CURRENT EVENTS OF INTEREST TO TIGERS.

TIGERS BEAT MERCER

The athletic field in Macon was the scene of a big score feast for the Tigers last Monday. The game began with a touchdown and ended with one. Several similar occurrences were noted throughout the game. Some one said that Clemson's offence was better than their defence, but they had very little defending to do consequently the offence was obliged to show up to advantage. Tech's coach came down to see the game, and generously acted as

FRESHMEN WINNERS

In an exciting game here last Saturday afternoon, the Clemson Freshmen defeated the heavy eleven of the Clarksville Agricultural High School by the decisive score of 19 to 7. Clarksville won the toss and defended the western goal. For a while Clarksville had no trouble in gaining thru the line, but the Freshmen braced up and Clarksville was forced to kick. Schoote returned the ball 15 yards. The Freshmen then began a march

BEAT TECH OR BUST!

 "ON TO ATLANTA—BEAT TECH OR BUST."

College spirit at Clemson reached its zenith last night. During supper the cry began, "Everybody out to chapel." Immediately after supper the chapel was crowded. A series of songs and cheers were given—being the best line that we've had yet.

Then came a hot, ringing speech from the "new name in football," Williams. Then shorty with a broad grin and his characteristic pose did give vent to his spirit, suggesting the trip to Atlanta, saying that he would give us all supper at the best hotel in the city. And to cap it all came a couple of "hot ones" from "Rip" Major and Johnny Gantt.

By this time every one was right and "Beat Tech or Bust" was the slogan of the bunch. The old stand-by, "Ride Old Tech on the Rail" was then begun with the assistance of director Smith and his college band. Then everyone marched out of the chapel singing or at least yelling the old familiar tune.

'Twas indeed a great night. All around could be heard 'Aren't we going to do it?' "Why of course." Then from all corners could be heard, "Beat Tech or Bust!" and "On to Atlanta!"

It being seven-thirty o'clock, the under classmen had to retreat to barracks for the night. But the majority of the seniors did not. A few were seen to wend their way to the "store" and here they purchased some paint and brushes, fully intending to paint things "red." Mercy and compassion come upon them and told them not to disfigure any college property, as they intended to do. Instead they decided to paint cardboard signs, etc., that could be removed. So signs were made with flaring, dashing letters; "Beat Tech or Bust." "On to Atlanta." "Be a sport, it's only $3.00." "Wreck the Techs!" and numerous others were posted all over the campus. Also, chalk was secured (from some unknown source) and every cement sidewalk was decorated from side to side. The latter performance was being completed, when, lo, up steps the "Colonel." And "What are you doing?" of course came. "College Spirit!" was the answer. It seems though, that the "boss" did not think so much of this and they were advised to stop. So the few supporters, dropped their heads and filed into barracks when they had a round-table discussion. They could not figure out any harm or any destruction to college property. After a while some one said, "Well, it's college spirit to obey our boss." They forced a smile at this and departed to their respective rooms.

This was not quite the end of it all, though. Early Saturday morning came tidings from the Commandant's office, that a new institution was to be founded in school. The name, was to be, "The Clemson College Street Cleaning Association." The "Colonel" being the founder suggested that the men that did the "college spirit" work last night take the initiative in the association. And their first job was to clean and scrub the work of the night before. In the meantime, a joint meeting of the association was called and the name of the institution was voted to be changed to the "C. A. C. Pony Followers."

Saturday night, the Followers turned out in full uniform, ready for their first job. They were armed to the teeth, with brooms, buckets. Willing to do their duty as it was "College spirit," also the thought and threat of loosing their privilege of strolling around and visiting at night entered into their minds. So Saturday night the "Pony" Followers got together and every chalk mark was scrubbed and rubbed out, amidst humiliating cheers from under classmen in barracks. Ladies passed by and laughed and said that they were smart and deserving boys. But it was "College Spirit," you know.

