Those having charge of the Glee Club were glad to find, on their return to College, that all the members of the club are back and ready for work. It is not definitely known yet, but it is expected that "Hack" Ferguson will come about Jan. 15, and be with us for a month or more, during which time he will take the short course in cotton grading.

"Hack" is indeed a very valuable man and his coming will no doubt add much to the spirit and music of the club.

Manager Hood is arranging some very interesting trips, and it is expected that this will be the most prosperous and most enjoyable season that this Glee Club has ever witnessed.

Plans for an entertainment at Yorkville on Jan. 24, and at Winthrop College on Jan. 26, have been pretty definitely arranged. It is expected also that a date at Anderson College some time during the latter part of February can be arranged. No other arrangements have been made for trips, but several places have been in communication with the club, and it is expected that other dates can be made later in the season.

The Club this year is no doubt the best that has represented Clemson since any of its present members have been connected with it. So by continued practice and the return of "Hack" Ferguson, the Glee Club will be nothing short of a worthy representative of Clemson.

Basket-ball is coming along in fine shape. Coach Erwin has started signal practice and the squad is fast rounding into shape for the first Furman game, which is to be played on the campus Saturday. Of the last year squad we have Erwin, Caughman, Ward, Lewis, Glover, Morgan, and Jennings. These men are showing fine form and can be counted on this season. The men showing the greatest promise, in the new material are, Walker, Hoffmeyer, Shachte, Thornton, Gee, Stuart, and Wannamaker.

Although they may not get in Saturday's game they will do everything possible to land a berth sometime during the season.

This marks the third year in the history of Clemson basket-ball, so let's everyone support the team loyally and make it a record season. Manager Caughman has arranged the following schedule up to date.

Jan. 10, Furman on Campus.
Jan. 22, Univ. of Ga. at Augusta.
Jan. 23, Savannah Y. M. C. A. at Sav.
Feb. 5, Newberry at Newberry.
Feb. 6, Citadel at Charleston.
Feb. 7, Columbia Y. M. C. A. at Col'a.
Feb. 14, Newberry on Campus.

The baseball schedule for the coming season has not been completed yet, there being two or three more games to be arranged. The season will open with the University of Georgia at Athens, on March 25th, but a practice game will be played here before that date if possible.

So far, the usual games with Tech at Atlanta have not been scheduled on account of conflicting dates. A game with Furman in Greenville, and one with Wofford on the campus are also to be arranged yet.

Baseball Schedule
March 25-26—Univ. of Ga. at Athens.
April 3—Erskine on Campus.
April 10-11—Open.
April 18—Furman on Campus.
April 24—Erskine on Campus.
April 24—Erskine at Rock Hill.
April 29-30—P. C. at Clinton.
May 1-2—Newberry at Newberry.
May 6-7—Wofford at Spartanburg.
May 11-12-13—Auburn on Campus.

Among the members of last year's scrub team are many good men. Rhett, who was a member of the varsity squad for some time, was prevented from playing last year on account of class work. Major, McCall, Witherspoon, Reeves, DuRant, Parker, and Wannamaker are all back and are ready to give somebody a run for his job.

Of course, we have no idea what kind of material the Freshman class will turn out, but we are expecting to find several valuable recruits when practice begins.

Under the guidance of Coach Robertson and Capt. Webb, we feel sure that Clemson will turn out a team this year that will be a credit to the institution, and one which will make a record as good if not better than was made last year.

Last year the Clemson team won the championship of the State without losing a single game, and tied with Tech and Georgia for championship of the S. I. A. A.

Although the loss of Ezell, Hiers, and Coles will be hard to overcome, we are sure to have a team that will give a good account of itself in every game played. With the exception of four men, the entire varsity team of last year, is back and ready for work. In Captain Webb, Clemson has the best first baseman in any southern school to-day, and we feel sure that he will make one of the best captains Clemson has ever had. Hutto at second and Cureton at short are two of the best infielders to be found in the South. The other members of last year's varsity who are back are Anderson, Browne, Dean, Iler, and Tarrant. These are all good men, and will make their presence felt on the field next spring.

