One individual leaves our ranks this quarter (to a degree), while another solidifies her position.

Evelyn Brass retired from the University of Houston library on September 30, 2011, after 30 years at UH. She writes, "my plans are to remain in Houston, and to remain active with NASIG."

Christina Torbert, on the other hand, will have tenure and a new academic standing as of July 1, when she will be made Associate Professor, Head of Serials and Bibliographer for Philosophy and Religion.