So they stood the expressions of all and swallowed the law from the "boss" and took it for granted that this was included in "College Spirit." They then repaired to their rooms, greatly dishcartened, but, determined to get on the job and, "Beat H—1 out of Tech or Bust!" And, so its, "On to Atlanta!" Even after all that had interfered with their plans.

The management had hoped to have a picture of the Clemson College Street Cleaners Association, but owing to some unavoidable delay it did not arrive in time to go to press. Our next issue will contain the picture with a very interesting article as to what the Association expects to do after we "BEAT TECH OR BUST."

OUR ANNUAL

Under the careful management of Cadet T. C. Barksdale, the business end of the annual is prospering. Mr. Holliday, of Durham, has been here the past week making the pictures, with the exception of the military organizations and seniors. These will not be made until after Christmas on account of the reappointment of officers at the beginning of the second term.

The Bureau of Engraving, Minneapolis, Minn., will make the cuts, and the Observer Printing Co., Charlotte, N. C., is to do the printing. Mr. J. M. Drakeford, the Tiger cartoonist, is making the cartoons of the members of the senior class and Prof. Henry is handling the financial end of the line.

The Literary part is in charge of Cadets F. H. McDonald, editor-in-chief; and J. L. Carson, chief of Literary staff. They are rapidly rounding things into shape.

This promises to be one of the best and most up to date annuals ever gotten out at Clemson.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

The regular monthly meeting of the society was held Tuesday night, Nov. 18. The exercises were opened by the reading of a paper on "Burbank and his work," by G. M. Armstrong.

Reporting on "The Breeders Gazette," and mentioning the important articles, Mr. F. C. Dantgell dwelt especially on articles by Dr. Powers and Prof. Burgess on "Control of Hog Cholera" and "Raising Dairy Calves" respectively.

To bring a variety, Mr. T. C. Had-don swung from reporting on the Southern Ruralist, and extemporized on "The Mendelian Phenomenon" as exhibited by breeding properties of the Andalusian fowl.

Mr. J. E. Dunlap, business manager of The Agricultural Journal, in speaking of The Journal, said that we were not making sufficient progress, and moved that this meeting be a rally meeting for The Journal. It was resolved so to be, and a New Spirit was shown by the prompt volunteering of a number of boys to furnish sufficient articles that The Journal may come out at once.

Prof. W. L. Hutchinson, of the Department of Agronomy, and an honorary member of the society, was present and made the society an interesting and instructive talk, assuring the fellows that he was "ever ready" and anxious to help them in their efforts to make a Greater Agricultural Journal and a greater society. We are always glad to have Prof. Hutchinson for we can assure ourselves of a treat.

At our next meeting, which will be the first Monday night in December, refreshments will be served.

EDITORIALS

We must have 300 men go to Atlanta. With a bunch that size we can make things hum in the "New York" of the South.

One cannot help but admire the records that Vanderbilt has made in athletics. They are ones to be proud of. She has been in the fore-front in nearly every line.

A good crowd saw Clemson's future varsity win from Clarksville Prep. school last Saturday. The Fresh played a good game and kept pegging away until they won.

Some forward passes those Fresh pulled off. Nothing like them has happened in these parts before. A Clarksville man knocked down a pass, only for it to be caught by an oncoming Fresh, who crossed the line for a touchdown.

Georgia took Atlanta by storm after the game last Saturday. Nothing could stop them. Theaters, hotels, stores, etc. were theirs, and the Red and Black waved in triumph. We are going to take the game Thanksgiving, why can't we take the town?

Still we would like mighty well to lock horns with her in both baseball and foot ball for the coming seasons.

Yale is showing up strong after several defeats. They came back last Saturday, and tied the great Princeton machine, which had been conceded the game by most dope artists. Yale will put up a hard fight against Harvard, for as yet they have never been defeated on the latter's Stadium.

