Carolina Should Worry: Revenge is Coming!

ALABAMA DEFEATS CLEMSON; SCORE: 20-0

Promptly at three o'clock the referee's whistle announced that play was on. Schilletter kicked the ball out of bounds at the first attempt. The second trial sent the pig skin to Alabama's fifteen yard line. Alabama brought it back twenty yards. Ten yards were made in three downs. Alabama failed to gain the required distance and punted. James returned the ball for a good gain. The Tigers were unable to gain the coveted ten yards and punted. Alabama came back strong. The hard running of Alabama's backs was very effective in carrying the ball. After several runs for eight or ten yards, Vandegraff broke through Clemson's line and ploughed through their backfield for a touchdown in a twenty yard run. Goal was kicked. Score: Alabama 7, Clemson 0.

Schilletter kicked off to Clemson's ten yard line, Long returned the ball ten yards. Two attempts at line plunging failed to produce the desired distances and Alabama punted. Webb returned the ball for a good gain, and the first quarter was over.

Logan ran around right end for eight yards. Gandy pulled nine more over tackle. Webb got ten around left end. Schilletter went seven over tackle. James ran fifteen on a sweeping end run, and was stopped only ten yards from the goal. Brown went in at quarter. Two fumbles and a loss on an end run made it necessary to drop kick. No goal. Alabama put the ball in scrimmage. Clemson held strong, forcing a punt, and the ball remained near the center of the field throughout the remainder of the quarter.

FRESHMEN HOLD FIRST MEETING

The Freshman Class held its first meeting in the college chapel Tuesday night, attended by a large and enthusiastic crowd. The main purpose of this meeting was to elect class officers for the present session, and to discuss the Freshman foot ball prospects. The following officers were elected:

L. A. Page, president.

P. Nelson, vice president.

A. B. Schacte, secretary and treasurer.

C. J. Gaulden, historian.

Co-operative Committee—J. G. McKie, R. B. Walker, J. B. Dick, A. B. Schacte, and H. Harris.

V. B. O'Hagan was elected manager of the freshman foot ball team. A group of enthusiastic members are starting a movement to equip their team with a new uniform. They believe that if the majority of the class would pay the sum of fifty cents a piece they would have an ample sum to carry out this plan. As the Freshmen are good supporters of foot ball, it is thought that this spirited movement will be a great success

THE HERO OF THE MERRIMAC

The first entertainment on the lyceum course will be given Wednesday, October 15th at 8:00 p. m., by Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson of Merrimac fame. He had an honorable career in the navy, has served with distinction in congress and is now a candidate for the United States Senate from Alabama—one of his opponents being house leader Underwood.

He sank the Merrimac in the Santiago harbor under Spanish fire. He raised a vessel from the bottom of Manila Bay. He patched up the Oregon when she ran on a shoal in the Yellow Sea.

Capt. Hobson is one of the leading lecturers on the platform in America. His famous lectures on "The Destiny of America" and "The Great Destroyer," heard by 300,000 people, are shot through with passionate earnestness and true eloquence. His lectures are said to be charged with a dynamic force that thrills and inspires his hearers. A million copies of his temperance lecture, said to be the most complete arraignment of the evils of drink ever uttered, have been printed and distributed.

THE KILLARNEY GIRLS COMING

JUST WHAT SHE SAID

The maiden lady of uncertain age became very indignant when the census-taker asked her age.

"Did you see the girls next door," she asked: "the Hill twins?"

"Certainly," replied the census man.

"And did they tell you their age?"

"Yes."

"Well," she snapped as she shut the door in his face, "I'm just as old as they are!"

"Oh, very well," said the census man to himself, and he wrote down in his book: "Jane Johnson—as old as the hills."

first half ended. Alabama 7, Clemson 0.

Clemson received the kick-off and advanced the ball fifteen yards. First down was made twice, but Alabama braced up and the Tigers punted. Harsh ran the ball back for twenty yards. Vandegraff slipped off ten more. Long went through the line for another first down. Several other line plunges put Clemson's goal in danger. Again Vandegraff shot across the line and fought his way for a touchdown. No goal. Score: Alabama 13, Clemson 0.

