OFFICIAL NOTICE JUST RECEIVED.

In connection with the Third Officers' Training Camp to begin January 5th, the War Department has issued instructions from which the following section is quoted:

"NOTE 3. Applications of College Men—Graduates and undergraduates who are eligible as indicated above and who desire to be admitted to the training camp against this year the standards prescribed for the purpose and forward the completed application to "the instructor in military tactics" of the institution in which the applicant graduated. Instructions in the application should be followed: especially the recommendations or not, but only the names of three respectable citizens who know the applicant best. Each applicant was examined physically at his own expense by a reputable physician, who will fill out the physical report forming part of the official application blank. Applications will be received between October 15 and November 1. No application received after December 1 will be considered, but will be promptly returned to the applicant.

STATE TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT COLUMBIA—TIGERS WELL REPRESENTED.

Hodgell, Robertson and Fitzgerald went to Columbia on Monday of this week to represent Clemson in the State Tennis Tournament. These three Tigers have been working hard since college, and if successful would be our representatives, and they will deserve the honor.

Hodgell and Robertson as our representatives last year won the doubles, and they have the best wishes of the corps for success this year. Fitzgerald went along as a substitute, but he is a "working" good player at that. The tournament will continue thru the week.

The colleges that are represented are:

Clemson, Furman, Carolina, Newberry, Winthrop, Presbyterian College, Citadel, College of Charleston and Clemson.

From those of you who stand waiting for a letter and fail to get it prove that lots of us expect something we don't get.
Letter From

Camp Jackson

Editor of The Tiger:

Editor, Clemson Jackson, Columbia, S. C., Sept. 15—Today as the boys at Clemson begin another year's work, my thoughts turn to you. Being here near Columbia, and seeing the fellows pass through on their way back, made me homesick, and I hardly felt right to be going back again.

We have numbers of old Clemson men here, both officers and privates. I see here, both officers and privates. I see the colors lowered until last note. At a time when our men are on duty to the colors, and seeing the fellows pass through, my thoughts turn to you. Being here near Columbia, and seeing the fellows pass through on their way back, made me homesick, and I hardly felt right to be going back again.

I wish that I could send you a list of all the Clemson men that I know, who received commissions at Oglethorpe; and seeing the fellows pass through, my thoughts turn to you. In the past few days, several of the old alumni have been on the campus in the regulation uniform. "Matt" Want, now a lieutenant in a Infantry Camp at Camp Jackson, was on a visit to his brother, W. R. Johnson, ’11, who is a lieutenant in a motor searchlight company at Camp Jackson. J. Y. Faire is with the Southern Oil Co., at Barnwell, S. C., as an independent of company F. Y. Dr. Trowbridge is very busy in command of a company of artillery. He has been carrying on experiments on searchlights for the government. Lieutenant L. R. Slagle is at Ft. Photo, S. C.

Clemson Agricultural College

A young man can make no better investment than in a technical education. Viewed merely as a matter of business, an education can often earn him $100,000 a year, and he has to borrow the money at interest, he will find that his increased earning capacity comes even in the first year of his college work and is sufficient to repay the loan. It is a poor business policy to wait for him to earn the money necessary to pay for an education with an earning capacity only one-third that of a man with an agricultural college education. Every year of untrained, uneducated labor represents a dollar financial loss. Every boy of ability and ambition whose parents are unable to pay for his education, should get some friend to indorse his note at the bank and begin preparing for a career of greater earning capacity and a fuller life. There is no time to lose. The world is looking for men of large ability who have been trained to do portly work for them. Already there is a surplus of the one-horsepower variety.

SOUTH CAROLINA

School of Engineering and Agriculture

One of the largest and best equipped Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges in the South. 4,144 acres of land. Value of plant over $1,300,000. Over 120 teachers, officers and assistants. Enrollment of over 300. Every county in South Carolina represented. 13 Degrees, 1 Short Course. 47 New and Modern buildings, equipped and sanitation. Over 100,000 enrolled in public service.

Value of a Technical College Education

A college education is no longer a luxury of the rich, but more a monopoly of the poor boy whose parents can not afford so much as $50 a year for his education. Clemson College brings within the reach of every boy in South Carolina the benefits and possibilities of a technical education. The way is prepared whenever, if he has the necessary knowledge, he need not confine his ignorance. Here, at a cost lower than that of any similar institution, one the young man and capacity feeling to start on. In earning capacity, it represents the utmost a capital of from $15,000 to $30,000, depending upon the energy, character and personality of the possessor, and the capital increases with every year of its efficient use. Every year of untrained, uneducated labor represents a direct financial loss. Every boy of ability and ambition whose parents are unable to pay for his education, should get some friend to indorse his note at the bank and begin preparing for a career of greater earning capacity and a fuller life. There is no time to lose. The world is looking for men of large ability who have been trained to do portly work for them. Already there is a surplus of the one-horsepower variety.