The Trinity boys seem likely to win out in their fight for football. Miss Duke, the daughter of the great tobacco magnet from whom they were seeking help, made a speech to 600 of the boys in the absence of her father. She said that both she and her father were greatly in favor of football. This is a great point in Trinity's favor and we wish them much success.

"Red" Edgerton's Gamecocks are improving under his strenuous coaching. They are back from Davidson, having won for the first time in several seasons. This is the first time that Davidson has been defeated on their home grounds since 1905. All dope points to the Carolina-Citadel game as being a close one, as the Citadel has a strong team and is working hard for a victory on Turkey Day.

When everybody is talking about Vandy's defeats of this year and predicting a fall to a lower level for her in athletic circles, "The Hustler" come backs with the warning that Vanderbilt has been defeated by only one S. I. A. A. team, and that Sewanee and Tech should look back over the results of their games of the last few years before coming to the conclusion that she is to be considered at all lightly.

Coach Heisman was in Macon Monday and from what he saw it must have spelled, "I should Worry" for the Atlanta Journal of Thursday states that on Wednesday the Yellow Jackets were put thru one of the hardest practices of the season. "Beat Tech or Bust."

BRIGADIER GENERAL T. F. DAVIS.

Brigadier General T. F. Davis, U. S. Army, is enjoying a visit this week with his son-in-law and daughter, Col. and Mrs. J. M. Cummins. He graduated at U. S. Military Academy, 1875. Served in Cuba in 1898, in the Philippines Islands three tours. Was Governor of Lanao District, Moro Province. He now has command of the 5th Brigade, Second Division at Galveston.

The General was honored with a parade, review and drill by the corps, and has expressed surprise and pleasure at the extensive plant maintained at Clemson, for the education of our youth. He sincerely trusts that the cadets will always display a lively disposition to take full advantage of the opportunities offered to gain practical knowledge of professions that qualify them so well for careers of marked usefulness in the world. The surrounding country abounding in varied ground appeal to his military training, while the trees in foliage were a real treat to one long accustomed to the treeless plains of Wyoming and Texas.

THE PALMETTO LITERARY SOCIETY

The society held its meeting on Friday night. The regular exercises were dispensed with, in order that the election of officers for the second quarter might be held.

The following men were elected: A. H. Ward, president; A. R. Boyd, vice-president; T. C. Haddon, literary critic; M. A. Smith, Secretary; M. W. Hunter, prosecuting critic; R. H. Reaves, W. J. Hunter, S. Williamson, J. J. Murray, Reporting critics; H. D. Barker, censor; W. D. Hutchins, sergeant-at-arms.

Messrs. F. H. McDonald and D. K. Banks were elected as presidents for the third and fourth quarter, in order that they might get their pictures in the Annual.

WHAT OTHERS ARE DOING AND SAYING

By "Buck" Pressley

The following is a portion of a column that came out in "The Red and Black," just before Georgia met Tech, and shows us one of the main reasons why Georgia always has a fighting football team.

"The team is leaving for Atlanta Friday, and to let them know that we are still supporting them, there will be one of the biggest mass meetings on Thursday night ever held at the University of Georgia. Every man in college is expected to be present and if you fail to go you have no "Georgia Spirit." The team will be seated on the stage and talks by the members and coaches will be given. There will be speeches made by ex-stars and captains of the Georgia squad. You can not afford to miss the mass meeting."

Georgia is trying to arrange a triangular debate with Vanderbilt and Virginia

Florida has secured the services of P. J. Floerty, an old ex-big leaguer, who has played with Pittsburg, Chicago Americans, Boston Nationals and many class A. A. teams, to coach their baseball team for the coming season.

OUR FOOTBALL TEAM

Clemson this year boasts of the best team that she has had represent her on the gridiron in years.

