My thanks to the colleagues listed herein, for having contributed to my personal knowledgebase, and that of the profession as a whole!

Melissa Johnson, electronic resources and serials librarian at the Reese Library on the Summerville Campus at Georgia Regents University, presented a shotgun session entitled “Wilde About Weeding: An Earnest Effort in Collection Development” at the 2014 Charleston Conference. The presentation described the consolidation of two universities in Augusta, Georgia, and how the libraries are working together in developing a weeding plan to consolidate resources and create more student space.
