August 7, 1895

The faculty was called to order at 8:35 P.M. with all present except Messrs. Clinton, Puller and Stark.

Cadets J.B. Bozeman and E.M. Melord were brought before the faculty charged with being out of barracks at night without authority. Mr. Bozeman claimed that he had a severe toothache and hurried to the doctor for relief and asked Mr. Melord to go with him; but they both admitted that they did not ask permission to leave the barracks and that they also had another object in view in going out. Upon Mr. Clark's motion they were both dismissed by an unanimous vote.

The faculty adjourned at 9:25.