In Webb, Logan, James and Jeter, we have a back-field that not one college in the South has ever the shade of an edge on. Every man of the four is fast, good on line bucks, and even better on a romp around the end. Its this four that has been giving Clemson's opponents trouble this year, and it's their work that is causing Tech to say, earnestly "We Should Worry." In case any of this quartette should feel indisposed on "Turkey Day" we have a bunch of second string men consisting of "Red" McMillan, Gee, Pressley, Barnette and Hamilton, that have shown real class in games up to date. Just take a glance at the above list and then remember that we loose only two men by graduation, fill in the break with Reeves and Durant and see what our outlook is for next year.

The line positions are well taken care of by Capt. "Hop" Gandy, "Shorty" Schilleter, Parker, Carson, Bristo, Stribling, Brown, Caughman and McGill, and these in turn are backed by such strong relief men as Hanvey, Littlejohn, Suggs, Randle, Brandon and Kendricks.

We have tried to look on the dark as well as the bright side, and we just can't see anything but a victory for Clemson. Every man above mentioned is willing to make the biggest kind of sacrifice and intends to put up the best fight that is in him to help Clemson reverse the tide of our "Thanksgiving affairs." To us a Tiger victory seems inevitable.

A steam roller rolled on a stray canine,
And flattened him east and west.
He hadn't a chance to utter a whine,
But his pants, no doubt, were pressed.

THE EVER LOYAL ALUMNI OF ATLANTA

The football team reports that the Atlanta chapter of the Clemson alumni was very nice to them during their stay in Atlanta last Saturday. A group of old Clemson men were at the station to meet them upon their arrival. Best of all, however, was an invitation to go to the theater that evening. This the team gladly accepted.

Upon their return, they had a short wait in the Atlanta terminal station. Again several alumni were there, this time to congratulate them on their victory over Mercer. All these kindnesses are greatly appreciated not only by the team but by the entire corps.

MEET ME AT UNIVERSITY CLUB

The Atlanta chapter of the Clemson Alumni extends to all Clemson men who will be in Atlanta Thanksgiving a cordial invitation to meet with them at their chapter rooms University Club, 190 Peachtree Street, during the hours of 10 to 12 Thanksgiving morning. Arrangements are to be made for a rousing good time in Atlanta and also to let the people of Atlanta know that there is such a place in South Carolina as Clemson and that they have a bunch that "Will beat Tech or Bust." ## THE ATLANTA TRIP

Every man at Clemson feels that "the Tigers" have the first real chance that we have had in a good many years to get "the Yellow Jackets" goat at Atlanta on Thanksgiving day, A. D., 1913.

"Has Been" Tigers from all over the State are writing men here, expressing their assurances of a victory and their great desire to see the game. Requests come from Greenville, Spartanburg and other points north that we have our "special" start from at least their distance beyond Clemson as they have many Tiger sympathizers who simply must see that game. The entire State seems wrought up, and yet the quietest place of all is the "Tiger camp." Not because we do not want to go, and not because we do not expect a victory, for we do. But simply because we have other engagements, have not the money or other weak excuses.

We have heard the very cheap rates offered, we know that we would be of some help to the team; that we would have a good time; that under similar conditions the University of Georgia students went to Atlanta in such numbers that it took fifteen coaches to accommodate them; that, at Auburn only twenty men out of nearly 800 were left at Auburn when Auburn played Vanderbilt at Birmingham, and that under like conditions Vanderbilt carries her entire student body along. Yet, we are content to have Clemson represented by 150 men when we should have at least 500 go.

'Tis true that this 150 will be heard from and that they will give Atlanta and Tech a fair idea of what we can do in the rooting line, but it should hurt our pride to have this small nucleus represent us—when other colleges, and universities that are being rapidly overhauled by Clemson in other lines, should be so far ahead of us in this.

Wake up fellows—and let's not give the palm to any college over Clemson in an issue of this or any other kind. Just think what it's going to be like to win from Tech. We've all just got to see it done, that game will make football history and upon its results depends in a good measure the turn in down the field which ended when a Freshman fumbled. A Clarksville back recovered the ball and ran about 50 yards for a touch down. They then kicked goal. Clarksville again defended the western goal, and the Freshmen kicked off. Clarksville could make very little except through the line, and were forced to kick. The quarter ended with the score, Clarksville 7, Freshmen 0.