THE CLEMSON-TECH DEBATE

Not long after school opened last September, the three literary societies received a challenge from Georgia Tech for a debate between the two institutions. This was something new for Clemson, and it required some little talking to get the boys interested in it. It was not long however before each society notified the other two that it could be depended upon to do its part in this new undertaking.

Tech was at once notified that the challenge had been accepted. They suggested that we send them queries which we did as soon as possible. They selected the query while we chose the side. The query decided upon was—Resolved, “That, in Granting Suffrage, there shall be no limitations regarding Sex.” We, after much consultation have selected the affirmative side of this question. Tech also sent resolutions to govern the debate, and these, with a few amendments, were unanimously accepted by our committee representing the three societies.

Each society has selected two men to represent it in the preliminary contest to be held in chapel sometime in February, probably about Feb. 14th. And then two men from this number will be selected to represent Clemson in the final contest which will probably take place in Atlanta on March 6th.

The following men have been selected to represent the three societies at the preliminary contest in chapel. Columbia, J. N. McBride, D. E. Swinhart; Palmetto, T. C. Haddow, A. R. Boyd; Calhoun, W. B. Wilkerson, R. N. Benjamin. These are all good men, and the two that are selected may be expected to give Tech a hard fight for this honor.

THE AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL

Just a year ago the agriculturals of the class of 1913 realized the need of a paper which would give the farmers of the state a better idea of how to combat certain seemingly necessary evils in farming, and at the same time, to act as an organ for some of the prime “farmers organizations” of the state. They established The Clemson Agricultural Journal, and, to show their earnestness, got out two good numbers, fine examples of what the following classes should do, and showing just how valuable such a paper could be made.

We are glad to see the Journal staff of 1914 has celebrated the first anniversary of its founding by such a good number. This first issue contains sixty-two pages of valuable information written by the professors and students of Clemson and by men, who represent such organizations as the South Carolina Plant Breeders Association and are at the front of South Carolina farming. These numbers are valuable and every Clemson man should be a subscriber and have them sent to his home. Steps are well under way now for succeeding numbers, one, a Live Stock Number, and another, a Horticultural Number, both of which should be of supreme interest to us as agricultural students. The Agricultural Journal staff is only too glad to accept the writings of any one in college and every student should try to do something to help the Journal along.

Just before the Christmas holidays, the executive committee of the South Carolina Oratorical Association held its annual meeting at Rock Hill for the purpose of electing judges, selecting a place for the contest to be held, choosing positions for the different speakers, and attending to many other smaller details.

Of all the cities which applied, Rock Hill’s offer proved to be the most inviting, consequently the contest will be held there. During the contest which is to be held on April 24th, Clemson will play two games of baseball with Erskine College at Rock Hill. As usual it fell to the lot of our speaker to have to deliver his address last. Regardless of this however, Clemson is sure to make her presence felt most vividly.

Our desire to win the contest, the fact that our sister college will be there, the baseball games, and our knowing that “Rock Hill is a good town”, should cause a large number of Tigers to wander over towards that prosperous city.

“And I suppose, like a brave soldier, you followed your colors?”

“Yes; whenever there was a battle, I noticed that the colors were flying, so I fled too.”

A good definition for an “Investigation”, according to The Washington Star, is “An effort to equip the small voice of conscience with a megaphone.”
WHAT OTHERS ARE DOING AND SAYING

The following is from an old Vandy weekly and shows why Vanderbilt is always near the lead in southern athletics.

"There have been numerous scenes which have moved strong men to tears, but just about the most heart-rending scene ever witnessed on an athletic field was seen at the Lambeth Field Stadium last Saturday—one which brought tears to the eyes of every Vandy supporter, male or female, present. As the Virginia rooters formed in line for their snake dance and the band burst forth in the strains of "Auld Lang Syne," a little group of warriors, wrapped in Gold and Black blankets, gently lifted their peerless center on their shoulders, and their bloody faces, slowly began the short journey from the field of defeat. For four long years the pain of his injured foot, his heart grew sore when he remembered the fateful contest that they could no longer hold themselves in check.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR IS COMING

Though we do not concede that we ever have visitors at Clemson who are not appreciated, the visit of Mr. Johnson Monday is fraught with interest for everyone who is a lover of athletics. Mr. Johnson represents the firm of Arthur Johnson & Co., and brings with him a swell line of athletic goods. Be sure to see him in room 62.