On the next kick off Clemson advanced the ball ten yards. Jeter ran through the line for eight yards. First down was gained on the next play. Other attempts failed to gain. Then by an exchange of punts Clemson again came close enough to the goal to try a drop kick. It failed. Alabama put the ball in to play, and carried it some distance down the field before the third quarter was over.

Alabama scored another touchdown by a series of line plays and kicked goal. Score: Alabama 20, Clemson 0.

At this stage of the game Jeter was the Tiger's only consistent ground gainer. He ran through the line several times for good gains. Alabama held him, nowever, and Clemson punted. The game ended with the ball in Clemson's possession. Score: Alabama 20, Clemson 0.

THE CALHOUN LITERARY SOCIETY

The following program was carried out: The Declaimer, day evening at seven o'clock. The Society was called to order by its president, J. B. Douthit.

The following program was carried out: The declaimer, Mr. A. M. Trotter, gave a pleasing declamation. After a declamation by Mr. J. S. Moore, Mr. J. C. Barksdale gave us a well prepared oration. Mr. P. H. Senn, followed with a well written essay. Next was the debate: Query: Resolved, That the Monroe Doctrine should be abandoned. The affirmative was up-held by Harris, T. G., Hopkins, D. R. and Ward, J. While the negative was supported by Simpson, J. A., Thornton, R. P., and Vaughn, C. L. Many good points were brought out on both sides. The decision of the judges was in favor of the negative.

The extemporaneous speakers were, Bigby, W. A., and Wilkerson, W. B.

As there was no further business the Society adjourned. The Society extends a welcome invitation to all.

THE COLUMBIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The Columbian Literary Society held its second meeting of this session on October 3. After initiating the new members, the following program was carried out:

Orator—Armstrong, G. M.

Declaimer—Miley, J.

Debate: Resolved: That the hope of reward is a greater incentive to do right, than the fear of corporal punishment.

Affirmative—Byrd, E. M., Briggs, G. R.

Negative—Legette, F. C., Garris, E. W.

The debate was won by the affirmative.

An appeal was made by several of the senior members to raise the standard of the society, and make this year one to be remembered in the history of the society. With every member pledging his support, it is hoped to make this year, one of improvement and enjoyment.

THE PALMETTO LITERARY SOCIETY

The Palmetto Literary Society held its second regular meeting on September 30th.

The exercises were opened by a debate: Query: Resolved, That the United States should intervene in Mexico." The affirmative was ably supported by Messrs. Wells, J. H. S. and Usher, A. B., while Messrs. Murray, J. J. and Sanders, J. W. defended the negative. The judges, Messrs. Dukes, Stribling and Smoak decided in favor of the negative.

Mr. McDonald, F. H. delivered to the Society a well chosen oration on "Honesty with One's Self." Mr. McDonald said that it was honesty of spirit that counted for something in character building, and not the mere observance of honesty because society demands it. Messrs. Ward, A. H. and Boyd, A. R., also gave the Society good orations. Mr. Ward speaking on, "Character as a Business Asset;" and Mr. Boyd on, "Success."

Mr. Dantzler, F. C. delivered an excellent declamation; followed by Mr. Smith, P. N., who also gave a declamation. The subject being, "The Haunted Palace."

On the whole, much interest has been manifested in the Society work. The old men are attending fairly well. About twenty-seven new men have been added to the roll, thus enlarging the membership to about seventy.

"Don't all those papers make you tired?" asked the kindly disposed man of the little newsboy who was struggling along under a huge load of evening papers.

"Naw," replied the newsboy with supreme contempt. "I can't read."

"Do animals possess the sentiment of affection," asked the school teacher of the little girl.

"Ye'th r'a'am; almost always."

"Good," said the teacher; "and now," turning to a little boy, "tell me what animal has the greatest natural fondness for man."

The small boy considered carefully, and finally answered: "Woman."