There was no scoring in the second and third quarters. The playing was mostly in the middle of the field, and both sides had to punt often.

The fourth quarter opened with the ball in Clarksville's possession in their own territory. They were forced to kick and Schacte returned the ball to the middle of the field. A few line plunges failed to gain. A forward pass from Schacte was caught by Marshall who crossed the line for a touch down. Schacte kicked goal.

In a few more minutes of play, a Clarksville back knuckled down a forward pass which fell into Walker's hands. Walker crossed the goal for the second touchdown. Schacte failed to kick goal. With four minutes to play, the Freshmen kicked to Clarksville. Harris caught a forward pass and ran about 40 yards for the third touchdown. Schacte failed to kick goal. The game ended with the ball in Clarksville's territory. Final score, Freshmen 19, Clarksville 7. Schacte, Harris, and Marshall played good ball for the Freshmen.

the ebb-tide of Clemson's athletic standing. It's our duty to go, affairs are at a crisis—we must have at least 300 men go to Atlanta to root for what we believe is the best team in the South today.

CLEMSON BEATS MERCER

head lineman, but his pleasure was detracted from greatly by the constant marking of first downs. In the meantime he saw a bunch of varied plays. First two or three would be sent over left tackle and then several over right. In case the goal line was not crossed by this time, the play was shifted to the other side again.

The air was rent with joyful cheers twice during the game when Mercer's star, Cochran ran for twenty or twenty-five yards. At another occasion a short forward pass was successful. Mercer's passes usually hit in the arms of a Clemson man who did not like to see a loose high ball. Occasionally to break the monotony, Jimmy would run Schiletter or Bristol on a tackle play. Once started the two big tackles carried the ball like half backs. On another occasion James gave the backs a holiday and took a trip to the goal lines himself. He had to run over or around the Mercer boys, but the fact that none of them caught him on this fifty yard run, would lead one to think that he possessed a few of McWhorter's tricks.

Our new men did great work. First comes Red McMillan. He was sent in at half back, and the first time that he carried the ball, it was thirty yards for a touch down. Dope Major added another to the Tiger's string. Hanvey tackled all over the field and blocked a punt. Aside from this, the reliable trio of Webb, Logan and Jeter carried the ball in great style, broke up and caught Mercer's passes, and tackled fiercely.

To make a long story short, James made two touchdowns, and kicked five goals. McMillan made two more, Logan two, Webb one, and Major one. Mercer failed to get within reach of the coveted goal.

Final score, Clemson 53, Mercer 0.

THE G. F. C. RECEPTION

Owing to the fact that only seniors were granted permits there were only seven Clemson boys to attend the G. F. C. reception last Monday evening, November 17th.

After going over to Calhoun we found that the train was more than an hour late, so we were a very sadly disappointed bunch, but we soon forgot about this after we got to Greenville.

Upon our arrival at G. F. C. we were introduced to the president and other members of the faculty. Then they turned us over to the tender mercies of the young ladies, and very well indeed did they entertain us.

Visitors from a number of towns and cities were present, and the spacious reception halls were filled to their full capacity. A moments glance would show that all were enjoying themselves, for those on the receiving line seemed determined that no one who came for a good time should go away disappointed.

Another very good and very enjoyable feature of the reception was the refreshments. These were served in the dining hall, and as might be expected, there were always plenty of visitors here.

Every one seemed to be getting along nicely, when promptly at eleven o'clock a bell began to ring, announcing the fact that we would have to make our adieus. It seemed that we could not have been there over twenty minutes at the most, but the bell was insistent, and soon we were on our way up street and the G. F. C. reception, a thing of fond recollection.