MR. JOHNSON WILL BE IN ROOM 62 ALL DAY MONDAY.

Papa: "Where have you been, James?"
James: "Fishin'."
Papa: "Come into the woodshed, and we'll have a whaling expedition."
George: "Well, I'll say it again next week; I'm not the man to say one thing one minute and another the next."
"Well, this is the law of compensation, Bill?" asked the first man.
"Well," said Bill, "it's like this. If yer blind, ye hear the better."
"Oh, I see" said the other. "For instance, if a fellow's born with one leg shorter than the other, then the other leg is longer."
"Do they study the three R's in your son's college?"
"Yes, revelry, relaxation and rot." —Life.

Back with a big bunch of good resolutions and meaning business.

Everybody had a great Christmas in spite of the rain. We had the usual rain or snow to return in too.

Here's hoping that everyone has as one among many good resolutions, that he will ever work hard for good college spirit and a bigger and better Clemson.

We are glad to welcome the new year, glad to start trying to make it a better one in our lives than 1913 was; but, we seniors can't help but feel sad, when we know that it marked the last full year that we are to spend at Clemson, that soon we shall have to leave the delightful associations and companionships that we have enjoyed, and that we can never again thrill with the delightful anticipations of our school-day Christmas holidays.

There is one thing that Clemson does for the homesick boy. She sets him to work before he has a chance to ponder over home and holiday pleasures. In three days everything is running as smoothly as if there had been no holidays.

We have become accustomed to calling this term the period of athletic rest, but not so this year. Basketball practice is going it at a great clip, and meetings regarding class football are already being held.

Every man who has ever played basket-ball should try to get out and help Capt. Erwin get out a good team. Clemson had a good basket-ball team last year and made a fine record, but we want to stand higher in the S. C. A. A. than we ever have before; so let's everybody help as much as we can.

It's good to see such men as Capt. Erwin, Caughman, Ward, Glover, Morgan, and Jennings in action again.

Among the new men who are showing up well on the basket-ball court are Shachte, Walker, Hoffmeyer, Wannamaker and Gee. Most of these men are remembered from their work on the Freshman football team last year.

CLASS FOOTBALL

Clemson is very unfortunate in not having preparatory school football material to draw from. The state of Georgia, for instance, is literally covered with district and preparatory schools, at which football is one of the most important factors. This, of course, gives the Georgia colleges a distinct advantage over our college in this branch of athletics. To try to overcome this advantage, we have inter-class games, in which the rudiments, or first principles of the great game are taught. These games are a great help toward developing varsity material, and many of the greatest varsity stars are developed here. Besides helping the varsity, it is a great help to the respective classes engaged. It brings out the men and makes them respected and liked by their classmates. The present senior class has a record well to be proud of. It developed a class team which, besides supplying seven varsity men, has never been defeated in the three years of its football career. This is something well worth striving for, because it will go down in the football history of the college.

Men do not have to have previous experience in the game to go out for their class teams. This is the place to gain experience besides learning to love the game as every loyal Clemson supporter should. So everybody that possibly can, whether large or small, fast or slow, get out and “dig” for his class. The time is not far off, so think quickly, come out, and be ready when the whistle blows.

APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS

The last thing to be done before the Christmas holidays was the appointment of the officers for the remainder of the session 1913-1914. Instead of appointing the officers last commencement for the whole of the present session, they were appointed on trial for the first term, and were then reappointed or changed as is shown by the following list.

Extreme Politeness

When old Si Simlin went to town
He looked straight up and never down.
He turned his head from each passerby
And fixed his gaze on the buildings high.
The crowds swept on in fine array.
We spoke to him of the great display;
But it had no interest for Si;
He wanted to see the buildings high.

Said he, "Just once I took a view
And I caught a glimpse of the fashions new;
I couldn't describe 'em if I'd try,
But I guess I'll look at the buildings high."

"If a lady hasn't goods enough,
For a regular dress of well spun stuff,
No slash or shadow shall ketch my eye.
I'll keep it fixed on the buildings high."
