, Cline, Gentle, Tice, Turman, Lewis, McFee, — (8)
Nas: Fuller, Funder, Hart, Morrison — (4)

Present not voting: Byrke, Bowman, McLean, Riggs, Shanklin, Tomkins, Wright, Young — (8)

Abstain: Redfern, Wyman — (2)

The President requested heads of departments to confer with Mr. Fuller at once in reference to text books.

The President requested that heads of departments make up lists of books suitable for general library and present them to the Library Committee at an early date.

On motion of Mr. Morrison the faculty adjourned at 10:30 a.m.