It has often been said that G. F. C. is noted for its pretty girls, and those who attended the reception can verify this statement. Another clause might also be added to this, and that is, that the girls know how to entertain visitors.

It was certainly a pleasant visit for all the Clemson boys, who attended, and it is sincerely hoped that sometime in the near future, an occasion will present itself when a similar trip may be taken.

SOCIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Y. V. McColl entertained Wednesday evening in honor of their guest. Miss Cleveland, of Ky., Each guest was given a sheet of paper on which was to be written ten ways of keeping a husband's or wife's love. Miss Anne Porcher won the lady's prize, a dainty blue and white boudoir cap, and Mr. W. B. Aull received a fountain pen for writing the best ways of keeping a wife's love. Music was furnished during the evening by Misses Elizabeth Townes and Cleveland, and Mr. T. G. Robertson sang several solos, Mrs. Robertson playing his accompaniment. A salad course was served by the Misses Murray, Miss Edith Mills, and Mrs. Winslow Sloan. Those present were Misses Helen Bradford, Nena Martin, Etta Sadler, Pauline Hughs, Lena Hardin, Floride Calhoun, Nela and Jean Sloan, Helen Brackett, Kathleen and Lillian Murray, Mrs. Shiver, Mrs. Winslow Sloan, and Messrs. Henry, Watson, Clark, Rouse, Brandon, Pearce, Edmister, Aull, Wells, Seal, McGhee, McAlhaney, Duckett, Foy, Speas, Martin, Crum, Covington, Sweeney, Crowther, and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Harper will entertain at dinner in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Mell on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Rawl, of Washington, D. C., were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Riggs during the week.

Miss Cleveland, of Kentucky, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. McColl.

Miss Sara and Kittie Furman are visiting relatives in Washington, New York, and Philadelphia.

The Auction Bridge Club, composed of the young ladies on the campus, Mrs. B. H. Johstone, and Mrs. Coman, had its first meeting with Miss Lizette Hutchinson on Saturday, November 15. The next meeting will be on the 29th of November with Misses Helen Bradford and Nena Martin.

CALHOUN LITERARY SOCIETY

The Calhoun Literary Society held its regular meeting last Friday night in the society hall.

The society was called to order by the president, Mr. J. C. Barksdale, at seven thirty.

This being the night of the quarterly election of officers, the regular program was dispensed with. It was moved and seconded that the officers be elected by ballot, and, on account of the short time allowed, that three candidates for each office be voted for at the same time, the one receiving the highest number of votes to serve the second quarter, the one receiving the second highest, the third quarter, etc. This motion was unanimously carried.

The following officers were elected:

Second Quarter

President, W. B. Wilkinson; vice-president, C. C. Thornton; critic, T. G. Harris; recording secretary, E. H. Pate; corresponding secretary, R. P. Thornton.

Third Quarter

President, J. C. Barksdale; vice-president, J. B. Douthit; critic, W. B. Wilkerson.

Fourth Quarter

President, J. E. Dunlap, vice-president, H. L. Smith; critic, J. C. Barksdale.

At the conclusion of the election the time was so nearly consumed that it was moved and carried that the officers be installed at the next meeting. The society was adjourned by the president until the following Friday.

officers might take place. The following officers were elected for the second quarter: President, R. B. Ezell; vice-president, J. N. McBride; literary critic, J. F. Harrison; prosecuting critic, G. M. Armstrong; recording secretary, L. R. Tarrant; corresponding secretary, G. R. Briggs; reporting critics, T. M. Ferguson and J. T. Loadholt; sergeant-at-arms, C. G. Harris.

Mr. J. N. McBride was elected president for the third quarter, and Mr. G. M. Armstrong was elected for the fourth quarter.

The officers for the second quarter were installed, and Mr. R. B. Ezell made his opening address to the society, to whom he eloquently appealed for a more hard working and conscientious membership.

Prof. Martin honored the society by a visit, and graciously consented to speak a few words to the society, and his words of encouragement were deeply appreciated.
