Called Meeting Oct 23, 1891

The Faculty were called to order at 10 o'clock by Acting Rector, Mr. Harrold. Absent were: Allen, Anderson, Baynes, Brodie, Carnes, "Rule," Hart, Logan, Lee, Mellen, Morrison, Sandling, Shively, Hisman, Thorne, and McConnochie.

The Rector stated the object of the meeting: to consider the case of Cadet Reckling, who reported by the Commandant for cutting Cadet Paul with a knife.

The Commandant stated that Cadets Reckling and Paul had had a fight and that Cadet Paul had been cut by Cadet Reckling.

The Rector called the attention of the Faculty to the rule in the old book of rules of the College regarding fighting, as well as the rules in the new book, especially in this case.

Reckling, as reported by the Commandant for cutting Paul, was present and appeared before the Faculty. He made a statement of the case. Paul, as the cadet cut by Cadet Reckling, appeared before the Faculty and made a statement of the case.

The testimony of Cadets Reckling and Paul agreed as to cause of the difficulty which wore that Paul had stepped on Reckling's heel as Reckling had kicked back and pinched Paul's leg. Each said that the occurrence was an accident and that apologizing had been made for the offense or supposed offense. Each said that he other refused to accept the apology and wanted to fight. Each claimed that the other was the aggressor in the fight.

Reckling admitted having cut Paul and claimed that he did so because Paul was a big fellow and that therefore he was not willing to fight a fair and just fight with him.

Taylor, D.B., districting the time when the quarrel took place. He told Paul to put a cadet between them. Did not see the fight.
May 30, 1894

The following witnesses of the fight:
- Taylor
- Zarah, W.
- Colby, M.
- Ewen, J.

Arenas appeared before the faculty. Their testimony agreed as to the cause of the fight, and established the fact that Reckling was the aggressor. He had wittily stabed Paul with a knife, his testimony as noted:

On motion of the Harriman Club by the Pullas, it was resolved that Cadet Reckling be dismissed for cutting another student with a knife without provocation, all calls and was received as follows: Ages - Bennison, Brackett, Clinicsale, Connor, Pullas, Harriman, Lewis, Harman, Poole, Riseman, Rizzo, Worthington, Paye (13) Adults: Antman, Bholme, Brodie, Darch, Nott, Meteor, Morris, Schrie, Smyth (7) Not Voting - Present Mr. Keating (1)

The Keefer called attention to the rule of the Board of Trustees requiring a 3/4 vote of the faculty to expel. On motion of the Clinicsale Club Faculty adjourned at 7:30 p.m. to adjourn the Reckling Case.

Adjourned Meeting Oct 2, 7:30 P.M.

The faculty was called to order at 7:40 p.m. by Acting President Smither. A motion of the case: Messrs. Barnes, Brodie, Nott, Mortison, Rizzo.

The principal in the Reckling Case: Cadet Reckling at such an hour and the witnesses continued at the afternoon when recalled and repeated their testimony which was substantially the same as at the afternoon session.

On motion of the Harriman Club by Pullas, Cadet Reckling was dismissed for willfully cutting Cadet Paul with a knife.
June 6, 1894.

I shall call vote about 7 p.m. to dismiss about Mr. Barnes, Brodie, Hart, Morris, Riggs. Dr. Smith then announced that Casey Reckling had dismissed by a 7 to 6 vote of the faculty. There being no further business the faculty adjourned. The vote was at 8:40 p.m.  R.M. [Signed Here]
