We have two submissions for this quarter’s column, both of which look to me to be interesting reads. Decide for yourselves though, by checking out:

This article was written by the 2013 John Merriman award winner and University Librarian for Electronic Resources at Florida Gulf Coast University, Anjana H. Bhatt, detailing her trip to UKSG.

From Smita Joshipura, electronic resources management coordinator at the Arizona State University Libraries, we have a book chapter:

Congratulations to our authors, and happy reading to all!
