1.0 CPC Update (Hanson and Lindquist)

Hanson reported that the Billy Bob's reservation is confirmed for opening session. They opted for a buffet dinner and menu selection will happen after the first of the year and the holiday rush is over.

The First timer's reception will be held in the Texas Club room at Billy Bob's. There will be buses to get the first timer's to Billy Bob's early for the reception.

Hanson reported that the budget lines are still projections but on track. CPC has communicated menu requests to the hotel and are waiting for confirmation and final pricing. They have also sent RFPs to bus lines for pricing/service testimonials. A/V selection is in process and CPC has submitted RFPs to the hotel and two 3rd party A/V companies. They will work with the A/V vendor once selected to set up the streaming for the vision sessions.

2.0 PPC Update (Getz and Creech)

PPC received a lower than normal number of proposals this year. The Committee has selected its top 38 and submitted their proposed slate.

PPC had the following questions for the Board:

They are aware that PPC and Board members cannot submit proposals, but what about Conference Coordinator and Registrar? The Board confirmed that the Conference Coordinator and the Registrar are appointed positions and not Board members so there is no conflict. Additionally, the newsletter editor is Ex Officio and thus non-voting member of the Board and so there is no conflict there either. Board sees non-conflict so sessions are acceptable.

Given the low number of proposals this year, can the slate include more than one presentation from the same person? The Board sees no issue with this.

Can CPC/PPC/Board members present at the Great Ideas Showcase, Snapshot, or Lively Lunches? The Board unanimously agreed that YES they can present.

The PPC presented their idea of Snapshot sessions, which would be short 5 to 7 minute presentations from any attendee. This provides a venue for presenting for funding from institution and there will be no compensation for Snapshot presenters.

The Board thinks this is a good idea depending on where it fits into the schedule. The PPC is proposing to hold them at the same time as Great Ideas Showcase (they would run in parallel) on Friday at 5pm.

Vendor Lightening Talks (vendors first come first served) are a separate even from the Snapshot session, and would be at a separate time slot. The PPC is looking at a Friday afternoon time slot with a possible second round on Saturday. The presentations will be the same 7 to 8 minute length.

Boissy reported that nine vendors have committed (just around $17,000) so far.

The PPC also asked about vendor sponsored lunches during the lunch on your own days. These will not be listed in the program, but vendors are welcome to organize those on their own outside of the official program.

3.0 Site Selection Update (Tenney, Kelley)

Site selection reported on their recent trips to potential 2016 Conference locations.

6.0 Items to Complete at the January 13th Conference Call before the January 23th Board Meeting

Jan. 13 call: Registration rates; CPC; PPC; N&NE update (Boissy)

Jan. 23 Board meeting – Boissy needs to leave early; no CPC/PPC/SiteSelection

7.0 Old and New Business

Kelley would like to start a Mission and Vision task group whose focus would be to update the NASIG mission statement and vision statement to make them less print-focused. The group would be comprised of both older/previous members and newer members, including some ex-presidents. We want to keep NASIG as brand, but have less focus on "serials" and more on the wider range of materials we work with.
Tenney noted that to change the name to NASIG from North American Serials Interest Group, we would need to go through the IRS for the legal name change.

It was suggested that the Mission and Vision task group also consider a "tag line" for marketing that could be put in email signatures or under the NASIG logo.

Arnold reported that NASIG's taxes were filed in November and we owe nothing. They did have some technical issues with file transfers to accountant. She would like to use our credit card points to get a small thank you for the assistant that patiently helped out as we resolved the technical issues. The Board unanimously agreed.

The meeting adjourned at 2:05pm.
